29 We know that God spake to Moses, but this (man) we know not from where (he) is.' 30 The man answered, he said to them: 'This indeed is the wonder, that ye know not from where he is, and he opened mine eyes. 31 We know that God heareth not sinners, but if any one is a worshipper of God, and (is) doing his wish; this (one) he heareth. 32 Since the beginning of the world (lit. from (the) age) we heard not, that any one opened (the) eyes of a (man) blind from birth. 33 If this (man) is not of God, he would not be able to do anything.' 34 They answered and said to him: 'Thou wast begotten (lit. art a generation) altogether in
(the) sin; and wilt thou teach us?' And they cast him out.
35 And Jesus heard that they cast him out; and having found him, said: 'Believest thou (the) Son of God?' 36 He answered, he said: 'Who is he, my Lord, that I may believe him?' 37 Jesus said to him: 'Thou seest him, and it is he who speaketh to thee.' 38 And he said:
'I believe, my Lord:' and he worshipped him.

after the stranger, but they shall flee from him, because they know not (the) voice of the stranger.' 6 This proverb Jesus said to them: but they knew not wherefore he spake to them. 7 Again, Jesus said to them: 'Verily, verily, I say to you, that I am the door of the sheep.
8 All who came before me are robbers and are thieves; but the sheep hearkened not to them. 9 I am the door of the sheep: he who will come in through me shall be saved; and he shall come in, and he shall come out, and shall find a pasture. 10 And the thief cometh not except haply that he may steal, and slay, and destroy; I came that life might be to them, and that abundance might be to them. 11 I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd giveth his life (lit. soul) for his sheep. 12 But the hireling, (plur.) he said to them: 'Lazarus our friend slept, but I shall go, that I may raise him.' 12 The disciples said to him: 'Lord, if he slept, he shall rise.' 13 Now Jesus said (it) concerning the sleep of his death. But they were thinking that he said (it) concerning the sleep of the slumber. 14 Then Jesus said to them openly: 'Lazarus died. 15 And I rejoice because of you, that ye may believe, that I was (imperf.) not there; but let us go unto him.' 16 Thomas then, who is called 'Didymus,' said to his fellow disciples: 'Let us also go, that we may die with him.' 17 Jesus then having come, found him, having been four days (lit. being his four) in the sepulchre. 18 Now Bethany was (imperf.) near to Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia. 19 And many of the Jews had come to Mary and Martha, concerning their brother. 20 Martha then having heard that Jesus cometh, rose, she met him; but Mary was sitting in the house. 21 Martha then said to Jesus:

the sepulchre. Now it was a cave, and there was a great stone put (lit. given) against it. 39 Jesus said to them:
'Take (away) this stone [there]:' Martha, (the) sister of him who died, said to him: 'Lord, he stinketh (ⲁϥ), for (it is) his four(th day) to-day.' 40 Jesus said to her: 'Said I not to thee, that if thou shouldest believe, thou wilt see (the) glory of God?' 41 They then took away the stone from the mouth of the sepulchre. And Jesus lifted his eyes up, and said: 'My Father, I give thanks to thee, because thou heardest me. 42 And I was knowing that thou hearest me always; but because of this multitude which surrounds me I said (it), that they may believe, that thou sentest me.' 43 And having said these (things), he cried out with a great voice: 'Lazarus, come forth.' 44 And he who died came forth, being bound as to his feet and his hands with grave-clothes, and his face bound with a napkin. Jesus said to them: 'Unloose him, send him away, let him go.'

45 Many then of the Jews who came to Mary, having seen the things which he did, believed him.
46 But some of them went to the Pharisees, they told to them that which Jesus did. 47 The chief priests then and the Pharisees assembled an assembly, and they were saying:
'What shall (lit. will) we do? many are the signs which this man doeth. 48 If we should permit him thus, all will believe him, and the Romans will come, they will take away our place and our nation.' 49 But one of them answered, his name being Kaiapha, being chief priest for that year. He said to them: 'Ye know not anything; 50 nor reason ye to yourselves, that it is profitable for you, that (one) man alone should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.' 51 Now he said not this from himself; but because he was (imperf.) chief priest for that year, he prophesied that Jesus must die for the nation; 52 and not for the nation alone, but (must) assemble into one the sons also of God who are scattered. 53 From that hour they took counsel that they might kill him.

54 And Jesus was not walking any more manifestly in Judea, but he went from there to a country near the desert, to a city called 'Ephrem,' and he abode there with his disciples. 55 Now the passover of the Jews was approaching; and many came up to Jerusalem from the country before the passover, that they might hallow themselves. 56 The Jews then were seeking for Jesus, saying to one another, standing in the temple: 'What think ye, that he will not come to (the) feast?' 57 The chief priests and the Pharisees had given commandment, that if any one should know where he was, he should shew him to them, that they might apprehend him. XII. Jesus then six days before the passover (lit. before six days of the passover) came to Bethany, the place in which Lazarus was (imperf.), who died, whom Jesus raised from the dead. [2] They made a supper for him in that place, and Martha was ministering, and Lazarus was one of them who sat at meat with him. [3] Mary then took a pound of ointment of pistic nard, being of great price, and she anointed (the) feet of Jesus with it, and she wiped them with (the) hair of her head; and the house was filled with (lit. from) the odour of the ointment. [4] But one of his disciples, who was (lit. is) Judas (the) Iscariot, who was to deliver him (up), said: '[5] Wherefore was not this ointment sold for three hundred staters, and they be given to the poor?' [6] Now he said this, not because he cared about the poor; but because he was a thief, and having the bag he was

Philip came, they said (it) to Jesus. 23 And Jesus answered, he said to them: 'The hour came that (the) Son of (the) man should be glorified. 24 Verily, verily, I say to you, that unless the grain of wheat fall upon the earth and die, it abideth alone: but if it should die, it bringeth forth much fruit. 25 He who loveth his life (lit. soul) shall lose it; and he who hateth his life (lit. soul) in this world shall keep it to eternal life. 26 He who will minister to me, let him follow me; and (the) place in which I am, there shall be with me my minister; and he who will be minister to me, my Father will honour him. 27 Now was my soul troubled; and what shall (lit. will) I say? my Father save me from this hour; but therefore came I to this hour. 28 Father, glorify thy Son.' A voice came from from them. 37 But having done so many (lit. these multitudes of) signs before them, they believed him not. 38 That (the) word of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he said: 'Lord, who believed our voice? and to whom was revealed (the) arm of the Lord?' 39 Therefore it was not possible for them to believe, and Esaias said again: '40 He hardened their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they might not see with their eyes, and understand in their heart, and might return to me, that I might cure them.' 41 These (things) said Esaias, because he saw (the) glory of God, and spake concerning him. 42 Nevertheless many of the rulers also believed him: but they were not confessing him because of the Pharisees, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: 43 for they loved (the) glory of [the] men rather than (the) glory of God. 44 And Jesus cried out and said: 'He who believeth me, believeth (ⲁϥ) XIII. Now before (the) feast of the passover, Jesus having seen that his hour came, that he should remove from this world, and (lit. about to) go to the Father; having loved them who were his own, who were in the world, he (lit. having) loved them until the end. 2 And supper having been (ended), the devil had already put (lit. thrown) into (the) heart of him who was to deliver him (up), who was (lit. is) Judas Simon (the) Iscariot. 3 And Jesus having seen that the Father gave everything into his hands, and that he came from God, and is to go to God, 4 rose from the supper, laid his garments down, and took a towel, he girt himself with it. 5 And he poured (lit. threw) water into a bason, and began to wash (the) feet of his disciples, and (is) wiping them with the towel with which he was (imperf.) girt. 6 He came then to Simon Peter, about to wash his foot: Peter said to him: 'Lord, wilt thou wash my foot?' 7 Jesus answered and said to him: 'That which I do, thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know after these (things).' 8 Peter said to him: 'Thou shalt never wash my foot.' Jesus answered: 'Verily, verily, I say to thee: Unless I wash thy foot, thou hast not part with me.' 9 Simon Peter said to him: 'My Lord, not only my feet, but also (ⲛⲉⲙ .. ⲕⲉ) my hands and my head.' 10 Jesus said to him: 'He who was washed hath not need except to wash his foot, but he is altogether clean, and ye also are clean, but not all.' 11 For he was knowing who was to deliver him (up); therefore he was saying: 'Ye are not all clean.' 12 When then he (had) washed their feet, he took his garments, and having sat down to meat again, he said to them: 'Ye know what I did to you. 13 Ye call me "Teacher" and "our Lord;" ye say well, for I am (it).

14 If then I washed your feet, your Lord and your Teacher, ye also ought to wash the (lit. their) feet of one another.

15 For I gave (lit. did) to you a pattern, that according as I did to you, ye also might do to one another. 16 Verily, verily, I say to you, that there is not a servant [being] greater than his Lord, nor an apostle [being] greater than he who sent him. 17 If ye know these (things), blessed are ye if ye should do them. 18 I was not saying (it) concerning you all: for I know them whom I chose, but that the scripture may be fulfilled: "He who eateth my bread with me raised his heel upon me." 19 [From] now I say to you before it happen, that if it should happen, ye may that, since Judas was having the bag, [that] perhaps Jesus is saying to him: 'Buy that of which we shall (lit. will) have need for (the) feast;' or, that he might give something to the poor. 30 That (man) then having received the sop came forth immediately; and it was night. 31 When then he came forth, Jesus said: 'Now (the) Son of (the) man was glorified, and God was glorified in him. 32 If God was glorified in him, [and] God will glorify him in himself, and immediately shall glorify him.

'33 My sons, yet a little I am with you: ye shall seek for me, and according as I said to the Jews, that the Father loved me, I also loved you: abide in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye will abide in my love: as I also kept the commandments of my Father, and I abide (ϣⲟⲡ) in his love. 11 These (things) I said to you, that my joy may abide in you; and that your joy also may be fulfilled. 12 This is my own commandment, that ye love one another, as I loved you. 13 No one hath greater than this love, that he (lit. one) should lay (down) his life (lit. soul) for his friend. 14 Ye are my friends, if ye should do the things which I order you. 15 I will no longer call you "servant;" because the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but you I am to call "my friends;" because all things which I heard from my Father I shewed to you. 16 Ye chose not me, but I chose you; and I set you, that ye might go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit might stay. That that which ye will ask from sin: but now they saw, and they hated me and my Father also. 25 But (this is) that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law, that they hated me without a cause.

'26 If the Paraclete should come, whom I will send to you from (ϩⲓ) my Father, the Spirit of the truth, who cometh from (ϩⲁ) the Father, he will bear witness concerning me. 27 And ye also bear witness, because ye are with me from (the) first. XVI. These (things) I said to you, that ye might not be offended, 2 if they should put you out of the synagogue. But an hour cometh, that every one, who will kill you, shall (conj.) think that he offered sacrifice to God. 3 And these (things) they shall do to you, because they knew not the Father, nor knew they me. 4 But these (things) I said to you, that if the hour should come, ye may remember them that I have said them to you; and these (things) I said not to you

5 But now I will go to him who sent me, and no one of you asketh me, "Whither wilt thou go?" 6 But because I said these (things) to you, (the) grief filled your heart.
7 But (the) truth I say to you; it is profitable for you that I go. For unless I go, the Paraclete will not come to you. But if I should go, I will send him to you.
8 And if that (one) should come, he shall convict the world concerning (the) sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgement. 9 Concerning (the) sin indeed, because they believe me not; 10 and concerning righteousness, because I will go to the Father, and ye will see me no longer; 11 and concerning judgement, because (the) ruler of this world hath been judged. 12 I have yet many things to say to you, but ye will not be able to bear them now.

this word with one another, because I said to you, that yet a little, (and) ye will not see me; and again, yet a little, (and) ye will see me. 20 Verily, verily, I say to you, that ye will weep and mourn, but the world will rejoice; ye will be grieved, but your grief will become to you joy. 21 The woman if she should be going to bear is grieved, because her hour came: but if she should bear the son, she remembereth not the tribulation because of the joy, that she bare a man into the world. 22 And ye also now indeed shall have grief; again I will see you, and ye will rejoice; and your joy no one will take away from you. 23 And in that day ye will ask me not anything. Verily, verily, I say to you, that which ye will ask from the Father in my name, he shall give to you. 24 Till now ye asked not yet anything in my name: ask, and ye will receive, that your joy may be complete. 25 And these (things) I said to you in proverbs; and an hour cometh, when I will speak to you no longer in proverbs, but openly I will shew to you concerning the Father. 26 In that day ye shall ask in my name, and I will not say to you, that I will beseech the Father concerning you. 27 For the Father himself also loveth you, because ye loved me, and ye believed that I came from (ϩⲁ) the Father. 28 I came from (ϧⲉⲛ) the Father, and I came into the world; again I will leave the world, and I will go to the Father.' 29 His disciples said to him: 'Lo, now thou speakest openly, and thou sayest not any proverb. 30 Now we know, that thou knowest all things, and thou hast not need for any one to ask thee; in this we believe, that thou camest from (ϩⲁ) God.' 31 Jesus answered: 'Now ye believe. 32 Lo, an hour cometh, and it came, that ye may be scattered, each one to his place, and may leave me alone, and I am not alone, which thou gavest to me are from thee. [8] Because the words which thou gavest to me, I gave to them; and they also received them, and they knew truly that I came from thee, and they believed that thou sentest me. [9] I pray for them: I was not praying concerning the world, but concerning them whom thou gavest to me, because they are thine. [10] And they who are mine are thine; and I was glorified in them. [11] And I am no longer in the world; but these, they are in the world, and I come to thee. My Father, the holy (one), keep them in thy name which thou gavest to me, that they may be one as we are. [12] When I was (lit. being) with them I was keeping them in thy name which thou gavest me. I kept them, and not any of them perished except (the) son of (the) perdition, that the scripture might be fulfilled. [13] But now I am coming to thee, and these (things) I speak in the world, that my joy may be complete in them.

cedar trees, the place in which there is a garden; into this entered Jesus and his disciples. 2 And Judas also, who was to deliver him (up), was knowing that place, because many times Jesus assembled thither with his disciples.
3 Judas then having received the multitude and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. 4 And Jesus knowing all things which come upon him, came forth, he said to them: 'For whom sought ye?' 5 They answered, they said to him: 'Jesus of Nazareth.' Jesus said to them: 'I am (he).' Judas, who was to deliver him up, was standing with them. 6 When then he said to them: 'I am (he),' they fled back, and they fell down. 7 Again he asked them:
'For whom sought ye?' And they said: 'Jesus of Nazareth.' 8 Jesus answered: 'I said to you, that I am (he); if ye sought for me, send these away, let them go;' 9 that the entrance. The disciple then, who was (imperf.) an acquaintance of (lit. to) the chief priest, came, he spake to the porteress, and he brought Peter in. 17 The porter-maid said to Peter: 'Art thou also one of (the) disciples of this man?' and he said: 'Nay.' 18 Now the servants and the officers were standing (by), having lit a fire for themselves, because it was (the) winter; and they were warming themselves: and Peter also was standing with them, warming himself. 19 The chief priest then asked Jesus concerning his disciples, and concerning his teaching. 20 Jesus answered him, saying: 'I spake to the world openly. And I was teaching in the synagogues always, and in the temple, the place to which all the Jews assemble. And I said not any word in secret. 21 Wherefore askest thou me? ask them who heard, what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said.' 22 Jesus having said these (things), one of the officers who stood (by) struck Jesus, saying:

'Is this (the) manner of answering the chief priest?' 23 Jesus answered, he said to him: 'If evil (ⲕⲁⲕⲱⲥ) I spake, bear witness of the evil (ⲕⲁⲕⲱⲥ): but if well, wherefore beatest thou me?' 24 Then Anna sent him bound to Kaiapha the chief priest. 25 Now Simon Peter was standing, warming himself: they said to him: 'Art thou also one of his disciples?' and he denied, he said: 'Nay.' 26 One of the servants of the chief priest, being kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, said: 'Did I not see thee with him in the garden?' 27 Again Peter denied; and immediately a cock crew.

28 They then brought Jesus from Kaiapha into the Prætorium; and it was early; and they themselves came not into the Prætorium, that they shall not be defiled, until they eat the passover. 29 Pilate then came forth to them, my servants (lit. officers) would have fought (lit. given) for me, that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now my kingdom is not of (ⲑⲁ) the world.' 37 Pilate then said: '(Art) thou a king then?' Jesus answered: 'Thou sayest that I (am) a king. For I was born for this work, and therefore I came into the world for my bearing witness to the truth; all who are of the truth hear my voice.' 38 Pilate said to him: 'What is the truth?' and having said this, again he came forth to the Jews, he said to them: 'I find not any guilt in this man. 39 But your custom is that I should release one to you in the passover, wish ye then that I should release to you (the) king of the Jews?' 40 And they all cried out, saying: 'Release not this (man); but release Barabbas.' Now this Barabbas was a robber.

XIX. Then Pilate took Jesus, he scourged him. 2 And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, they put (lit. gave) king of the Jews!' and they were striking him. 4 Again Pilate came, and said to them: 'Lo, I will bring him out to you, that ye may know that I find not any guilt in crown and the purple garment, and Pilate said to them:

'Behold, the man!' 6 When then the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying: 'Crucify him, crucify him.' Pilate said to them: 'Take him yourselves, crucify him, for I find not any guilt attaching (lit. taking) to him.' 7 The Jews answered him: 'We have a law; and according to our law he is worthy of (the) death, because he made himself Son of God.' 8 When then Pilate heard this word, he feared the more. 9 And he came into the Prætorium, he said to Jesus: 'Whence art thou?' But Jesus answered him not. 10 Pilate said to him: 'Wherefore speakest thou not to me? or knowest thou not that I have authority to crucify thee, I have authority again to release thee?' 11 Jesus answered: 'Thou hast not any authority over (lit. into) me, if it had not been given to thee from above; therefore he who gave me to thee hath greater sin.' 12 Because of this (lit. therefore) then Pilate was seeking to (lit. for) release him. The Jews then cried out, saying: 'If thou shouldst release this (man), thou (art) not (the) friend of (the) king; for every one who maketh himself king, (is) opposing (the) king.'

13 And Pilate having heard these words, brought Jesus forth, and he sat on the judgement-seat in the place which is called 'the Lithostrôton,' but in Hebrew 'Gabbatha.' 14 Now it was (the) Preparation of the passover, and it was (the) sixth hour. And Pilate was saying to the Jews:
'Behold, your king!' 15 And they cried out: 'Take him

'Should I (conj.) crucify your king?' The chief priests an-fore (lit. then), he delivered to them Jesus, that they might crucify him.

They took then Jesus. 17 And he carrying his cross, came to the place which is called 'the skull,' but in Hebrew 'Golgotha;' 18 the place in which they crucified him: and they crucified two robbers also with him on this side and this side of him, and Jesus in (the) midst. 19 And Pilate wrote a title also, and set it upon the cross. And it was written: 'Jesus of Nazareth, (the) king of the Jews.' 20 And many of the Jews read the title, because the place in which Jesus was crucified was (imperf.) near to the city. And it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, in Greek.
21 The chief priests of the Jews were saying then to Pilate:
'Write not, "(The) king of the Jews," but that he said:

'I am (the) king of the Jews."' 22 Pilate answered: 'That which I wrote I wrote.' 23 The soldiers then having crucified Jesus, took his garments, they made four portions, and the coat also: now the coat was seamless, woven from above all of it. 24 They said then to one another: 'Let us not rend it, but let us cast lot for it, to which of us it is to belong.' That the scripture might be fulfilled, saying: 'They divided my garments among them, and they cast lot for my raiment.' These (things) then the soldiers did.
25 But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and (the) sister of his mother, Mary of (lit. that of) Kleopa, and Mary the Magdalene. 26 And Jesus having seen his mother, and the disciple whom he was loving, standing (by), said to his mother: 'Lo, thy son!' 27 Then he said to the disciple: 'Behold, thy mother!' And from that hour the disciple took her away to his house.

28 After these (things), Jesus having seen that now all things were finished, that the scripture might be finished, he said: 'I thirst.' 29 And there was a vessel full of vinegar set down; they filled a sponge with vinegar, they placed it upon hyssop, they put (lit. threw) it by his mouth.

30 When then Jesus tasted the vinegar, he said: 'It is (ⲁϥ) finished:' and having bent down his head, he delivered (up) the spirit.

31 The Jews then, since it was the Preparation, that the bodies might not stay upon the cross on (the) sabbath—for great was the day of that sabbath—they besought Pilate, that they might break their legs, and take them away. 32 The soldiers then came, and (of) the first indeed they brake his legs; and they brake those of the other who was crucified with him. 33 But having come to Jesus, they found him—he was already dead; they brake not his legs. 34 But one of the soldiers pierced his side with his spear; and immediately came out water and blood. 35 And he who saw bare witness; and true is his witness; and

(the) fear of the Jews—that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate commanded to give it. He came then and took away the body of Jesus. 39 And there came also Nicodemus, who came to Jesus by night at first, having a mixture (of) myrrh and aloe, about a hundred pound. 40 They took then the body of Jesus, and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, according to the custom of the Jews for embalming. 41 Now there was a garden in the place in which he was crucified; and there was a new sepulchre in the garden: no one was ever yet put (lit. thrown) in (it). 42 Since the sepulchre was (imperf.)

XX. Now on (the) first (lit. one) of the sabbaths, Mary the Magdalene came to the sepulchre early, it being yet dusk [out], and she saw the stone taken away from the mouth of the sepulchre. 2 She ran then, she came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved (imperf.), and she said to them: 'They took away our Lord from the sepulchre, and we know not where they laid him.' 3 Peter then came forth and the other disciple, and they were coming to the sepulchre. 4 And they were running both together. And the disciple ran before Peter, and came (lit. did) first before (lit. to) him to the sepulchre. 5 And he gazed in, he saw the garments laid down; however he entered not. 6 And there came also Simon Peter walking after him, and he went on into the sepulchre, and he saw the garments laid down: 7 and the napkin, which was (imperf.) upon his head, was (imperf.) not with the garments, but wrapped (up), laid apart alone. 8 Then came in also the other disciple who came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, he believed. 9 For they had not yet known the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. 10 The disciples went again to their place. 11 But Mary was standing outside by the sepulchre weeping: and as she (was) weeping, she looked into the sepulchre: 12 she saw two angels sitting in white vesture, one at the head, and one at the foot, in the place in which the body of Jesus was lying. 13 And those (angels) said to her: 'Woman, why weepest thou?' She said to them: 'They took away my Lord, and I know not where they laid him.' 14 Having said these (things), she turned herself back, she saw Jesus standing, and she was not knowing that it is Jesus. 15 Jesus said to her:

'Woman, wherefore weepest thou? for whom sought thou?'
And she, thinking that it is the gardener, said to him:
'My Lord, if thou carriedst him (away), shew to me where faithless.' 28 Thomas answered and said: 'My Lord and my God.' 29 Jesus said to him: 'Because thou sawest me, thou believedst: blessed are they who saw not, and believed.' 30 Many other signs indeed Jesus did before his disciples, which are not written in this book. 31 But these were written, that ye may believe that Jesus Christ is (the) Son of God, and that, believing, eternal life may be to you in his name.

XXI. And after these (things) again Jesus manifested himself to his disciples at the sea of Tiberiados; and he manifested himself thus. 2 There were (imperf.) at a place Simon Peter, and Thomas who is called 'Didymus,' and
(the) sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.
3 Simon Peter said to them: 'I will go and catch fish.' They said to him: 'We come also with thee;' and having come forth, they entered into the ship; and in that night they caught not any. 4 But morning being about to come, Jesus stood on the shore; however the disciples knew not that it was (lit. is) Jesus. 5 Jesus then said to them:

'Children, have ye anything to eat?' They answered:
'Nay.' 6 He said to them: 'Cast the net on the right of the ship, and ye shall find.' And they cast, and they could not draw it up for (the) abundance of the fishes.
7 The disciple whom Jesus loved (imperf.) said to Peter: 'It is the Lord.' Simon Peter then having heard that it was (lit. is) the Lord, girded himself in his clothing, for he was (imperf.) naked, and threw himself into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the ship—for they were (imperf.) not distant from the shore, but about two hundred cubits—drawing the net of the fishes. 9 And when they came to the land, they looked, they saw a fire laid [down], and fish upon it, and bread. 10 Jesus said to them: 'Bring of the fishes which ye caught now.' 11 Simon Peter then came up, and he drew the net up on the land, full of said to him: 'Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee.' He said to him: 'Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily, I say to thee that, thou being a child, thou girdest thyself, and goest whither thou willest; but if thou should be old, thou shalt stretch out thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and they shall take thee away, whither thou willest not.' 19 Now having said this, he signified in what death he is to glorify God: and having said this, he said to him: 'Walk after me.' 20 And Peter turned himself, he saw the disciple whom Jesus loved (imperf.), who reclined on his breast at (lit. in) the supper, who (ⲉⲁϥ) said to him: 'Lord, who will deliver thee (up)?' 21 Peter then having seen this (man), said to Jesus: 'My Lord, and this (man) what (shall) he (do)?' 22 Jesus said to him:
'If I should wish to leave him until I come, what (is it) to thee? but (ⲇⲉ) thou follow me.' 23 And this word came forth among the brothers, that that disciple will not die, but (ⲇⲉ)

Jesus said not to him, that he will not die; but if I should wish to leave him until I come, what is it to thee? 24 This is the disciple who bare witness of these (things); and he wrote them; and we know that his witness is true. 25 And there are many other things again which Jesus did; these, if they had been written one by one, I know that the world would not be able to contain the books which would have been (lit. will be) written.

THE EPISTLES OF S. PAUL

EDITED FROM MS. ORIENTAL 424 IN THE BRITISH MUSEUM

Oxford

AT THE CLARENDON PRESS

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

PAUL DE LAGARDE under his former name of Boetticher, in 1852, edited the Acts of the Apostles from four MSS., of which Curzon 124 (called by him Curetoniani) and Tattam's (now Oriental 424) had been collated by Schwartze: the other two in the Paris Library (now 65 and 66) were collated by himself. In the same year he published the Catholic and Pauline Epistles, using the two Paris MSS. of the Acts, which also contained the Catholic Epistles, and another Paris MS. containing those of S. Paul. Besides these he had the collations of the Curzon and Tattam MSS., and further a MS. divided into two volumes of the Berlin Library for the Epistles of S. Paul. These two volumes, however, did not contain the Epistles to the Galatians, Ephesians, and Philippians, but he was able to use a copy of the Ephesians and Philippians which had been made by Theodore Petraeus, of Leyden, from a MS. now at Copenhagen. This has been found to contain the Epistle to the Galatians, not copied by Petraeus (1660), and with the other two volumes formed originally one codex. Thus Lagarde worked from four MSS. for the Acts, four for the Catholic, and four for the Epistles of S. Paul. To his critical text he gave very few variants, on the average not more than a single line of apparatus.

Wilkins, who had already published the whole New Testament in 1716, constructed his text from the three Bodleian MSS., two in Paris, and two in the Vatican. None of those in Paris or Rome can be identified with certainty. The Acts and all the Epistles were contained by one in Paris and two in Rome, and one of these last was dated A.M. 1220 (1504). This may have been Vatican 15, though Wilkins styles it N^{r}. 5. To one of the Paris MSS. he ascribes the number 331, saying that it contained the Epistles of S. Paul, but the

MS. in which that number is now seen has the Acts and Catholic Epistles also. As for the Apocalypse he mentions one MS. at the Vatican bearing the early date A.M. 896 (1180). Neither of the Apocalypse MSS. at the Vatican are dated, and both appear to be of the fourteenth rather than the twelfth century, to which may belong the Petersburg codex. Wilkins only gave a few variants in his introduction.

Tattam edited the whole New Testament for the Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge, but the MSS. which he used were not described, and he gave no variant readings or notes of any kind.

The present edition depends upon thirty-four MSS., including in this number three lectionaries already used in the Gospels, and counting a few fragments in the British Museum as one MS. Of this number nineteen contain the Pauline Epistles, thirteen the Catholic Epistles, thirteen the Acts, and eleven the Apocalypse. All have been carefully collated by the editor except one, of which only the Epistles to the Romans and 1 Corinthians were collated. In this somewhat arduous work he was much helped and encouraged by the kindness received from librarians: and to the names already mentioned in the Preface to vol. i, he wishes gratefully to add those of Dr. Ehrle, of the Vatican, and Ḳūmmus (Hēgoumenos) Ṣalīb of Dayr al Muḥarraḳ, who kindly entertained him at his monastery for thirteen days. Several more MSS. of recent date have been seen in Egypt, but in Rome or Petersburg there seem to be no others.

Though Lagarde worked with scanty material, and expressed to the editor at Göttingen his regret that he had not examined all the MSS. of S. Paul in Paris, yet Tischendorf was able to obtain from his scholarly edition a sufficiently correct estimate of the Bohairic (cop) readings; and while a more thorough investigation has revealed an interesting variety among the MSS., and thrown some light on the history of the Version, it will not seriously affect the evidence which the Version affords for criticism of the Greek text.

In the Acts of the Apostles, where such evidence is more particularly desired, the Bohairic MSS. are nearly always unanimous in support of the text of Westcott and Hort, as already set forth in Dr. Sanday's Appendix to the Greek Testament. MSS. Γ and O occasionally exhibit Saidic influence, which is not surprising, since Γ was collated in the Said itself, near Assiout, and O has a colophon referring to an exemplar in that province. F is perhaps more strongly coloured by the dialect of Upper Egypt, though it has no documentary connection with the Said.

TEXT.

The text of British Museum Oriental 424, formerly in the possession of Tattam, has been given without alteration as far as possible for the Epistles and Acts; being almost the earliest dated MS., and containing a colophon which declares that it was copied from a very accurate exemplar of the preceding century, probably the continuation of the Gospels MS. H_1. According to the rule of the Coptic Church, which reads the Apostle, i.e. S. Paul, the Catholic, i.e. the Catholic Epistles, and the Acts in this order, the MSS. always begin with the Epistles of S. Paul, upon which the Catholic Epistles and Acts follow in regular succession, and this order has been kept in the text. The Apocalypse is edited from the interesting Curzon MS., the earliest dated of that book.

TRANSLATION.

In the translation only one important change has been made. Contrary to the method employed in the Gospels, all words in italics represent Greek words used in the Coptic. The word is usually, but not quite always, the same Greek word in some known text. A few common conjunctions are not in italics, and further the italics must not be regarded as necessarily implying that the whole of the word is Greek, but only the Greek part of a word which may have Coptic formatives. Regardless of style the conjunction ⲇⲉ is always translated 'but,' and when ⲁⲗⲗⲁ is used an ⲁ follows 'but' in brackets. The word 'Greek' itself when translating ⲟⲩⲉⲓⲛⲓⲛ should have been printed in italics, though its Saidic form figures in Professor Steindorff's glossary among Coptic words and is rendered 'Ionier.'

The same arrangement has been used corresponding strictly to the verse divisions of the MS., occasionally interfering with the sense. Sometimes a rather false appearance of paragraphs has been given when only a verse-beginning occurs. All proper names in the Acts are transliterated.

CRITICAL APPARATUS.

One slight alteration will be found in the apparatus where a sign of interrogation has been often placed when comparison with the Greek order of words is indicated, such comparison being nearly always very precarious.

Though the Apocalypse is found in two MSS. with other books, it usually forms a book by itself, and the MSS. of it have been classified separately. The texts of Lagarde and Tattam are marked by L^g and T^t.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MANUSCRIPTS.

All the following MSS., except C, were collated throughout by the editor in 1898–1900.

A_1 1. A_1 (Lagarde t) Paul (Heb., Tim.), Cath., Acts; Copt.-Arab., London Brit. Mus. Oriental 424 (Greg. 4), imperfect (the volume is bound in two parts, 1° [Rom.–Col.] of which the latter half is injured and patched, much of the text being lost; 2° 1 Thess. to end, in nearly perfect condition of text, less cut than 1°), A. D. 1307, A. Mart. 26 Babah 1024, paper, foll. 217 (+4), coll. 2, ll. 33, 1° 25.1 × 17.8 cm., text 21 × 14.3 cm., 2° 26 × 19 cm., text 21 × 14 cm.; writing by the same hand as H_2^{evv}; punctuation, rough red ≻ ⳼; l. c. three lines of text or more, yellow, red, and white, the letter ϯ very much prolonged; s. c. red for ch. small, and black reddened; ch. great marked by two red lines of text and small black uncials, ch. small by larger red uncials; foliated on verso with uncials, signed with Ar. name of ep. &c.; quire ending &c. ΙΥ ϪΥ(ϪΗ) ΚЄ ΟΘϹ (ΥϹ ΘϹ) with usual ornament; orn. scarcely any except yellow spaces and headpieces, which probably represent the gold ground of painting in Gabriel's MS. the exemplar.

Text practically the same as A_2, usually agreeing also with E_1, has a few glosses, contemporary corrector marks with red circles letters to be omitted; marginal references to quotations in red Arabic, quotations pointed in the Acts.

Bound in recent purple morocco, the cover has inside 'OR. 12. Ah.,' the first (recent) page OR. 424 "B[t] at Dean Tattam's sale 16 June, 1868.' fol. 1 (restored) watermark P P 'Rev H Tattam D D,' fol. 2 (rest.) w.m. three crescents and ⲗϜ, list of epp. of 1°. A₁

p. 3[a] ep. Rom. begins with yellow hp. enclosing label with red Arabic 'The epistles of Būlus the apostle'; below is ⲤⲨⲚ ⲐⲈⲰ red Coptic inscr. with Ar. 'The first epistle to the people of Rome'; one line of large red ornamented letters, one line of black between two lines of red archaic letters. p. 26[a] subscr. in red letters, narrow yellow hp., C. inscr. and Ar. 'The first ep. of Corinth and it is the second,' one line of tall red and two of ordinary red letters; thus also for 2 Cor. p. 49[b], Gal. p. 64[b], Eph. p. 72[a]; p. 80[a] ep. 'Was completed the book of the Catholic epistles and the Acts; and it is recorded in the copied copy, that (the said) copy was copied from a correct copy in the handwriting of Jūrjah ben Saksīk the celebrated copyist, and that the writer of his copy was the miserable among the monks Gabryāl; and he said that he (G.) exerted himself in correcting it in Arabic and Coptic with a very thorough revision; and he recorded that the provider for the work was the Shaykh al Nashū the before-mentioned; and the end of the work was on the tenth of Kīhak in the year 966 of the Martyrs, corresponding to the beginning of Ramaḍān in the year 647 of the Hijrah. And the end of copying this copy was on the blessed fifth day, twenty-eighth of Bābah in the year 1024 of the Martyrs, corresponding to the twenty-sixth of Rabīʻa II of the year 707 of the Ḥanafiyan Hijrah. It belongs to what he copied for himself with writing of his hand, the humble servant and sinner Abu Sāʻīd ben Saīd al Dār ben Abu al Faḍl the Christian; and he prays and makes many prostrations at the feet of him who reads in it, that he would correct its defect and think of him for mercy and pardon before the Lord at his coming to judge the world; and adoration and glory be to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen. A_1

p. 218ᵃ '217 folios Mar. 1870 G G exᵈ F W.' One recent binding fol. ends the volume.

References to quotations occur sometimes in uncials, sometimes Arabic. Orn. p. 3ᵇ has two medallions and two rectangular spaces with drawings of A_2

[1] Curzon is equivalent to 'Parham' in the description of MSS. Evv. vol. i, pp. cv, cvi.

A_2 Christ and S. Mary, the Conversion of Saul and S. Paul? writing, suggestive of pictures in Gabriel's copy and leaving cruciform space. Fol. 164 has drawing of four figures of the writers of the Catholic epistles beneath an arch from which hang seven lamps; a smaller side arch has another lamp with one more above it. Rough arabesque ornament also occurs with grotesque figures of dragons, birds, and other animals. Epp. Paul, Cath., and Acts have elaborate first pages of coarse colour; the usual headpiece is a narrow band of interlacing work. Ep. Heb. has three arches. In the three-arched headpiece at beginning of ep. Rom. is a yellow Arabic inscription on white label, 'The book of the epistles of the words (من قول) of our master (معلمنا) Būlus.' Under the arches is the inscription ⲡⲣⲟⲥ ⲣⲱⲙⲉⲟⲥ ⲁ̅, to which are added the words which appear in other MSS. as subscription, though without notice of the stichoi and chapters which will be found at the beginning of the other epistles in A_2.

Bound in native red leather the cover inside has R. Curzon Parham; on the first original fol. is written, 'The Acts of the Apostles and the Epistles in Coptic and Arabic.' On the fourth is the cross &c., which forms frontispiece to ep. Rom.

p. 4ᵃ ep. Rom. begins with one large ornamented line of blue letters reddened, one tall line of red, one tall yellow, one tall black reddened, and one line of red ordinary letters. For the rest of Paul, Peter, John, and Jude one large blue line and two or three ordinary lines of red letters mark the beginning of the epistles. Ep. James being the first Catholic ep. begins with one very large yellow line, one large blue reddened, one large yellow, one large red blackened, and one ordinary line of red letters.

pp. 39ᵇ, 40ᵃ have red and blue lines enclosing the columns (Rom. xvi. 7–21).

p. 40ᵇ ep. Rom. ends ⲡⲣⲟⲥ ⲣⲱⲙⲉⲟⲥ, and Arabic 'Finished is (the) epistle of Rome in peace, and follows it (يتلوه) the first epistle of Corinth.'

p. 67ᵇ ep. 1 Cor. ends with Arabic 'Completed is the first epistle of Corinth in peace of the Lord. Amen.' Then in rhyming verse:

يا قاري هذا الخط لم تعاشر احدا قط.
درت البلاد وعاشرت اهلها لم وجدت في الناس خيرا قط

'O reader of this line, do not associate with anyone at all. I went about the country, and I associated with the people of it: and I found among men not any good at all.' بالحب الروحاني اذكروا حقارة. وعدم طهارة الناسخ والمسيح يذكركم في يروسليم 'With spiritual love remember the misery and impurity of the copyist, and Christ will remember you in Jerusalem.'

اترك الدنيا وفيق. A2 ما على الدنيا دقيق.

Be quit of the rest of the pain and thou shalt go away from it innocent.'

p. 83ᵇ ep. 2 Cor. ends 'Finished and completed is the second epistle of Corinth, being the third of the epistles, in peace of the Lord. Amen. And follows it the epistle of Galatia.'

p. 92ᵃ ep. Gal. ends 'Completed is the epistle of Galatia, being the fourth. And follows it the epistle of Ephesus.'

p. 101ᵃ ep. Eph. ends 'Completed is the epistle of Ephesus in peace &c.' p. 108ᵇ ep. Philip. ends 'Completed is the epistle of Fīlibās, being the sixth of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the epistle of Ḳūlāṣāyṣ.'

p. 115ᵃ ep. Col. ends 'Completed is the epistle of Ḳūlāṣāyṣ, being the seventh of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the first epistle of Sālūnīḳy.' To the usual form of inscription of epp. 1 and 2 Thess. is added ⲥⲩⲛⲑⲉⲱ.

p. 121ᵃ ep. 1 Thess. ends 'Completed is the first epistle of Tasālūnīḳy, being the eighth of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the second epistle of Tasālūnīḳy.'

p. 124ᵇ ep. 2 Thess. ends 'Finished and completed is the second epistle of Tasālūnīḳy, being the ninth, in peace &c. And follows (it) the first epistle of Ṭīmūtāūs.'

p. 131ᵃ ep. 1 Tim. begins with ⲥⲩⲛⲑⲉⲱ ⲓⲥⲭⲩⲣⲟⲥ ⲟ̇ⲁ̇ⲅⲓⲟⲥ and usual inscription &c., and ends 'Finished is the first epistle of Ṭīmūtāūs, being the tenth of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the second (lit. 2) epistle of Ṭīmūtāūs.'

p. 136ᵇ ep. 2 Tim. ends 'Completed is the second epistle of Ṭīmūtāūs, being the eleventh of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the epistle of Ṭīṭūs.'

p. 140ᵃ ep. Titus ends 'Completed is the epistle of Ṭīṭūs, in peace &c. And follows it the epistle of Fīlīmūn.'

A_2 . p. 142[b] ep. Philem. ends 'Finished and completed is the epistle of Fīlīmūn, being the thirteenth, in peace &c. The epistle of the 'Abrāyīn 14.'

Ep. Hebrews has triple round-arched headpiece with ⲤⲨⲚⲐ (Ⲑ above, Ⲱ below) and ⲒⲤⲬⲨ (Ⲣ above, Ⲥ below) and the usual form of inscription &c.; p. 163[a] ends with same general subscription as A_1 except that ⲤⲦⲒⲬⲞⲤ is written in full, also the following: تم و كلمت رسايل بولس الرسول المنتخب وهي اربعة عشر رسال وارباعها خمس الاف وخمسماية خمس وسبعين وفصولها ماية وستة وذلك في غاية شهر امشير سنة ⲁⲫⲓ الف وخمسماية وعشرة للشهدا وذلك لمستهل تالت شهر شعبان سنة ١٢٠٨ الف ومايتين و تمانية عربية لهجرة وذلك من نقلة بخط القس غبريال الراهب محررة في سنة ϡⲝⲋ تسعماية ستة وستين للشهدا الموافق لمستهل رمضان سنة ٦٤٧ للهجرة بسلام من الرب امين 'Finished and completed were the epistles of Būlus the elect apostle, being fourteen epistles (sing.), having five thousand five hundréd and seventy-five stichoi and one hundred and six chapters; and it was in the end of the month Amshīr of the year one thousand five hundred and ten of the Martyrs; and it was the beginning of the third month Sha'abān of the year one thousand two hundred and eight of the Arabic reckoning by the Hijrah. And it was from a copy in the writing of the presbyter Gabryāl the monk, written out in the year nine hundred and sixty-six of the Martyrs, which corresponds to the beginning of Ramaḍān in the year 647 of the Hijrah. In peace of the Lord. Amen.'

p. 165[a] ep. James has triple arched headpiece ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ black and ⲔⲈⲐⲞⲨⲖⲒⲔⲞⲚ red belonging to the inscription in the usual form.

p. 172[b] ep. James ends 'Completed is the epistle of Ya'ḳūb, the first of the Catholic epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the first epistle of Buṭrus, the second of the Catholic.'

p. 173[a] ep. 1 Peter has black ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ ⲒⲤⲬⲨⲢⲞⲤ ⲀⲄⲒⲞⲤ beside the inscriptions.

p. 180[a] ep. 1 Peter ends 'Completed is the first epistle of Buṭrus.'

p. 186[a] ep. 2 Peter ends 'Completed is the second epistle of Buṭrus, being the third of the Catholic, in peace of the Lord. Amen.'

p. 193[b] ep. 1 John ends 'Completed is the first epistle of Yūḥannā, the fourth of the Catholic, in peace &c.'

Ep. 2 John has later black ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ ⲒⲤⲬⲨⲢⲞⲤ, and ends without subscription.

p. 195[a] ep. 3 John has black ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ ⲒⲤⲬⲨⲢⲞⲤ Ⲟ̄ⲀⲄⲒⲞⲤ with inscription in usual form, and ends 'Completed is the third epistle of Yūḥannā, being the sixth of the Catholic, in peace &c.'

p. 198ᵃ ep. Jude ends 'Completed was the epistle of Yahūdā, the brother of the Lord, it is the seventh, in peace &c.' A_2

Epp. Cath. end with the same general subscription in tall blue reddened letters as A_1 except ⲤⲦⲒⲬⲞⲤ and ⲔⲀⲪⲀⲖⲈⲞⲚ written in full and ⲀⲨ by error for ⲖⲨ.

p. 270ᵃ subscription in large yellow letters, below black Arabic as usual:

p. 271ᵃ has broad border round vacant space, three more original foll. and one recent end the volume.

3. B two volumes, I Paul (Heb., Tim.), II Cath., Acts; Polyglot, Milan Bibl. Ambrosiana, imperfect, XII–XIV centuries, paper, foll. 275 (I), 186 (II), coll. 5, Ethiopic, Syriac, Coptic, Arabic, Armenian (defective), ll. 31–44, 29.5 × 6 cm. Copt. col. The Coptic writing is of two hands, I of earlier, XII cent. form (B), ends in middle of 2 Cor. iv. 2, and begins again in middle of 2 Cor. ix. 7 and ends in middle of Gal. iii. 1; II of later, XIV cent. appearance (Bᵃ), resembling H and agreeing also in text with H. Bᵃ has points of brighter colour, Ⲫ, Ⲋ, Ϭ reddened and quire endings &c. ⲒⲊ ⲬⲊ; punctuation, red ⳹ and more often ⳾, ⳾ ⁓ occurs, and also black colon which replaces the red point in some pages; l. c. marginal as usual; s. c. not marginal because of want of space; ch. great marked by large capital and red lines of varying number and arrangement, but not numbered till ⲒⲀ of 1 Cor. in B; Bᵃ marks ch. great with two red lines, and numbers also the small; foliated on recto with uncials; B

B the quinions are marked in Arabic and numbered: thus p. 9[b] الكراس الثانى 'the second quire.' The text is peculiar, though B[a] usually agreeing with D. Epp. 1 and 2 Cor. have rectangular headpiece of early form with the ordinary interlacing lines of red, black, and white. Ep. Gal. has no headpiece. The text begins at Rom. i. 20, on p. 20[a] (orig. fol. ϵ̄), and continues to iii. 29, which verse is now on the first page of volume I (fol. ιϐ̄). p. 46[b] the inscription of 1 Cor. begins above, and is continued down within the first large capital Π. p. 68[b] an ornament of early form below the Syriac column. p. 69[b] Arabic reference to feast of S. Antonius. p. 71[b] ΙΔ the number of chapter written twice within capital Η. Reference in Arabic to the water, of plunging, i. e. the Epiphany. p. 94[a] capital A formed by black bird. p. 99[b] ep. 2 Cor. headpiece (see above). p. 126[b] the former writing begins again, rather larger with no red points, only occasional black colon and no signature for quire beginning. p. 142[a] ep. Gal. begins with one large and one smaller line of archaic letters; verso has Arabic signature of name of epistle. p. 143[b] v. 11 Ar. reference to the feast of Stephen. p. 149[a] v. 16 Ar. reference to adoration of the Cross. p. 150[a] the later hand begins without red colour, which is resumed on 150[b] with signature ΓΔΛΔΤ; and the references to O. T. are written in red uncials and black Arabic. At the foot of Syriac column: الله يرحم لمن قرا في هذة النسخة المباركة ويدعى للمتهم وللناسخ للضعيف يوحنا السرياني من المدينة امد المحروصة يعزه على ابد امين 'God shall have mercy on him who reads in this blessed copy: and he shall call (upon God) for him who provided (for the work) and for the copyist the feeble Yūḥannā the Syrian from the city Amida the protected, and may he strengthen him for ever. Amen.' p. 151[b] v. 15 Ar. reference to the feast of the Nativity. p. 160[a] after the subscription is Arabic 'Finished was the epistle of the great doctor Paul the apostle to the people of Galatia, being the fourth in number, and being the first to them (وهى الاولة لهم): and it was written from Rome, and sent with Titus his disciple. May the Lord Jesus Christ have mercy on us through their prayers. Amen. O Lord, open the souls (نفوس) of thy servants the transcriber (ناقل) and his brother Ḥadīd, through the prayers of those who have pleased Thee in their good works. Amen. And to God be glory for ever, and on us mercy. Amen.' Then below a red line of division, 'And the number of its great chapters six, and small thirty-one': اهتم بها القس صليب المهتم بدير السريان المعروف بستنا السيدة العذرى الرب يعوضه بشفاعها امين 'Provided for it the presbyter Ṣalīb the provider at Dayr al Siryān, known as our Lady the Virgin. May the Lord reward him with her intercessions. Amen.' Below the Syriac column is a better written Arabic subscr. stating the end of the epistle by help of God.

p. 160^{b} ep. Eph. begins with $\overset{ⲑ}{ⲥⲩⲛ}$ before the inscription, one large and one smaller line of archaic and two of red ordinary letters. p. 176^{a} the Coptic subscription is written in a thinner hand below the Coptic and Arabic columns, then in Arabic 'Finished was the epistle of Paul the apostle to the people of Ephesus. It was written from Rome, and sent with the brother Tīshkūs. May the Lord Jesus Christ have mercy upon us through their prayers. Amen. O Lord, open the soul of thy little servant the transcriber of these letters and his brother Ḥadīd through the intercessions of them who have pleased Thee in their good works. Amen. And to God be glory for ever, and upon us mercy. Amen.' Then in red, 'And the number of its great chapters seven, and small thirty.' Then the same statement about the provider the honoured presbyter Ṣalīb. The Virgin is called 'Mother of God,' and 'in his kingdom' is added to 'intercessions.' p. 176^{b} ep. Philip. begins with $\overset{ⲑ}{ⲥⲩⲛ}$ before the Coptic inscription and the same kind of arrangement of lines. The Armenian column disappears. p. 184^{b} has quire heading ⲓ̅ⲩ̅ (orn.) ⲭ̅ⲏ̅ (sic) ⲓ̅ⲑ̅. p. 188^{a} after ⲕⲉⲫⲁⲗ ⲋ̅ the subscr. continues ⲡ̅ⲟ̅ⲥ̅ ⲛⲁⲓ ⲛⲏⲓ ⲡⲉⲕⲃⲱⲕ ⲁⲃⲣⲁⲁⲙ ⲁⲙⲏⲛ 'Lord, pity me, thy servant Abraam. Amēn.' p. 188^{b} ep. Col. begins with $\overset{ⲑ}{ⲥⲩⲛ}$, two lines of black archaic and four of red ordinary lines. p. 194^{b} has quire ending ⲡⲣⲟ ⲕⲟⲗⲁⲥⲓⲟⲥ ⲓ̅ⲥ̅ (orn.) ⲑ̅ⲥ̅ ⲕ̅. p. 195^{a} has quire beginning ⲕ̅ⲁ̅ ⲓ̅ⲥ̅ (orn.) ⲭ̅ⲩ̅. p. 199^{a} the Ar. subscr. omits mention of no. of stichoi and chapters. p. 199^{b} ep. 1 Thess. begins with small headpiece under which is ⲥⲩⲛⲑⲉⲱ. The text has one black line of large letters. p. 208^{a} the Ar. subscr. omits mention of no. of stichoi and chapters. p. 208^{b} ep. 2 Thess. begins with broader headpiece and ⲥⲩⲛⲑⲉⲱ. p. 214^{a} ep. Heb. begins with smaller headpiece. The inscription is not given in Arabic. The text has one line of large black reddened lines. p. 214^{b} ⲓ̅ⲩ̅ (orn.) ⲭ̅ⲩ̅ ⲕ̅ⲃ̅. p. 215^{a} ⲕ̅ⲩ̅ ⲓ̅ⲩ̅ (orn.) ⲭ̅ⲩ̅. pp. 224^{b}, 225^{a} quire headings as above, and thus afterwards. p. 246^{b} Ar. subscription omitted. p. 247^{a} ep. 1 Tim. begins with small headpiece over inscription, one line of large black letters. p. 259^{a} ep. 2 Tim. begins with small headpiece over ⲥⲩⲛⲑⲉⲱ, one line of large and one smaller line of black letters. pp. 268^{a}, 273^{b} epp. Titus and Philem. begin as 2 Tim. and one line of large black letters. Ar. subscr. omitted.

In volume II the four languages continue and the Coptic of the later hand. p. 1^{a} ep. James begins with headpiece and ⲥⲩⲛⲑⲉⲱ, one line of large black reddened letters. pp. 9^{b}, 10^{a} quire ending and beginning as before, continuing the numbers ⲕ̅ⲑ̅ &c. p. 13^{b} ep. 1 Peter begins with smaller headpiece and ⲥⲩⲛⲑⲉⲱ &c. p. 27^{a} ep. 2 Peter begins as ep. 1 except two large lines. p. 35^{b} ep. 1 John begins as ep. 1 Peter.

B p. 48ᵃ ends with red Ar. subscr., 'Finished was the first epistle of John.' p. 48ᵇ ep. 2 John larger headpiece ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ &c. p. 50ᵃ red Ar. subscr. as above, below Coptic. p. 50ᵇ ep. 3 John the same with smaller headpiece. p. 51ᵇ subscr. as for 2. Ep. Jude begins as 3 John except no peculiar lines of letters. p. 55ᵃ in red Arabic below Coptic, 'Finished was the epistle of Jude in peace of the Lord, and with its completion also the seven Catholic epistles in peace of the Lord. Amen. And following are the narrations (قصص) of our fathers the apostles.' p. 55ᵇ the Acts begins with large square headpiece containing a label with ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ, two lines of large black letters. Neither Coptic, Arabic, nor Syriac have any subscription. The Ethiopic only ተፈጸመ፡ በዝየ፡ ሐዋርያ፡ ወግብሮሙ፡ 'Was finished here the apostle and their acts.'

C 4. C Paul (Philem., Heb.), Cath., Acts; Copt., Upper Egypt Dayr al Muḥarraḳ, perfect, XIV century, paper, col. 1, ll. 25, 36.8 × 27 cm., text 26 × 18.5 cm., writing resembles Δ_2^{evv}, but the arabesque ornament at some of the headings and chapters is rather coarse; l. c. variously coloured and also red only; s. c. red; ch. great marked by two red lines and red uncials; ch. small with black uncials; quire endings &c. ⲒⲨ ⲬⲨ, ⲨⲤ ⲐⲤ, or ⲔⲈ ⲞⲐⲤ; quotations pointed. The first page of ep. Rom. has an oblong headpiece with circular forms on gold ground and a label with inscription; the text having one line of tall yellow letters, four of thick black archaic, three red, three black, and two red of similar archaic letters with gold floret for points. This MS. was collated only for Romans and 1 Corinthians to supply the missing portion of Γ. The text agrees closely with H J.

Γ 5. Γ Paul (Heb., Tim.), Cath., Acts; Copt.-Arab., Upper Egypt Dayr al Muḥarraḳ (Greg. 26), imperfect, XII century, paper, foll. 417 (+15), coll. 2, ll. 24, 35.7 × 26.3 cm., text 25.6 × 18.2 cm.; punctuation, red ÷ ≻ ÷— —, rare colon and black hyphen; quotations pointed; foliated on verso in uncials, signature on recto in red; l. c. in epp. variously coloured, in Acts red only, twice with arabesque, bird capital rare; s. c. usually black reddened, rarely red; ch. great marked by rather large uncials, red with dashes and flourishes; ch. small with small black uncials between black lines and sinuous vertical line as in D_1^{evv}; ch. Gr. also marked by red uncials and رومى 'Greek' in a series continuing throughout epistles to end of Hebrews; quinions as usual, with ending &c. ⲒⲨ ⲬⲨ, ⲨⲤ ⲐⲤ, ⲚⲀⲒ ⲚⲀⲚ, ⲚⲀⲒ ⲚⲎⲒ, ⲒⲞⲤ ⲐⲨ, ⲒⲨ ⲬⲤ; first pages of brilliant ornament resembling Γ^{evv}, the beautiful writing of which is also very similar, but see below; freely glossed in red with many explanations and occasional allusions to readings; in Acts a few explanations and occasional reference to شرح اخر 'another commentary'; foll. not much cut, patched throughout Γ in lower margin, and much of the Acts has injury in upper. Binding recent with four leather clasps. Orthogr. ⲫϯ, scarcely found in Γ^evv, is common, but the forms of ⲧ and ⲩ are not early, the other form of ⲩ occurs as final. The ancient writing begins 1 Cor. xvi. 12 ⲉϥⲉⲓ ⲇⲉ. The text agrees with G M. p. 92^b ep. 2 Cor. begins with headpiece, two lines of large black reddened letters, Greek (رومي) n° ⲕⲁ̅, and the number of the epistle (viz. Γ), which is always placed below the number of the small chapters. Ch. ii. 12 Gr. n° ⲕ̅ⲃ̅, iv. 16 ⲕ̅ⲅ̅, vii. 1 ⲕ̅ⲇ̅, ix. 1 ⲕ̅ⲉ̅, xii. 1 ⲕ̅ⲍ̅. p. 121^a ep. Gal. begins as before except two very large letters, the rest of the line being of large black reddened, Gr. n° ⲕ̅ⲏ̅, ii. 14 ⲕ̅ⲑ̅, (ⲗ̅ missed,) v. 2 ⲗ̅ⲁ̅. p. 135^a ep. Eph. begins as before except one line of large and one of smaller black reddened letters, Gr. n° ⲗ̅ⲃ̅, iii. 1 ⲗ̅ⲅ̅, iv. 29 ⲗ̅ⲇ̅. p. 139^b ep. Philip. begins as before except one tall ornamented line and one of large black reddened letters, Gr. n° ⲗ̅ⲉ̅, ii. 1 ⲗ̅ⲋ̅, iii. 13 ⲗ̅ⲍ̅; the omission in iv. 9 is given in margin beneath the words سهيت اغفرلي 'I was negligent, forgive me,' cf. Γ 'Bless me, forgive me, remember me, namely the feeble one, and sinner, for the Lord Jesus to dispose my life according to his holy and blessed wish, and grant me (the) forgiveness of my sins. Amēn.' p. 248ᵃ ep. James begins with brilliant first page consisting of broad borders on upper and outer sides which latter has a further border of the usual arabesque, the whole resembling the ornament of Γ of the Gospels. The upper border contains a label with ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ and the inscription. The text has one line of four ornamented letters, one of tall black reddened, three of shorter letters, three of ordinary red letters, and the remaining four ordinary black. p. 260ᵃ ep. 1 Peter begins without headpiece, with one line of tall ornamented black reddened, three lines of ordinary red letters. p. 272ᵇ ep. 2 Peter begins as ep. 1 except only two red lines. p. 281ᵃ ep. 1 John begins as ep. 2 Peter, signature ⲒⲰ Ⲁ̄. p. 293ᵃ ep. 2 John begins as ep. 1. p. 294ᵇ ep. 3 John begins as ep. 2. p. 296ᵃ ep. Jude begins as ep. 3. p. 299ᵇ below the subscription comes subscr. to all the Catholic epp. in very fine large black letters occasionally reddened, tr. in red. fol. 300 is vacant. p. 301ᵃ Acts begins with ornament as for quire beginning, then rectangular headpiece with label containing ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ, and arabesque extending round outer and lower border; the inscription forms two lines of ordinary red letters, then one large word brilliantly adorned, two lines of tall ornamented black reddened, two of ordinary red, and three of ordinary black letters. Signature is ⲠⲢⲀⲜⲈⲰⲚ. No date of any kind exists in the book. The restored leaves present two different forms of writing. There is some reason for supposing that the ordinary corrector (and glosser) was the original scribe. Lacunae, Rom. i. 1—1 Cor. xvi. 12. Collated in the monastery by the editor, 1893.

Acts, other headpieces of moderate size, the headpiece of epistle to the Hebrews resembles that of ep. Eph. in K. Text is in close agreement with K. Lacunae, 2 Cor. xi. 3—Gal. iv. 14, Acts x. 30-39, xiii. 5-15. Liturgical notes occur at beginning and end of lections. Cod. 331[1] Copt. is written on the board, with 'Epistolae Paule et Acta Apostolorum Coptice.' Then comes a recent fol. with watermark E G, next two earlier foll. not original, bearing 'Volume de 347 Feuillets Manquent les N^{os} 257 à 265 omis dans le pagination 24 Mai 1889.' p. 1^a has 'Trois cent quarante quatre' in the same writing as E_1, p. 1^a, therefore the MS. may have belonged to Gilbert Gaulmyn de Moulins before 1667. p. 1^b the frequent large cross on ground of interlacing work, red, green, yellow, black, and white, with four Greek crosses between the arms. p. 2^a first page of ep. Romans, deep band of interlacing work forming black crosses, one-third carried down to the foot of page, the other two ending in two cusped arches with ⲥⲧⲛ ⲑⲉⲱ and inscription; then l. c. and alternate lines of tall black thick archaic letters. p. 38^b ep. 1 Cor. begins with usual narrow headpiece, under which ⲥⲧⲛⲑⲉⲱ ⲫⲣⲁⲛ ⲙ̅ⲫϯ 'the name of God'; one line tall black reddened, and one of archaic letters. p. 73^a ep. 2 Cor. begins with same headpiece and words, but arabesque on outer margin; lines of letters nearly as before. foll. 90–102 restored, glossy white paper with good writing. p. 95^b ep. Gal. begins, headpiece &c. imitated from the original. p. 107^b ep. Eph. begins, headpiece, without marginal arabesque; one line of tall black, two of archaic letters black reddened, the second line rather larger. p. 119^b ep. ends, and below inscription:

[1] This seems to have been the MS. known to Wilkins as 'n. 330 cujus aetas non apparet adscripta, sed vetustus codex esse videtur,' but he probably has confused the numbers. His other Paris MS. may have been E_1, which contains only epp. Paul, and bears no date, but is numbered 332.

F line of tall black and two archaic. p. 149^b ep. Heb. begins with headpiece resembling K, ep. Eph., l.c. enclosing floret and with bird and flowers, one line of tall black, one of archaic black reddened; quotations pointed. p. 177^b ep. 1 Tim. begins with usual headpiece &c., one line of tall black and two archaic. p. 187^b ep. 2 Tim. and p. 194^b ep. Titus begin as ep. 1 Tim. p. 199^a ep. Philem. begins with usual headpiece, marginal arabesque and lines as above. p. 200^b after the subscr. to all the Pauline epp. are some words of disguised Arabic: اغفري يارب ساير دنوبي امين 'Pardon, O Lord, the rest of (or all) my crimes. Amen.' p. 201^a ep. James begins with headpiece of triple horseshoe arches containing circles for the same words as hitherto ⲥⲩⲛ (ⲑ above, ⲱ below) ⲫⲣⲁⲛ ⲙ̅ⲫϯ, below this ⲟⲓⲕⲧⲓⲣⲙⲟⲓⲥ ⲕⲉ ⲥ(MS. ⲉ)ⲩⲙⲡⲁⲑⲓⲥ; this work closely resembles the beginning of John in O_1^{evv}, outer marginal arabesque, then two lines of tall black reddened, two of archaic letters. p. 211^a ep. 1 Peter begins with usual headpiece &c., one line of tall black letters. p. 222^a ep. 2 Peter begins with usual headpiece &c. except Arabic بسم الله is added, line as above. Rough Arabic occurs at the end of ep. pp. 229^a, 239^a epp. 1 and 2 John begin as ep. 2 Peter. p. 240^b ep. 3 John begins as before except two lines of archaic black reddened after the first of tall black letters. p. 242^a ep. Jude begins as ep. 1 John. p. 244^b ep. ends, and there follows in disguised Arabic: اذكرني يارب وارحمني واغفر لي وسامحني بساير دنوبي ولا تواخذني بسو افعالي انا هو يعقوب ابن الاثم والخطية بصلا(ة) العدرى ام النور مريم وساير الشهدا والقديسين امين امين امين 'Remember me, O Lord, and have mercy on me, and pardon me and forgive all my crimes, and punish me not for the wickedness of my deeds: I am Jacob the son of fault and sin, through the prayer of the Virgin the Mother of the Light, Miryam, and (of) all the holy martyrs. Amen. Amen. Amen. And his name among men Geōrgi (Girgis) the son of Petros (Butrus).' ⲅⲉⲱⲣⲅⲓ is written in the cryptogram of Σ vol. i, p. xc, except that ϣ (crypt.) = ⲣ; the disguised Arabic[1] is 'Girgis the son of Jacob,' or possibly 'Jacob the son of Girgis.' Three more lines of faded and partly erased Arabic occur, in which the word ملك is visible, implying a note of ownership. Four vacant foll., two with watermark an anchor. One more fol. thinner, and with watermark E C, ends the volume. F

10. G Paul (Heb., Tim.), Cath., Acts; Copt. (interlined with Arabic), Rome Vat. Copt. 14, formerly 5 (Greg. 18), imperfect, A. D. 1357 (A. Mart. 1074, Thoth), paper, foll. 350 (+6), col. 1, ll. 21, 28.7 × 20 cm., text 20.3 × 13.5 cm., writing fairly regular, with resemblance to Curzon 121 &c., but smaller; foliated irregularly on verso in red and black uncials, the original uncials leave off in ep. Heb., and later red continue; signature of name of epistle and number irregular; l. c. and s. c. scarcely distinguished; ch. great and small marked by red capitals and red uncials, ordinary verses have black c.; Greek chapters are enumerated in subscr.; no original quire endings &c., but a recent numeration of quires; no punctuation after p. 5, but spaces are left, and a hyphen occasionally occurs before and after -ⲁⲛ-; orn. consists of black and red headpieces and occasional lines of red letters; quotations occasionally noted; there are a few Arabic grammatical and other notes; orthography, ⲉⲙ is usually written for ⲙ. The text often agrees with Γ M and P. Lacunae, Rom. ix. 15—1 Cor. iv. 14, Acts xxvi. 18 to end. Bound in red morocco, and bearing the arms of Clement XI on the cover, the volume begins with two vacant foll., after which on the first ancient page is Di Girolamo Vecchettis et pri, and a short Arabic note about the meaning of لا in Rom. ii. 4. 15. L (Lagarde b) Paul (Philem., Heb., Tim.); Copt.-Arab., Berlin L (Royal Orient. 116 [Greg. 14], 115 [Greg. 13]) and Copenhagen (Royal Orient. 19 [Greg. 21]), imperfect, XIV century, paper, foll. 88+105+31, coll. 2, ll. 32–33, 26.2 × 17.6 cm., text 21.5 × 13.4 cm.; 26.7 × 17.8 cm., text 22.2 × 13.4 cm.; 26.8 × 18 cm., text 22.2 × 13.4 cm.; writing of early XIV century, the dots and lines over the letters appear to have been added by a later hand, and they are absent in the Copenhagen book; no original punctuation after Rom. i. 25, and there is none in the Copenhagen book; foliated in uncials on verso, signed with name of epistle on recto and ⲠⲢⲞⲤ on verso; l. c. very rare; ch. great marked by one line of red letters and red uncial; ch. small by black cursives with number also of epistle; quire endings &c. IC IⲬ ⲨC (IC, IⲨ) ⲐC, sometimes absent, IⲬ = ⲠⲬC ? is peculiar to these books, usual central small orn., probably of the time of writing; scarcely any other ornament, only occasional headpiece; there are references to quotations and liturgical notices. It is not known how this MS. became separated into the present condition. Petraeus transcribed the epistles to Ephesians and Philippians from the Copenhagen book, and this transcript is contained in a small quarto volume at Berlin (Orient. 169), in which is a title-page written thus: 'ⲤⲐⲨⲰⲚⲚⲒⲚⲒϢϮ EPISTOLA S. The Latin translation continues for only one page. This transcript was collated by the editor in 1899, and there can be no doubt about the exemplar, viz. the MS. at Copenhagen. This MS. at Copenhagen has been interleaved, probably by Petraeus, and amongst the watermarks are a heart and fleur de lys, these marks occur in Berlin 115 (foll. 17–21), and the heart alone in Berlin 116 (fol. 4, and at the end). Text often agrees with D and D^r. Lacunae, Rom. i. 16–18, 20–24, 1 Cor. iii. 15—iv. 6, Heb. ix. 22—x. 18, xii. 16 to end. [116] The third binding leaf has 'Epistolae Pauli ad Romanos et utraque ad Corinthios

L Arabice-Coptice.' p. 1 ep. Rom. begins with moderate-sized rectangular headpiece with neat interlacing work leaving crosses on each side of a broad label containing ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ بسم الله. After the red inscr. literally translated, the text begins with l.c. black reddened = two lines, no other ornament. pp. 3, 4, these numbers are on an interleaf which has the heart watermark, and bears the Berlin Library stamp. pp. 5, 6 are fragmentary. p. 69ª after the C.A. subscr. there are six lines of Arabic erased. p. 70ª at the top are roughly written Coptic letters which appear to be a transcription of Arabic ⲃ ϩⲓ ⲑⲉⲛⲓ ⲣⲥⲉⲗⲏ ⲙⲉⲛ ⲣⲥⲉⲓⲗⲟⲩ وهي ثاني رسالة من رسايله 'And it is the second epistle of his epistles.' Ep. 1 Cor. begins with headpiece of ordinary kind, red ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ, and small capital without line of red letters, and ends without subscr. p. 132 the same kind of letters ⲃ ϩⲓ ⲑⲏⲗ?? ⲣⲥⲉⲗⲏ 'And it is the third epistle,' black ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ, small black capital. p. 176 (original foliation ϥ̄) ep. ends with C.A. subscr., A. adding ascription of gratitude. Fifteen foll. of European paper are added for making notes by the owner, who writes a list of the epp. contained in MSS. 115, also 'in Holland. Leydae, i° Epist. ad Ephes. constat 6 cap. Item ii Epistol. ad Philippens. constat 4 cap.' The heart watermark occurs on this leaf, on others a wreath and cross, and name ADVRAND. [115] Three recent binding foll., watermark armorial shield as also in 116; the third has list of epp. Col., Thess., Philem., Heb., Tim., Titus. p. 1 ep. Col. begins with ⲤⲨⲚ (with ⲑ above and ⲱ below) and small capital black. p. 17 ep. ends with C. A. subscr., A. omits 'Achaicus,' and adds ascription. p. 18 ep. 1 Thess. begins as ep. Col. p. 33 ep. ends with C. A. subscr., A. adds Titus before Silvanus, and ascription. p. 34 ep. 2 Thess. begins as ep. Col. p. 42 is signed ⲠⲢⲞⲤ Ī, evidently meant for ep. 1 Tim., which should now follow, Philem. being numbered ĪⲄ̄, 2 Tim. being ĪⲂ̄. Ep. 2 Thess. ends with C. A. subscr., A. adds 'Timotheus' and ascription, obs. unusual سرمدا after ابدا. p. 43 ep. Philem. begins as ep. Col. p. 46 ep. ends with C. A. subscr.; then come Ps. i. 1–4 in Arabic and Ps. iv. 1. pp. 47, 89, 109, 123 epp. Heb., 1 Tim., 2 Tim., Titus begin as before. p. 88 end of ep. absent. p. 108 ep. ends with C. A. subscr., A. adds ascription; recent scrawls and circle. Ep. ends without subscr. p. 130 ep. ends with C. A. subscr., A. having 'Was completed the epistle of Timotheus,' (then over an erasure) 'and he had written it from Nīḳā the city, and he sent it with Arṭamā his disciple, who became bishop of Macedonia, and adoration to God for ever and ever eternally (سرمدا).' Then follow twenty-five foll. of notes of former owner. Two more later foll., one bearing the shield, end the volume. [19] Two vacant foll., 1° has watermark ET, 2° the heart.

The only difference from B. 115, 116 is that the pagination of the recent owner (Petraeus?) begins again for each epistle. There are only very few notes in the interleaves. p. 1 has the same kind of letters ϐ ϩⲓ ⲣⲁⲙⲓ? ⲣⲥⲉⲗⲉ ⲙⲙ ⲡⲣⲥⲉⲓⲗⲟⲩ 'And it is the fourth epistle of his epistles.' Ep. Gal. begins with ⲥⲑⲩⲱⲛ and red C. A. inscr. and small black capital. The dates 1671-1745 are written in a Danish statement on this page, and the name 'Fredericus Rostgaard' occurs at the foot. The original foliation of B. 116 is continued ϥⲁ, and this page is signed ⲡⲣⲟⲥ ⲇ̅ (the fourth epistle). p. 11[b] ep. ends without subscr.; then two vacant recent foll., watermarks 1° heart, 2° shield, crown, and lion supporter. p. 12[a] signed ⲉⲫⲉⲥⲟⲥ, the same kind of letters ϐ ϩⲓ ϧⲉⲙⲓⲥ ⲣⲥⲉⲗⲉ ⲙⲙ ⲣⲥⲉⲓⲗ ⲡⲟⲗⲟⲥ ⲉⲗⲣⲥⲟⲗ 'And it is the fifth epistle of the epistles of Paul the Apostle.' Ep. Eph. begins as ep. Gal. p. ⲣϐ (12[b]) begins new pagination 2 for Eph. p. 23[a] ep. ends without subscr. p. ⲣⲓⲧ (23[b]) 1 for Philip. also signed ⲡⲣⲟⲥ ⲉ̅. Ep. Philip. begins as epp. Eph. and Gal. p. 31[b] ep. ends with C. A. subscr., of which Ar. 'Was completed the epistle of Philippi, and he had written it from Rome, and sent it with Timotheus and Fortunatus, and adoration to God for ever and ever.' One interleaf ends the volume. On the cover is 12 19.

3. C Apoc.; Copt.-Arab., Rome Vat. 15 (Greg. 9), perfect, XIV century, C paper, foll. 60 (+4), coll. 2, ll. 24, 33 × 24.5 cm., text 25 × 18 cm.; writing of early XIV century, resembling Curzon 121 &c. (J_1^{evv}), nearly as bold as B.M. 3381 (Δ_1^{evv}); punctuation, red ⳹ and ⳹-, sometimes ⳹˙; orn. exactly the same as Vat. 12; l.c. = three lines, red, yellow, and black; s.c. black reddened; chapters marked by l. c. and red uncials; foliated on recto in Syriac letters (inverted), of which the first is ܪܡܙ = 247 and the last ܫܕ = 304; quire endings &c. ⲔⲈ ⲞⲐⲤ, ⲒⲨ ⲬⲨ, ⲨⲤ ⲐⲤ, with usual ornament, the first beginning is numbered ⲔⲈ and the last ⲖⲆ; they are also numbered in Syriac, but the Syriac and Coptic numbering of the quires seems in advance of the Syriac numbering of the foll.; orn. (see K); liturgical words; occasional glosses. Text is rather independent of the other MSS. Bound in red morocco with armorial bearings, the volume begins with two binding foll. and two restored with three crescents mark, unnumbered. p. 1^a has headpiece, not coloured, with ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ and Coptic inscr. Text begins with one line of tall black reddened letters. p. 59^b after the subscr. in large archaic letters there is ترتيب الشعانين 'the order of Palm Sunday,' and nineteen lines of Arabic, after which two binding foll. end the book.

4. D Apoc.; Copt.-Arab., Rome Vat. 16 (Greg. 10), perfect, XIV century (before 1345 A.D.), paper, foll. 109, coll. 2, ll. 20, 20.18 × 15.5 cm., text 14.3 × 9 cm.; writing like Curzon 121 &c. (J_1^{evv}), but smaller; punctuation, red ⳹· with black hyphen or point often used; l.c. = three lines red or black reddened; s.c. black reddened; chapters marked by two lines of red letters and (usually enclosed) red uncials; foliated on verso in black uncials; quire ending &c. ⲒⲨ ⲬⲨ ⲨⲤ ⲐⲤ and usual ornament; orn. frontispiece and enrichment of first five pages; liturgical words. Text is rather independent, freely glossed with red Arabic, occasional black, probably by original scribe. Bound in red European leather, the cover has inside 'Vat XI nov 15.' First ancient page has impression of former ornament, the third is covered with beautiful arabesque, gilt, blue and red with blue border, six large interlacing segments of circles with four small circular forms at corners and two in the middle space, best XIV century style. p. 1^a beautiful headpiece with exterior circle of gilt, blue and black, containing 'The book of the holy Apocalypse,' below is gilt ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ and tr. and blue Coptic inscr., one line of large gilt, blue D

D and red, two lines of large gilt, two of smaller gilt, three of ordinary blue letters with floret points. Obs. French Library stamp 'Bibliotheque Vaticanale.' p. 98ª has in red Coptic ⲡⲓⲥⲙⲟⲩ ⲉⲧⲟⲩⲱϣ ⲙ̄ⲙⲟϥ ϧⲉⲛⲧⲁⲣⲭⲏ ⲙ̄ⲡⲓϫⲱⲙ 'The blessing which is read at the beginning of the book.' Then follow four and a half foll. of the ⲥⲙⲟⲩ, similar to, but not the same as in Z, combining invocation, exhortation, and prayer. p. 103ᵇ red كمل ذلك referring to end of the ⲥⲙⲟⲩ; then two verses, nearly the same as vol. i, p. cxlvi, vv. 5 and 6, ⲁⲓⲥϧⲏⲧϥ ϧⲉⲛⲧⲁϫⲓϫ ÷ ⲡⲓⲥϧⲁⲓ ⲉϥⲉⲣⲙⲉⲑⲣⲉ ⲛⲏⲓ ÷ ϫⲉ ⲉⲓⲉⲭⲁϥ ⲛ̄ⲟⲩⲉϩⲟⲟⲩ ÷ ⲟⲩⲟϩ ⲛ̄ⲧⲁϣⲉ ⲛⲏⲓ ÷ Ⲱ ⲫⲏ ⲉⲧϣⲟⲡ ϧⲉⲛϯⲁⲩⲗⲏ ÷ ⲙ̄ⲡⲉⲣⲉⲣⲡⲱⲃϣ ⲛ̄ⲧⲉⲕϣⲉ ⲛ̄ⲣⲁⲥϯ ÷ ϫⲉ ⲛⲏ ⲉⲧϣⲟⲡ ϧⲉⲛϯⲁⲩⲗⲏ ÷ ⲥⲉⲛⲁⲟⲩⲱⲧⲉⲃ ϩⲱϯ ÷ كتبته بيدى والخط. يشهد لي انه ساتركه يومًا وارتحلى ياساكن الدار لا تنسى الرحيل اغدا فكل ساكن دار سوف يرتحلي 'I wrote it with my hand. Because they who live in the mansion will have to remove.' Then Arabic statement 'This blessed book, containing the book (سفر) of the holy Apocalypse, was transferred from the possession of its possessor mentioned in the last page to the possession of the shaykh, the chief Amīn al Mulk, son of the shaykh, the chief the most honourable, 'Bu 'l Karam; may God make long the length of his life, and make the kings acknowledge his authority. And the slave (i.e. the present owner) receive the proper price, and this writing is witness against me. It was finished by the help of God most high and his support (تاييده), the book (سفر) of the holy Apocalypse, which is the vision (رويا) of Saint John the evangelist. May God have mercy upon us by his blessings. Amen. On Friday the fifteenth of the month Barmahāt, year one and sixty and a thousand of the pure Martyrs. And it was the sixth week of the holy Fast. May God renew (اعاد) his blessing. The book was written for himself and those who come after him, if God most high will, by the servant, miserable, poor, weak, dust, fruitless, containing all the vices, destitute of all virtues, the greatest sinner among men, Yūḥannā ben Abu 'l Munā ben Al Ḳiddīs. And he asks the love of the masters the readers in it, and the lookers upon it to turn their face (يتجاوزوا) from its error, and correct its imperfection by their perfection; for I indeed dared and undertook what I know not, and I essayed what I am not acquainted with, and the Lord God shall reward them for what they shall speak forth (يتفوهون) of correction, in Jerusalem of the heavens and the fulness of eternal everlasting good things, by the prayers of the martyrs and the saints. Amen. And adoration to God for ever and ever.' p. 103^{b} has French and Papal stamp; three more vacant leaves end the volume. D

He in his mercy shall work mercy with the provider, the possessor (القاني) and the reader and the poor sinner copyist of it (ناقل), and to Him the glory for evermore, and upon us his mercy.' foll. 100–106 contain Coptic writing headed ⲡⲓⲥⲙⲟⲩ ⲉⲧⲟⲩⲱϣ ⲙ̄ⲙⲟⲥ (sic) ϧⲁϫⲉⲛϯⲁⲡⲟⲅⲁⲗⲩⲙⲯⲓⲥ ⲉⲑⲟⲩⲁⲃ 'The blessing which is read before the holy Apocalypse.' p. 106ᵇ has Arabic 'Was completed the holy Blessing, and with the completion of it was completed the pure book, the revelation (جليان) of Yūḥannā, the virgin, the beloved of our Lord Jesus Christ, on the holy sabbath day, which is the twentieth day of the month Abīb of year a thousand one and ninety of the pure Martyrs, corresponding to the thirteenth day of the month Ṣafar, year seven and seventy-seven hundred of the Hijrah. And that was for the providing (اهتام) of the shaykh, the venerable, the revered, the deacon the honoured the most noble Rafāyīl, the son of the shaykh the archon (الارخن) Mikhāyīl. May God make lasting his provision (ادام اهتمام). He wrought this beautiful memorial that he might find with it mercy before the throne (منبر) of our Lord Jesus Christ. He in his mercy shall cause him to attain to knowledge and practice, and bring him by his help to the kingdom of the heaven, after having fulfilled the term of his life, and God shall give him long life and sound intellect, and true faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, and protect him with his holy angels henceforth and for ever. Amen. And the miserable scribe of G it asks every one who studies it to turn away (يميل) from its error, and correct its fault (يسد خلله), and remember him with forgiveness of his sins; and (he who says any (prayer) may he have) reward thirty and sixty and an hundredfold, and in the next world life eternal. Amen.' After two vacant foll. comes the end of the Arabic preface, which begins on p. 149ᵃ.

8. H Apoc.; Copt.-Arab., Paris Nat. 91 (Greg. 6), perfect, A. D. 1401 H (A. Mart. 1117), paper, foll. 131 (+2), coll. 2, ll. 17–18, 20.5 × 15 cm., text 14.7 × 9.7 cm.; writing bold, regular, rather rounded, peculiar form of ⲩ, interesting because perhaps being Nitrian; punctuation, red ⳾· and ⳾—; l. c. = three lines or less, various, strong colours; s. c. black reddened; chapters marked with one line of large red and one of ordinary red letters, and red uncials; foliated on verso in black uncials; quire endings &c. Bound in calf and vellum, has recent fol. with 'Volume de 131 Feuillets. Le feuillet 1 est mutilé, 5 Juillet 1889. Suppl. Copte N° 91.' p. 1ᵃ has Apoc. i. 13 in Coptic, and five lines of Arabic. p. 1ᵇ has four lines of bold Arabic, usual kind of prayer, but the sinner's name is lost; the words are identical with those of the next prayer down to 'sand,' continuing 'which is on the lips of the sea and the number of the hairs.' p. 2ᵃ headpiece over Arabic prayer, 'Remember, O Lord, with thy universal (شاملة) mercy, the poor sinner drowned in the sea of his sins (الآثام) which are gone over his head and became more than the number of the sand and the stars of the heaven and the hairs of the body and the plants of the earth; and he asks and beseeches (يتضرع) all who study in this miserable writing, with spiritual love to pray for his pardon and indulgence (السماح) by the intercessory prayers of our Lady and the supplications of all who pleased the Lord with their righteous deeds. And he who remembers him with any (prayer) shall have a like reward, thirty &c., and in the end eternal life. Amen. Amen. Amen. Wrote it Barakat ben Yūḥannā, the miserable for his sins.' Then another note in Arabic, 'This blessed book continues to be in (على) the possession of Gabriyāl Yūḥannā, the disciple of Anba the presbyter Yūḥannā the minister of the church of the great martyr Markūriūs in Maṣr the protected. The Lord God shall pardon his sins.' p. 2ᵇ large and well drawn cross of interlacing work, green, yellow, red, black, and white. p. 3ᵃ red, white, and black headpiece with ⲤⲨⲚⲐⲈⲰ and C. A. inscription, one line of large black, one of red,

H and two of black. p. 131 at end is Arabic 'Was finished by the help of God and his assistance the book of the Apocalypse, which is the vision of Saint John the evangelist. The Lord shall have mercy on us by his blessings. Amen. On day three, the ninth of the month Masry, year 1117 (1401) of the pure Martyrs; may God grant us the blessing of their prayers. Amen. Undertook it for himself and for him who—please God most high—will come after him, the miserable poor and weak servant, dust, useless (الغيرمثمر), more vicious (الموعب) than the rest of the worthless, the bare of all excellencies, the greatest sinner of all men, Yūḥannā the son of Faraj Allah; and he asks the masters, the readers in it and the lookers in it, to turn their face from its error; and he who says any (prayer) may he have his reward in the kingdom of the heavens for ever and ever.' There is a collator's note. Then again in Arabic, 'Remember, O Lord, thy servant the poor sinner drowned in the sea of sins and crimes, thy servant Ibrahīm in name a monk; remember him in the kingdom of the heavens. Amen.' After two lines of Coptic scribbling, 'This book is in perpetual, sure, and lasting dedication to the monastery of the saint, great among the saints, glorified among the spiritual, the saint Anba Bishūy in the desert, in the desert of Shīhāt in the mountain Al Iṭrūn. So it is not permitted from the Lord (adoration to him most high) to any one to cause it to go forth from its dedication by any manner of means; or * * * * . So he shall be condemned before the Lord Christ and the patron (صاحب) of the monastery; and he shall not have kinship with the saints and' (four more words). Red library stamp, and one recent vacant fol. ends the book.

The book ends with eleven pages of 'the preface which the sons of Al Assāl composed,' which begins on p. 102^{b}. The last vacant fol. has pencil note, '102 Folios P B ex^{d} 1898.'

Note on the Liturgical Words.

At the beginning of chapters ii, iv, v, vi, viii, x, xi, xii, xiii, xiv, xvii, xviii, and at the verses i. 10, ii. 18, iii. 6, 13, vii. 9, ix. 6, xiii. 11, xiv. 12, 16, xv. 5, xvi. 12, xviii. 20, xix. 11, xx. 6, xxi. 2, 21 occur words indicating some ritual usage of the book. With slight variation they Z are found in MSS. A D E F G H Z, also by later hand in B. The shortened forms $\overset{ⲭ}{ⲏ}$ = ⲏⲭⲟⲥ, and much oftener $\overset{ⲱ}{ⲩ}$ or $\overset{\overset{ⲱ}{ⲩ}}{ⲟ}$ = ⲟⲩⲱϩⲉⲙ (also written ⲃⲱϩⲉⲙ), followed by a word which is evidently the name of some hymn or verse, begin the rite. Words characteristic of the passage, sometimes taken from the text, make a 'versicle,' after which other Coptic words preceded by ⲃⲱϩⲉⲙ or $\overset{ⲭ}{ⲏ}$ probably belong to another hymn or verse. The following are the names of the hymns or tones occurring in the upper line: '(ⲏ) Babylon, (ⲏ) three things, (ⲏ) Joseph, (ⲏ) key, (ⲏ) the mystery, (ⲏ) Job, the prophet, a Pharisee, the joy, its key, my fathers, ⲧⲉⲛⲣⲱ "thy storm"? the seven ranks (or dignities), ϩⲁⲙⲟⲓ "would that"? my father the chief priest, I cast the book (?), I saw a lamb, the country, ⲁⲛⲓⲛⲉⲛⲁⲓ "bring these" (?), they became rich, rejoice, it was completed, concerning a woman, my Master, (ⲏ) thy Rōmania, place of this gift, I saw three, (ⲏ) if those.' The middle words are, 'Write the things which thou sawest, these are the things which he saith, the woman "Jezebel," he who will overcome, I will make him, take for the healing, I John saw, behold the lion overcame, I saw a black horse, I saw a great wonder, there was silence (ⲭⲁϥ) in the heaven, the first woe passed, I saw an angel, these are the olive trees, a woman clad with the sun, I saw a great city, this is the place of patience, I saw a lamb, blessed are they, I saw a great wonder, these which the Theologos, they remembered, I saw a woman, the woman whom thou sawest, write that which thou sawest, I saw a white horse, blessed, I saw a fair city, the city of the great king.' The third or lower words are, 'I having fallen asleep, O Lord my God, (ⲏ) the ark, come and see (of my father Shenouti, Z), the soldiers toiled, they having brought the writings (he bowed the heaven, Z), the tympanum (?), the mounted men (the sweet, Z), I saw three crowns, Adam Abel (he of the wing, Z), I saw my hands, (ⲏ) I found the time, along the choirs, there is a dove, my scribe (three years, Z), he of the wings, the tympanum (I saw the lamb of God, Z), but ye, (ⲏ) the gold (the choice gold, Z), we worship (the evangelist, Z), Adam Abel, (ⲏ) Prologon (my virgin received, Z), my scribe (the queen, lover of gold, Z), (ⲏ) four (see seven bonds? Z), (ⲏ) two, (ⲏ) thou (fem.) art higher than the Cherubim, (ⲏ) I saw three crowns (come and see this bride, Z).' MS. Z agrees twice (xii. 1 and xx. 6) with the rest, occasionally omits and sometimes gives the Arabic name of the response or tone or hymn, 'the tone of the Amir Tādrus, of the great martyr (sic) Anba Shanūdah, of the four creatures, of the angel Michael, of St. George, of the king (الملك) Constantine, of the resurrection, of the

Z nativity of Mary, of the infants, of the Virgin, of the angel Gabriel sublime in annunciation, of Eudokia the queen, of the Son, Jesus Christ.'

At xxi. 19 after the word ⲉⲧⲧⲁⲓⲏⲟⲩⲧ all the MSS. except BON have a rubric, 'The bishop chants (ⲉⲣϩⲩⲙⲛⲟⲥ).' D Arabic, 'The patriarch chants thus to tone ? or the bishop or the priest or, if he should be chosen, the deacon.' Then ⲁⲛⲟⲕ ⲁⲓⲛⲁⲩ ⲉⲡⲕⲱⲧ ⲛ̄ⲟⲩⲡⲟⲗⲓⲥ ⲉⲥⲟϣϫ (ⲉⲥⲧⲟⲧⲥ, E: -ⲱⲧⲥ, F: ⲛ̄ⲧⲟⲧⲥ, A) ⲛ̄ⲛⲟⲩⲃ ϩⲓⲱⲛⲓ ⲙ̄ⲙⲏⲓ ϩⲓ(ⲟⲩ, A)ⲙⲁⲣⲅⲁⲣⲓⲧⲏⲥ ⲉⲑⲛⲉⲥⲱⲥ ⲉⲣⲉⲡⲉⲛⲥⲱⲧⲏⲣ ϧⲉⲛⲧⲉⲥⲙⲏϯ ⲉϥϯϫⲗⲟⲙ ϩⲓⲧⲁⲫⲉ ⲛ̄ⲛⲏ ⲉⲑⲙⲉⲓ ⲙ̄ⲙⲟϥ 'I saw the circuit of a city gilded with gold, beautiful with precious stones and pearl, our Saviour being in her midst crowning them who love him.' Further, after ϫⲁⲣϫⲏⲗⲱⲛ, ⲥⲁⲣⲇⲓⲛⲟⲛ, ⲧⲟⲡⲁⲇⲓⲟⲛ, and ⲁⲙⲉⲑⲓⲧⲟⲥ follows the response which in D the people are directed to chant, ⲉⲣⲉⲡⲉⲛⲥⲱⲧⲏⲣ &c. 'having &c.' B gives this form in a rough later hand, the response varying, 'our Saviour being,' 'crowning with honour them who love him,' 'Jesus being in its midst,' 'Emmanuel being in its midst.'

Rome. 16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel: for it is the (lit. a) power of God unto [a] salvation to all who believe; the Jew first, and the Greek. 17 For the (lit. a) righteousness of God will be revealed in it from [a] faith unto [a] faith, according as it is written: 'The righteous will live from (the) faith.'

18 For the anger of God will be revealed from (the) heaven upon all godlessness and (the) wrongdoing of [the] men, who [a] lay hold on the truth in [the] wrongdoing: 19 because the knowledge of God is manifested in them.

For God manifested it unto them. 20 His unseen things from (the) creation of the world, being understood in his creatures, are visible, that is to say, his eternal power and his divinity. So that they are without excuse (and) without answer: 21 because, having known God, they glorified him not as God, nor thanked him, but became vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart became dark;

[a] glory and [an] honour and [a] peace to every one who worketh the good, the Jew first, and the Greek: [11] there is not respect of persons with God.
be destroyed: and they who sinned in the law, will be judged through the law; [13] for not the hearers of the law are the righteous with God, but (ⲁ) they who do the law will be justified.
[14] For if there are the Gentiles, who have not law, (yet) by nature do the things of the law, these who have not law are (a) law to themselves. [15] These who manifest the work of the law written in their heart, and (with) their conscience bearing witness unto them with them, and their thoughts accusing (lit. between them with) one another, or even will excuse [16] in the day of God, (who) will judge the hidden things of [the] man according to my Gospel through Jesus Christ.

through the written law and the circumcision, because (or, that) thou wast a transgressor of the law. [28] For the Jew is not (he) who is [a]outwardly the Jew, nor is (the) circumcision which is manifest in (the) flesh the circumcision: [29] but (ⲇⲉ) the inward (lit. who is hidden) Jew, this is the Jew, and the circumcision (is that) of the heart in [a] spirit, not in [a] writing, whose praise is not from man, but (ⲇⲉ) it is from God.

III. What then is the advantage (lit. the more) of the Jew? or what is (the) profit of the circumcision? [2] Much it is according to every way: first indeed because they were intrusted with the words of God. [3] For what if some were unbelieving? Will their unbelief do away with the faith of God? [4] It shall not be. But let God be speaking truth, and every man speaking falsehood; according as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy words and overcome when thou wilt be judged. [5] If our wrongdoing will set up the righteousness of God, what shall (lit. will) we say?
Is God a wrongdoer being about to bring his anger? I said this humanly. 6 It shall not be: otherwise how will God judge the world? 7 But if the truth of God abounded unto his glory in my falsehood, then why am I also judged as a sinner, 8 and not according as we are blasphemed, as some say of us, that we say: 'Let us do evil things, that good things may come to us?' whose condemnation (lit. judgement) is decided (lit. under (the) judgement). 9 What then?

Have we more? Not at all: we before found blame with the Jews and the Greeks, that they are all under (the) sin; 10 according as it is written: 'There is not a solitary righteous one; 11 there is not he who understandeth; there is not he who seeketh after God. 12 They all turned aside, they became unprofitable together; there is not he who doeth [a] kindness; there is not even (lit. up to) one: 13 an open sepulchre is their throat; they practised deceit with (lit. from) their tongue; a serpent poison is under their lips: 14 these whose mouths are full of cursing and bitterness; 15 their feet hasten to shed blood; 16 (the) crushing and (the) misery are in their ways; 17 and they knew not

(lit. from) faith in Jesus Christ. [27] Where then was the boasting? It was excluded. By what law? That of [the] works? Nay; but through (the) law of (the) faith. [28] For we shall (lit. will) reckon a man that he will be justified in (the) faith without the works of the law. [29] Or is God of the Jews only, and not of the Gentiles indeed (pr.) also (ⲕⲉ)? Yea, he is of the Gentiles also (ϩⲱⲟⲩ). [30] If then (ϩⲁⲣⲁ) God is one, he who will justify (the) circumcision from (the) faith and the uncircumcision through the faith; [31] shall (lit. will) we then (ⲟⲩⲛ) make useless the law through the faith? It shall not be. But (ⲁ) we shall (lit. will) set up the law.

IV. What then shall (lit. will) we say concerning Abraam that he was found our forefather according to flesh? [2] For if Abraam was justified from works, then he hath boasting, but (ⲁ) not toward God. [3] For what (is it) which the Scripture saith? But Abraam believed God, and it was reckoned to him for [a] righteousness.

[4] He who worketh—his reward is not reckoned to him as (ⲕⲁⲧⲁ) a favour, but (ⲁ) because it is owed to him. [5] But faith, considering (pret.) his body, he found it [a]as being already dead, (for) he was [b]about a hundred years old; and the deadness also of (the) womb of Sarra. 20 And having not doubted in (an) unbelief of the promise of God. But (ⲁ) he was strong in the faith, giving (pret.) glory to God; 21 and he was persuaded, that that which he promised it was possible for him to do. 22 Therefore it was reckoned to him for [a] righteousness. 23 But it was not written for him alone that it was reckoned to him; 24 but also for us, namely, those to whom it was reckoned, who believe him who raised Jesus Christ our Lord from them who are dead, 25 who was given for our sins, and he rose for our justification.

V. Having been justified then through (the) faith, let us make [a] peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, a hope of (the) glory of God. 3 But not only (so), but (ⲁ) we are also boasting ourselves in the tribulations, knowing that the tribulation worked [a] patience: 4 but [the] patience, [an] approval; but [the] approval, [a] hope; 5 but [the] hope is not ashamed, because the love of God was shed in our hearts through the holy spirit which he gave to us. 6 For if yet when we were weak ones, Christ died for the ungodly, 7 for scarcely would one (go) as far as to die for a righteous man, for perhaps one would (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉ) dare to die for the [a]good.

8 But God commended his love to us, because we being yet sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more, having been justi-him from (the) anger. 10 For if being enemies we were reconciled to God through (the) death of his Son, much more having been reconciled to him we shall be saved in his life; 11 but not only (so), but (ⲁ) we also boast ourselves in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we received the reconciliation.

through one man, and through (the) sin (thē) death happened, and thus the death went into every man [a]in whom they sinned. 13 For until (the) law (the) death was being in the world: but (the) sin was not being reckoned, there being no law. 14 But (ⲇⲉ) (the) death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them who did not sin in (the) likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is (the) type of him who cometh.

15 But (ⲇⲉ) not according as the trespass so is the grace. For if in the trespass of one many died, much more the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man Jesus Christ abounded unto many. 16 And not according as through one who sinned (so) is the gift: for the judgement indeed is through one unto a condemnation, but the grace through many trespasses unto a justification. 17 For if through (the) sin of the one (the) death reigned, much more they who will receive the abundance of the grace and the free gift of the righteousness shall reign in a life for ever forth, (the) sin lived, [10] but I died; and the commandment was found [a](such that, being) intended (ϭⲓ) for me unto (the) life, it (lit. this) became for me unto [a] death: [11] for (the) sin took an occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and killed me through it. [12] Wherefore (the) law indeed is holy, and the commandment is holy, and is just, and it is good. [13] The good then became for me unto [a] death.

It shall not be. But (ⲁ) it is (the) sin: that by means of the good, (the) sin might be manifested (as) working for me [a] death: that (the) sin might be more sinful (lit. sinner) through the commandment. [14] For we know indeed that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, having been sold under (the) sin. [15] For that which I work I know not:
for not that which I wish is that (lit. this) which I do: but (ⲁ) that which I hate I do. [16] If that which I wish not is that (lit. this) which I do, I assent to (lit. 'say with') the law, that it is good. [17] But now (it is) not I who work it, but (ⲁ) it is (the) sin which dwelleth in me. [18] For I know that the good dwelleth not in me, that is to say, flesh I am servant to the law of (the) sin. VIII. So (ϩⲁⲣⲁ) then now there is no judgement to take them who are in flesh it is not possible to please God. 9 But ye (pron) were not being (ϫⲏ) in (the) flesh, but (ⲁ) in the spirit, if there is the (lit. a) spirit of God dwelling in you. But he in whom the spirit of Christ dwelleth not, that one (lit. this who is there) is not of him. 10 But if Christ (is) in you the body indeed is dead because of sin; but the spirit is [a] life because of [the] righteousness. 11 But if the spirit of him who raised Jesus from them who are dead dwelleth in you, then he who raised Christ Jesus from them who are dead shall make live your bodies also, which die, through his spirit which dwelleth in you.

12 So (ϩⲁⲣⲁ) then, my brethren, we are not debtors to (lit. in) flesh to live according to flesh: 13 for if ye live according to flesh, ye will die; but if in the spirit ye kill the works of the body, ye will live. 14 For they who walk in the spirit of God, these are the sons of God. 15 For ye were not receiving a spirit of [a] servitude into [a] fear again; but ye received a spirit of [a] sonship, this in which ye cry:
'Abba [the] Father.' 16 And the spirit himself witnesseth

(are) sons, then we (are) heirs also; heirs indeed of God, fellow heirs with (lit. of) Christ; if we suffer with him, that we may be glorified with him also. [18] For I think that the pains of this present time are not worthy of the glory which will be revealed to us. [19] For the expectation of the creation gazeth out forward to the revelation of the sons of God. [20] For the creation was subject to the vanity: it wisheth not, but (ⲁ) (it is so) because of him who subjected it in a hope, [21] that the creation itself also will be free from the servitude of (the) corruption into the freedom of (the) glory of the sons of God. [22] For we know indeed that all the creation groaneth with us, and travaileth with us up to now. [23] But not only (so), but (ⲁ) also we ourselves groan, having the firstfruit of the spirit, even (ⲟⲩⲟϩ) we groan within us, looking out forward to the sonship, the redemption of our body. [24] For we were saved in [a] hope: but [a] hope which is seen is not [a] hope: for that which one seeth, he doth not wait for. [25] But if then shall not he grant all things to us with him? 33 Who will be able to intercede against the elect of God? It is God who justifieth; 34 who will be able to condemn?

Christ Jesus is (he) who died, but more, he rose from them who are dead, he who is set on (the) right hand of God, who himself intercedeth for us. 35 Who will be able to separate us from the love of Christ? [a, thus with all] tribulation is it, or hardship, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? 36 According as it is written: 'For thee we are killed all the day; we were reckoned as sheep for (the) slaughter.' 37 But (ⲇⲉ) in all these things we conquer exceedingly through him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded that neither (the) death, nor
(the) life, nor angel, nor principality, nor the things which are, nor the things which will be, nor power, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor other creation—for none of them is it possible to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus thee be called (i.e. invited). 8 That is to say, that the sons of (the) flesh—these are not the sons of God; but (ⲁ) the sons of the promise will be reckoned for a seed.

9 For this word is that of (ⲫⲁ) a promise: 'According to this time I shall come, and a son shall be to Sarra.' 10 But not only (so), but (ⲁ) also (the) Erebekka as well (ⲕⲉ), having conceived from one bed, of Isaac our father. 11 For when they were not yet born, nor yet had they done good or evil, that the choice which God ordained from (the) first might be permanent, being not from works, but (ⲁ) from him who calleth, 12 it was said to her: 'The elder (lit. great) shall be servant to the younger (lit. little).' 13 According as it is written: 'Jacob indeed I loved, but Esau I hated.' 14 What then shall (lit. will) we say? Is there [a] wrongdoing with God? It shall not be.

15 For he saith to Moses: 'I shall (lit. will) have mercy on whom I shall (lit. will) have mercy, and I shall (lit. will) have compassion on whom I shall (lit. will) have compassion.' 16 So (ϩⲁⲣⲁ) then it is not of him who wisheth, nor is it of him who runneth, but (ⲁ) it is of God who hath mercy.

26 And it shall be, in the place in which they said to them:
'Ye (are) not my people,' in that place they shall call them
'(the) sons of the living God.' 27 But Ēsaēas is crying out for Israel: 'If (the) number of (the) sons of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, (only) (the) remnant shall be saved: 28 for a word, completing it and cutting it off (is) that which the Lord will do upon (the) earth.' 29 And according as again Ēsaēas said: 'If the Lord Sabaōth had not left a seed to us, we should have been as Sodoma, and we should have been like to Gomorra.' 30 What then shall (lit. will) we say that the Gentiles (did)? Having pursued not [the] righteousness, they caught [the] righteousness, but the righteousness which is (lit. the) from (the) faith. 31 But

Israel pursuing the law of [the] righteousness reached not the law. [32] Why? Because it is not from (the) faith, but (ⲁ) as from works. They stumbled at the stone of stumbling; according as it is written: [33] 'Behold I shall (lit. will) set in Siōn a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence, and he who believeth him shall not be ashamed.'

X. My brethren, (the) good pleasure of my heart and my prayer which I make to God for them (is) unto [a] salvation. [2] For I witness to them that a zeal for (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉ) God (it is) which is in them, but (ⲁ) not according to [a] knowledge. [3] For being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own, they were not subject to the righteousness of God.

[4] For (the) end of the law is Christ unto [a] righteousness to every one who believeth. [5] For Moses wrote that the righteousness which is (ϯ) from (the) law, (the) man who will do it shall live in it. [6] But the righteousness which is (ϯ) from (the) faith saith thus, Say not in thy heart: 'Who will be able to go up to (the) heaven?' That is to say, that he may bring Christ down: 7 or, Who will be able to go down to (the) abyss? That is to say, that he may bring Christ up from them who are dead. 8 But (ⲁ) what saith the Scripture? The word is near thee; it is (ϫⲏ) in thy mouth, and it is (ϫⲏ) in thy heart, that is to say, (the) word of (the) faith which we proclaim, 9 that if thou shouldst confess with (lit. in, thus again) thy mouth, that Jesus is the Lord, and believe with thy heart that God raised him from them who are dead, thou shalt be saved: 10 for with the heart they believe him unto [a] righteousness, but with their mouth they confess him unto [a] salvation. 11 For the Scripture saith: 'Every one who believeth him shall not be ashamed.' 12 For there is no separation of the Jew and the Greek: for this Lord is of all, being rich to all who cry up toward him. 13 Every one who will pray (the) name of the Lord shall be saved.

a choice of [a] grace existed. 6 But if in [a] grace, then it is not from works: otherwise the grace will not be grace any more. 7 What then (is) that? That which Israel sought, this he obtained not; but the chosen (lit. choice) acquired (it). But (the) rest were hardened of heart.
8 According as it is written: 'God gave to them a spirit of stupor, and eyes not to see, and ears not to hear until today.' 9 And David saith: 'Let their table be to them a snare and a trap and a stumblingblock and a retribution to them. 10 Let their eyes be darkened not to see; their back let it be bent (down) always.' 11 I say then, Did they stumble that they might fall? It shall not be: but (ⲁ) in their transgression (the) salvation happened to the Gentiles, that they may rouse their jealousy. 12 If their transgression was the (lit. a) riches of the world, and their deficiency was riches of the Gentiles, then how great is their fulness?

13 But I say to you, namely the Gentiles. Moreover, so far as I am apostle of the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry:

of them. 15 For if their casting away made a reconciliation of the world, then what is their bringing in except (the) life from them who are dead? 16 But if the firstfruit (is) holy, then holy also is the lump: and if the root (is) holy, then holy also are the branches. 17 But if some from the branches were cut off, but thou, being from the bitter olive tree wert grafted in among them, and thou shared in (the) fatness of (the) root of the olive tree; 18 boast not thyself over the branches. But if thou indeed (pron.) boastest thyself, thou (art) not (that) which beareth the root, but (ⲁ) the root (is that) which lifteth up thee.
19 Thou wilt say then, that some from the branches were cut off, that I indeed (pron.) might be grafted in. 20 Well; they were cut off in their unbelief, but thou indeed (pron.) standest in (the) faith. Be not proud, but (ⲁ) fear. 21 For if God spared not the branches according to nature, neither passions of God to present your bodies as a sacrifice living, holy, pleasing to God, and your reasonable worship, pleasing.

2 And that ye should no more share fashion with this age.

But (ⲁ) should change your form in a newness of the understanding, to prove what is (the) wish of God, the good which is pleasing and which is complete.
3 For I say through the grace which is given to me, to every one who is among you, not to think grandly beyond that which is right to think, but (ⲁ) to think prudently, each one according as God divided to him a measure of faith.

4 For as in one body we have many members, but all the members have not one work: 5 thus we also, namely many, being one body in Christ, are each of us members of one another.
6 But having graces diversified according to (the) measure of the grace which is given to us.

Whether [a] prophecy, according to the likeness of (the) faith; 7 or a ministry, in the ministry; or he who teacheth, not bearing the sword without cause: for a minister of God it is taking vengeance for (the) anger on him who doeth the evil. 5 Therefore it is necessary for you to be subject not only because of (the) anger, but (ⲁ̅) also because of the conscience. 6 For therefore we pay tribute; for they are ministers of God continuing unto this work. 7 Give to all their dues: give the tribute to him of the tribute, give the custom to him of the custom: give the fear to him of the fear: give the honour to him of the honour. 8 Be not debtors for anything to any one, except to love one another.

For he who loveth his neighbour, fulfilled the law. 9 For this: 'Thou shalt not commit adultery, thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not bear false witness, thou shalt not covet,' and all other commandments were completed in this saying, in (the) Love thy neighbour as thyself.
10 [The] love did not evil to its neighbour, (the) fulfilment then of the law is [the] love. 11 And this, knowing the time, that already is it the hour to make you rise from the sleep; but now approached to us our salvation (more) be persuaded in his own heart. 6 He who thought of (ⲉ) the day, thought unto the Lord; and he who ate, ate to the Lord; for he giveth thanks to God: and he who eateth not, eateth not to the Lord, and giveth thanks to God.

7 For there is not any of us (who) will live to himself, and there is not any of us (who) will die to himself. 8 For if we shall (lit. will, thus again) live, we shall live to the Lord; but if we shall die, we shall die to the Lord: whether then we shall live or we shall die, we are those of the Lord. 9 Therefore Christ died and he lived, that he might be lord of them who are dead and them who live. 10 But why judgest thou thy brother? Nay, thou also, why despisest thou thy brother? for we all shall (lit. will) be made to stand before the judgement seat of God. 11 For it is written: 'I live, [I] saith the Lord, (and I swear) that every knee shall be bent to me, and every tongue confess to God.' 12 So then each one of us will give account for himself to God. 13 Judge not then any more one another; but (ⲇⲉ) judge this rather, not to set a stumbling-block or an offence for thy brother. [14] I know and I am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean through itself, except to him who thinketh of something that it is unclean, (then) to that one it is unclean. [15] For if because of [a] food thy brother was to be offended, then thou walkest not any more according to [a] love. Destroy not him for whom Christ died, with thy food. [16] Let not then your good be blasphemed: [17] for the kingdom of God was not being in [an] eating and [a] drinking; but (ⲇⲉ) it was in [a] righteousness, and [a] peace, and [a] joy in the (lit. a) holy spirit. [18] For he who serveth Christ in these things pleaseth God, and is upright among [the] men. [19] So then let us pursue the things of [the] peace, and the things of [the] edifying one another. [20] Pull not down the work of God because of [a] food. All things indeed are clean; but (ⲇⲉ) it is [an] evil to the man who will eat [a] with offence. [21] It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, and that in which thy brother will stumble.

[a] Through a stumbling-block.

fellow-worker, and Loukios and Jassōn and Sōsipatros my kinsman. 22 I salute you, I Tertios, who wrote this epistle in the Lord. 23 Saluteth you Gaios my host and all the church. Saluteth you Arastos the treasurer of the city, and Kouartos the brother. 25 He for whom it is possible to confirm you according to my Gospel, and the proclaiming of Christ Jesus according to a revelation of a mystery, having been kept in silence for eternal times, 26 but now it appeared through the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the command of God the eternal (lit. for ever), having been manifested unto [an] obedience of (the) faith you unto the end, blameless in (the) day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, he who called you into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 10 I beseech you, then, my brethren, through (the) name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all (may) be saying [a]the same thing, and that divisions may not be among you; but that ye may be [b]made perfect in one heart and one opinion. 11 For it was shown to me concerning you, my brethren, by them of Chloēs, that there are strifes among you. 12 But this I say, that each one of you saith: 'I indeed am of Paul, but I of Apollō, but I am of Kēpha, but I am of Christ.' 13 Christ was divided. Was Paul crucified for you, or were ye baptised unto (the) name of Paul?

14 I give thanks, that I baptised not any of you except Krispos and Gaios; 15 that one should not say, that ye were baptised unto my name. 16 But I baptised (the) house also of Stephana: further, I know not whether I baptised another. 17 For Christ sent me not to baptise, but (ⲁ) to preach good tidings, not in a wisdom of word, that the cross of Christ should not become vain. 18 For the word of the cross to (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉⲛ) them indeed who will perish is a foolishness, but to us (pronoun) namely those who will be saved it is [a] power of God. 19 For it is written:

'I shall (lit. will) destroy (the) wisdom of the wise, and (the) knowledge of the understanding ones I shall (lit. will) reject.' 20 Where was a wise man? Where was a scribe?
Where was a searcher of this age? Did not God make (the) wisdom of the world foolish? 21 For since from the wisdom of God the world knew not God through the wisdom, God was well pleased through the foolishness of the proclaiming to save them who believe. 22 Since the Jews ask signs, and the Greeks seek for the wisdom: 23 but we (pron.) proclaim Christ crucified: the Jews indeed it is a scandal to them, but (to) the Gentiles it is a foolishness; 24 but to us (pron.), namely those who will be saved, the Jews and the Greeks, Christ is a power of God and a wisdom of God.

[25] Because the foolishness of God is wiser than [the] men, and the weakness of God is stronger than [the] men.

[26] For see your calling, my brethren, that not many wise according to flesh, not many strong, not many noble: [27] but (ⲁ) the fools of the world God chose, that he might put to shame the wise; and God chose the weaknesses of the world, that he might put to shame the strong; [28] and the ignobilities of the world, and them who are despised, God chose, and them who are not, that he might do away with them who are: [29] that no flesh[a] should boast themselves before God. [30] From him (are) ye also in Christ Jesus, who became to us [a] wisdom from God, [a] righteousness and [a] sanctification and [a] redemption;

I showed to you the mystery of God. 2 For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ, and (that) he (lit. this) was crucified. 3 I also in [a] weakness a wisdom of God which we speak in a mystery which is watereth are one: but each one will receive his reward according to his own toil. 9 For we (are) fellow-workers of God; an [a]husbandry of God ye (are) a building of God.

10 According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise master-builder, I laid a foundation; another goes on to build. But let each one see carefully in what manner he built. 11 For another foundation it is not possible that another should lay than (lit. outside of) that which is set, which is Jesus Christ. 12 If there is he who buildeth upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stone[b], firewood, hay, straw; 13 (the) work of each one shall be manifested: for the day will manifest it, because it will be revealed in [a] fire; and (the) work of each one the fire will prove of what sort it is. 14 He whose work will stand which he built, will receive his reward. 15 He whose work will be burnt, will suffer loss: but he himself will be saved, but thus as through [a] fire. [16] Ye know not that ye (are) a temple of God, and the spirit of God dwelt in you.

[17] He, then, who will defile the temple of God, this (one) will God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which ye are. [18] Let not any one deceive himself. He who thinketh among you that he is wise in this age, let him become foolish, that he may become wise. [19] For (the) wisdom of this world is a foolishness with God. For it is written: 'He who overpowereth the wise in their craftiness'; [20] and again: 'The Lord knoweth the reasonings of wise (men) that they are vain.' [21] Wherefore let not any one boast himself in [the] men. For all things are yours; [22] whether Paulos, or Apollō, or Kēpha, or the world, or
(the) life, or (the) death, or the things which are, or the things which will be; all are yours; [23] but ye are of (ⲛⲁ) Christ, but Christ is of (ⲫⲁ) God.

Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. [2] Further, made rich without us ye reigned: and I would that ye had reigned, that we also might share with you in reigning.

9 For I think that God manifested us, namely, the apostles last, as sentenced to death, because we became a spectacle to the world and the angels and the men. 10 We are fools because of Christ, ye are wise in Christ; we (are) weak, but ye are strong; ye are honoured, but we are despised.
11 Up to this hour we hunger, and we thirst, we are naked, and we are buffeted, and we are not settled; 12 we toil, working with (ⲛ̄) our own hands: they rail at us, and we bless them; being persecuted, we are longsuffering; 13 being blasphemed, we beseech them: we became as the rubbish of this world. We became the filth of every one up to this hour. 14 I was not reproaching you, writing these things to you, but (ⲁ) teaching you as beloved sons of mine. 15 For if ye have ten thousand guides in Christ, but (ⲁ) not many fathers: in Christ Jesus through the Gospel I (pron.) begat you.

16 I beseech you, then, be ye like me. 17 Therefore I sent to you Timotheos, who is my beloved child, and faithful in the Lord: he (lit. this) will remind you of my ways in Christ Jesus, according as I teach in every place in all the churches. 18 But as though I come not to you, some were proud. 19 But I shall come to you quickly, if it be (the) wish of the Lord, and I shall know, not (the) word of them who were proud, but (ⲁ) their power. 20 For the kingdom of God was not being in (the) word, but (ⲁ) it was in [a] power. 21 What then wish ye? that I should come to you with (lit. in) a rod, or in [a] love of spirit of meekness? V. A fornication is actually heard of among you, and a fornication such as is not among the Gentiles even, so that one should take (the) wife of his father. 2 And ye also are proud: and why rather mourned ye not? That he who did such a thing might be taken away from your midst. 3 For I indeed am not with you to you not to mix with them. If there is one who is named 'Brother' who (is) a fornicator, or a wrongdoer, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such an one join not even in eating. 12 For what have I to do to judge them who are outside? Judge ye them who are within, 13 but God shall judge them who are outside. Take away from you the evil (man).

VI. There is one (who) will dare among you, having a matter between him and his neighbour, to take judgement from (ϩⲓ) the wrongdoers, and not from the saints.
2 Or know ye not that the saints will judge the world?
And if the world will be judged before (ϧⲉⲛ) you, ye were not being worthy then of small places of judgement.

3 Ye know not that we shall (lit. will) judge angels.
Much more then things of this life. 4 If indeed then ye have places of judgement of this life, them who are despised in the church, these cause to sit (in judgement). 5 I am saying it for a reproach to you. Thus there is not any from God? And ye are not your own; [20] ye were bought with a price: glorify God in your bodies.

VII. But concerning the things which ye wrote to me: it is good for the man not to touch (a) woman. [2] But because of the fornications, let each one [a]have his wife, and let each one (fem.) have her husband. [3] Let the husband give that which he ought to the wife: thus also the wife, let her give that which she ought to her husband. [4] The wife hath not authority over (ⲙ̄ⲙ̄) her own body, but (ⲁ) it is the husband: but thus also the husband hath not authority over (ⲙ̄ⲙ̄) his own body, but (ⲁ) it is the wife. [5] Defraud not one another, except perhaps in [a] consent for a time; that ye may devote (yourselves) to [the] prayer, and again come together, that Satan may not tempt you because of your incontinency.

[6] But this I say according to a concession, not according to commandment. [7] But I wish that every man should be like me, but (ⲁ) each one has a grace from God; the one indeed in this manner, but another in this other manner.

brethren, in that in which he was called, in this abide with God.

25 But concerning the virgins I have not commandment from the Lord: but an opinion I give, as having had mercy (shown) me by the Lord to be faithful.
26 I think, then, that this is good [[a] to be] because of the existing necessity, that it is good for the man to be thus.
27 Thou art bound to (a) wife: seek not for loosing thyself. Thou art loosed from (a) wife: seek not for (a) wife.
28 If, however, thou shouldst marry, thou sinnedst not. And if the virgin should marry, she sinneth not. But such shall receive a tribulation of their flesh: but I (pron.) spare you.

29 But this I say, my brethren, that (the) time is shortened, that henceforth they who have wives should be as they who have not;
30 they who weep, as that they weep not; they who rejoice, as that they rejoice not; they who buy, as that they lay not hold; 31 they who use the world, as that they use not to the full: for the fashion of this world will pass away.

right to know; 3 but he who loveth God, the same (lit. this) was known by him. 4 Concerning the meats, then, of the things slain for idols, we know that (an) idol is nothing in the world[a], and that there is no God except one. 5 For even if there are some being called 'God,' whether in (the) heaven, or upon the earth; as there are many gods and many lords. 6 But to us (pron.) one is God the Father, through whom are all things, and we also into him; one is our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we also through him. 7 But (ⲁ) (the) knowledge (is) not in all. For some up to now in the custom of the idols eat it as a thing slain for idols; and their conscience being weak unto them is polluted. 8 But (it is) not a meat which will commend us to God: neither, should we eat not, shall (lit. will) we be deficient; neither, should we eat, shall (lit. will) we abound. 9 But see lest by any means this your authority should be a stumbling-block to them 6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we authority not to work? 7 Who ever becometh soldier from his own pay?

Who planteth a vineyard, and eateth from his fruit? Or who tendeth a flock of sheep, and eateth not from (the) milk of the flock? 8 Spake I these things according to man, or saith not the law also itself these things? 9 For it is written in (the) law of Moses: 'Thou shalt not muzzle (the) ox, threshing.' Was it a care to God for the oxen?
10 Or altogether he said it because of us? For it was written because of us: because it is worthy that he who plougheth should plough in [a] hope; and he who thresheth should hope to receive. 11 If we (pron.) sowed to you the spiritual things, it is great if we should reap your carnal thing: 12 If others have authority over you[a], much rather we. But bling-block to the Gospel of Christ.

13 Ye know not that they who work (for) the temples eat from the things of the temple, and they who wait upon the altar are divided unto with the altar.
14 Thus the Lord also ordained to them who proclaim the Gospel to live from the Gospel.
15 But I used not any (ⲛ̄ⲟⲩⲟⲛ) of these: but I wrote not these, that they should be done thus in me: for it is good for me rather to die than that any should [not] make my boast void.
16 For if I should preach good tidings, it is not to me [a] boasting; for a necessity is laid upon me; for woe to me if I should not preach good tidings.
17 For if I did this willingly, then I have reward:
if not willingly, then I was entrusted with a stewardship.

18 What then is my reward? That, preaching good tidings, I may make (ϫⲁ) the Gospel without expense, (so as) not to use this authority in the Gospel.
19 For being free from all, I made myself servant of all, that I might gain the

X. For I wish you not to be (lit. being) ignorant, my brethren, that all our fathers were being under the cloud, and they all passed through the sea; [2] and they were all baptised unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; [3] and the same spiritual food they all ate; [4] and the same spiritual drink they all drank: for they were drinking from a spiritual rock, following them: but the rock was Christ. [5] But (ⲁ̀) God was not well pleased with most of them: for they were overthrown[a] in (the) desert. [6] But these things became to us types, that we should not be [being] lusters after evil things, according as those lusted. [7] Neither be ye idolaters, as some among them; as it is written: 'The people sat down to eat and to drink; and they arose to play.' [8] Neither let us commit fornication, as some among them committed, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day. [9] Neither let us tempt Christ, according as some

4 Every man who prayeth or prophesieth, having his head her shave it: if it is a dishonour unto a woman to shear her head, or to shave it, let her cover her head. 7 For the man indeed ought not to cover his head, because he is an image and a glory of God: but the woman—she is a glory of her husband. 8 For the man was not brought from the woman, but (ⲁ) the woman from the man: 9 for woman; all things are from God. 13 Judge in your own selves: that it was seemly for a woman to pray to God with her head not covered. 14 Not even [the] nature herself teacheth you, That the man [b]indeed, if he have long hair, it is a dishonour to him. 15 But the woman, if she have long hair, it is a glory to her; because the hair was given to her instead of a veil. 16 But if (any) one thinketh to be contentious, [but] we (pron.) have not such a custom, neither the churches of God. 17 But ordering this I was not justifying you, because ye assemble not for [c]the better, but (ⲁ) [d]the worse.

18 For first indeed, being about to assemble together in the church, I hear of divisions being among you, and I partly believe (it). 19 For there must be heresies among you, that the chosen also who are among you might be manifested. 20 Being about to assemble, then, together, it is not to eat a Lord's Supper: 21 for each one taketh before (another) from his supper to eat; there is (one) who is hungry indeed, but there is (one) who is drunken. 22 For have ye not houses to eat and to drink (in)? Or despised ye the church of God, and shamed them who have not?
What shall (lit. will, thus again) I say to you? (Is it) that I justify you in this? I shall not justify you.

23 For I (pron.) received from the Lord that which I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was about to be betrayed (lit. given) took a loaf; 24 and he gave thanks, he brake it, and he said: 'This is my body, which will be given for you: this do for (ⲉ) remembrance of me.' 25 Thus then, my brethren, should ye assemble to eat, stay for one another. 34 If there is he who is hungry, let him eat in his house; that ye may not assemble for (ⲉ) a judgement.

But (the) rest (of the things), should I come, I shall ordain.

XII. But concerning the spiritual (gifts), my brethren, I wish you not to be (lit. being) ignorant. 2 Ye know that, being Gentiles, being under the voiceless idols, ye were walking (along) as ye were [a]led. 3 Therefore I show to you, that no one speaking in the spirit of God saith that Jesus is an anathema; and it is not possible that any should say that Jesus (is) the Lord except in a holy spirit.
4 But there are [b]distributions existing of graces, though it know, and in [a] part we prophesy: 10 but if the perfect should come, the in part will be done away. 11 Being a child, I was speaking as a child, I was meditating as a child, I was thinking as a child, when I became man I did away the things of my childhood. 12 For we see now through a glass in a likeness, then we shall (lit. will) see face to face. I know now in [a] part; but then (lit. in the time) I shall (lit. will) know, according as I was known. 13 But now these three abide, (the) faith, [the] hope, (the) love; but the great among these is [the] love. XIV. Pursue after [the] love, but be zealous for the spiritual (gifts), but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 He who speaketh in (the) tongue is speaking not to the men but (ⲁ) God; for no one heareth him: in the spirit, then, he speaketh mysteries. 3 But he who prophesieth spoke to the men for an edification and a comfort and a consolation. 4 He who speaketh in (the) tongue edified himself alone; but he who prophesieth edified a church.
5 But I wish you all to speak (lit. speaking) in tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy: but greater is he who prophesieth than he who speaketh in (the) tongue, except he interpret, that the church may receive an edification.

[6] But now, my brethren, if I should come to you, speaking in tongues, what profit shall (lit. will) I give to you unless I speak to you in a revelation, or in [a] knowledge, or in a prophecy, or in a teaching?
[7] Even the soulless things giving their voice, whether a pipe or a harp, unless they make distinction of their voice, how will they know that which is piped or that which is harped?
[8] For if a trumpet also should give a voice not manifest, who will prepare himself for (the) war?
[9] Thus ye also through (the) tongue, if ye should not say a word manifest, how will they know that which ye say? For ye will be as speaking unto (the) air.
[10] There are many sorts of voice in this world, and there is not anything being voiceless.
[11] If I should not know (the) power of the voice, I shall (lit. will) be (a) my understanding in the church, that I may instruct others, than ten thousand words in (the) tongue. 20 My brethren, be not children in your understandings: but (ⲇⲉ) be children in [the] malice, but in your understandings be of full (age).

21 For it is written in (the) law: 'In other tongues and in other lips I shall (lit. will) speak to this people; and thus also they shall not hearken to me, saith the Lord.' 22 Wherefore the tongues were being for a sign not to them who believe, but (ⲇⲉ) to the unbelievers: but the prophecy was being not for the unbelievers, but (ⲇⲉ) for them who believe. 23 If then the whole church should come together, and all speak in tongues, but unlearned come in or unbelievers, will they not say: 'These were mad?' 24 But if all are prophesying, but an unbeliever or an unlearned come in, all will convict him; all will search him (out).
25 The secrets of his heart will be manifested; and thus he will throw himself upon his face and worship God, manifesting that really God is among you. 26 What, then, is it, my brethren? If ye should assemble, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath language of tongue, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done in an edifying. 27 Whether (it be) he who speaketh in (the) tongue, (let it be) by two or the most three, and a turn for (the) one, and let one interpret. 28 But if there is not an interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; but let him speak between himself and God. 29 But [a] prophets two or three let them speak, and let the others discern. 30 But if a revelation be made in another sitting down, let the first keep silence. 31 For it is possible for you all to prophesy one by one, that all may be taught, and all find comfort; 32 the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; 33 for God is not of division, but (ⲁ) of peace; as it is in all the churches of the saints. 34 Let the women keep silence in the church, and they are not com-the majority of them abide up to now, but others fell asleep.

7 Then he appeared to Jacōbos, then he appeared to all the apostles; 8 but last of them all, as one born out of due time, he appeared to me also. 9 For I am the least[a] among all the apostles, being not worthy to be called 'apostle,' because that I persecuted the church of God. 10 But in a grace of God I am that which I am: and his grace which is in me was not void; but (ⲁ) I toiled more than they all: but not I, but (ⲁ) the grace of God which is with me. 11 Whether then I or they, we proclaim thus, and thus ye believed. 12 But if Christ is proclaimed, that he rose from them who are dead, how say some among you, that there will not be resurrection of the dead. [13] But if there will not be resurrection of the dead, then neither did Christ rise: [14] but if Christ rose not, then our proclaiming is void, your faith also is void. [15] But again we shall (lit. will) be found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he raised Christ, [a] whom he raised not, if then the dead will not rise. [16] For if the dead will not rise, then Christ rose not: [17] but if Christ rose not, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. [18] Then they who fell asleep in Christ perished. [19] But if in this life only we hoped on Christ, then we are pitiable more than all men. [20] But now Christ rose from them who are dead, (the) firstfruits of them who fell asleep. [21] For since through a man (the) death happened, through man also (the) resurrection of the dead. [22] For as in Adam we shall (lit. will) all die, thus also in Christ we shall (lit. will) all live: [23] each one in his order.

boast, my brethren, this which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. 32 If humanly (speaking) I fought with the wild beast in Ephesos, what is my gain? If the dead will not rise, let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall (lit. will) die. 33 Go not astray: for the evil words corrupt the good hearts. 34 Be watchful righteously, and sin not; for an ignorance of God (it is) which is in some: I spoke to you in [a] shame. 35 But (ⲁ̀) there is one (who) will say: 'How will the dead rise? But in what body came they?' 36 [The] senseless (man), that which thou (pron.) sowest, liveth not unless it die: 37 and that which thou sowest—the body which will be is (not, pron.) that which thou sowest, but (ⲁ̀) it is a grain, naked, whether [a] wheat or another of (the) rest of the seeds; 38 but God giveth (a) body to it, according as he wished, and to each of the seeds he giveth their own body. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but (ⲁ̀) a different flesh indeed of the men, a different flesh of the beasts, a different flesh of the birds, different that of the fishes.

40 There is also a body of (the) heaven, there is a body of (the) earth; but (ⲇⲉ) different indeed is (the) glory of the things of (the) heaven, but different is (the) glory of the things of (the) earth. 41 Different is (the) glory of (the) sun, different is (the) glory of the moon, different is (the) glory of the stars; for there is a star differing from (ⲉ) star in its glory. 42 Thus also is the resurrection of the dead.

It is sown in a corruption; it will rise in an incorruption; 43 it is sown in a dishonour; it will rise in a glory; it is sown in a feebleness; it will rise in a power. 44 A psychic body is sown; a spiritual body will rise. If there is a psychic body, then there is also a spiritual body. 45 It was written indeed also thus: 'Adam the first man became a living soul.' But the last Adam (is) a life-giving spirit. 46 But (ⲇⲉ) the spiritual is not the first, but (ⲁ) the psychic; after it the spiritual. 47 The first man is from (the) earth, one of earth: the second man is to you: we shall (lit. will) not all fall asleep indeed, but we shall (lit. will) all be changed, 52 in a moment, in a

(lit. will) pass by (the) Macedonia. 6 But perchance I might (ⲛ̅ⲧⲁ) stay with you, or I might (ⲛ̅ⲧⲁ) spend the winter, that ye (pron.) may escort me to the place to which I shall (lit. will) go. 7 For I wish not to see you now, being on (the) road; for I hope to spend time with you, if the Lord should command. 8 I shall (lit. will) be in Ephesos until the Pentēcostē. 9 For a great door effectual was opened to me, and (there are) many adversaries. 10 But if Timotheos should come, see that he may come to you without fear; for the work of the Lord he worketh, as also I (do). 11 Let no one then despise him: but escort him in [a] peace that he may come to me: for I expect him with the brethren. 12 But concerning Apollo the brother, I besought him very much that he might come to you with the brethren: and it is not at all (the) wish that he should come now; but he shall come to you if he should find (the) opportunity. 13 Watch, then, and stand in (the) faith; master yourselves, and take courage.

TO CORINTHIANS 2. III. 1.

I. Paul (the) apostle of Christ Jesus, through (the) wish of God, and Timotheos the brother, to the church of God, which is in Korinthos, with all the saints who are in all [the] Achaia: 2 grace to you and (the) peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. [3]God is faithful, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of the compassions, and God of all comfort; [4]he (lit. this) who comforted us in all our tribulation, to cause us also to be able to comfort all who are in any (lit. all) tribulation, through the comfort in which God comforted us.

5 Because according as the pains of Christ abound into us, thus also through Christ aboundeth our comfort also. 6 But whether we are afflicted for your comfort and your salvation; or we are consoled for your comfort, which worketh in an endurance of the same pains these in which we also are pained: 7 and our hope (is) firm for you; knowing that according as ye are sharers of the pains, thus also of the comfort. 8 But I wish you not to be (lit. being) ignorant, my brethren, concerning the tribulation which happened to us in [the] Asia, that we were weighed down excessively, more than our power, so that we gained not the life even: 9 but (ⲁ) in ourselves we received the answer of (the) death, that we might not trust in ourselves only, but (ⲁ) in God who raiseth the dead: 10 he (lit. this) who saved us from death such as this, and will save us: in whom we hoped that still he will save us; 11 ye also being fellow workers in [the] prayer for us; that through many persons (praying)

(for) the grace toward us thanks may be given to God through many because of us. 12 For this is our boast, the witness of your conscience, that in [an] holiness and [a] truth of God, not in [a] carnal wisdom, but (ⲁ) in [a] grace of God we walked in the world, and especially (lit. but more) with you. 13 For not other things we wrote to you except those which ye read, and of which also ye have knowledge; I hope that ye will know unto the end: 14 according as ye partly knew us, that we are your boast, according as ye also are ours in (the) day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 And in this persuasion I wished to come to you at first, that ye might receive the second joy; 16 and through you I might go to (the) Macedonia, and again from (the) Macedonia to come to you; and that ye (pron.) might escort me to [the] Judea. 17 Wishing, then, this, did I at all act in [a] levity? Or the things which I counsel, did I counsel them according to flesh, that the yea yea and the nay nay should be with me? 18 God is surety (lit. faithful) that our word which was (spoken) to you was not a yea and a nay, but (ⲁ) a yea (is) that which was in it. 19 For the Son of God, Christ Jesus, he (lit. this) whom we proclaimed among you through me and Silouanos and Timotheos, was not a yea and a nay, but (ⲁ) a yea (is) that which is in him: 20 for all the promises of God which are in him are a yea: therefore also through him is the Amēn [a] of God unto a glory through us. 21 But he who confirmeth us with you is Christ, and he who saved us is God; 22 and he sealed us, and he gave to us the earnest of the spirit into our hearts. 23 But I (pron.) call to God as witness upon my soul, that sparing you I came not any more a one might be swallowed up. 8 Therefore I beseech you to confirm [a] love unto (lit. into) him. 9 For therefore I wrote to you that I might know your proof; if ye are obedient in all things. 10 But to whom ye will condone, I also do (it) to him: for I (pron.) also condone that which I condoned, [I did it] because of you, in (the) person of Jesus Christ; 11 that Satan may not do us wrong, for we forget not his thoughts.

12 But having come to Trōas for (ⲉ) the Gospel of Christ, and a door having been opened to me in the Lord, 13 my spirit rested not, I having not found Titos my brother: and having taken leave of them, I came from there to (the) Macedonia. 14 But thanks be to God, he (lit. this) who manifesteth us always in Christ, and manifesting through us savour of his knowledge in every place. 15 Because we are a sweet savour of Christ to God, in them who will be saved, and in them who will perish; 16 to some indeed a savour from [a] death to [a] death; but to some a savour from [a] life to [a] life. And who is sufficient for these things? [17] For we were not being as many, trafficking with (the) word of God: but (ⲁ) as from [a] sincerity, but (ⲁ) as from God, before God, in Christ we speak.

III. Begin we again to commend ourselves, or do we need epistles as others commending us to you or from you? [2] Because ye are our epistle written in our hearts, being known, being read by all men; [3] ye are manifested that ye (are) an epistle of Christ, ministered through us, being written not in [an] ink, but (ⲁ) in [a] spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but (ⲁ) in tables of heart of flesh. [4] But we have such a persuasion through Christ towards God: [5] not that through ourselves only we are sufficient to think of a work as that (it is) from ourselves;

according as Moses, who putteth a covering over his face for (the) children of Israel not to be able to look at the glory of his face, which will be done away: [14] but (ⲇⲉ)
their thoughts were hardened: for until this very day the same covering is upon the reading of the old testament; it not being revealed, that it will be done away in Christ.

[15] But (ⲇⲉ) until to-day, if Moses should be read, the covering also is over their heart.
[16] But if it should turn to the Lord, he taketh away that covering.
[17] But the Lord is the spirit: the place in which (is) the spirit of the Lord, is [a] liberty.
[18] But we all with (ϧⲉⲛ) [a] face unveiled (lit. being revealed) look at (the) glory of the Lord in a mirror, changing ourselves into the same image from a glory to a glory, and it was according as[a] from a spirit of the Lord.
IV. Therefore having this ministry, according as mercy was shown us, we faint not:
[2] but (ⲇⲉ) we leave oppressed; being cast out, but (ⲁ) we are not cast away; 9 being persecuted, but (ⲁ) he left us not; being struck down, but (ⲁ) we are not destroyed. 10 Always carrying (the) death of Jesus in our body, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body. 11 For always we, namely they who live, are delivered to (the) death because of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our flesh which will die. 12 Wherefore (the) death worked in us, but the life in you. 13 But the same spirit of (the) faith is being in us, according as it is written: 'I believed, therefore I spoke'; we also believe, therefore we speak, 14 Knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus shall raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you. 15 For all things happened because of you, that the grace may abound and may cause the thanksgiving to abound through the many unto a glory of God. 16 Therefore we faint not; but (ⲇⲉ) if our outer man will perish, but (ⲇⲉ) the inner is made new day before day. 17 For (the) lightness of our present tribulation worked more and more exceedingly[a] a weight of an eternal glory. 18 Looking not at the things which we saw, but (ⲇⲉ) the things which we saw not: for the things which they see are for a time, but the things which they see not are for ever. V. For we know that if our house of our dwelling-place which is on (the) earth should be pulled down, we have a building through God, an house not made with hand, eternal in the heavens. 2 For in this we groan, yearning to clothe ourselves with our dwelling-place which is (lit. 'the') from (the) heaven: 3 then if we should clothe ourselves they will not find us naked. 4 For also we, namely they who are in this dwelling-place, groan, being burdened; not for that [5] For even having come to (the) Macedonia, our flesh took not any rest, but (ⲁ) we were[a] oppressed in everything; outside contentions, inside fears. [6] But (ⲁ) he who com-coming of Titos; [7] but not only in his coming, but (ⲁ) also in the comfort, in which he was assured about you, showing to us your hearty love and your weeping and your zeal for us. So that I rejoice the more, [8] because if I gave pain to you in the epistle, I repent not, although I was repenting; for I see that that epistle, [that] if it grieved you, (grieved you) for a little (time), [9] but now I rejoice, not that ye were grieved, but (ⲁ) that ye were grieved unto [a] *repent-

VIII. But I show to you, my brethren, the grace of God which was given to me in the churches of (the) Macedonia; 2 that in a great proof of a tribulation, the abundance of their joy and (the) depth of their poverty abounded into the riches of their singleness. 3 I witness that according to their power and beyond their power, they acted of their own readiness, 4 they prayed us in a great beseeching concerning the grace, and the fellowship of the ministry which is done to the saints: 5 and not according as we hoped, but (ⲁ) they more eager (lit. hasting) in a great confidence which there is (to him) in (ϩⲁ) you. 23 Whether (any enquire) about Titos, (he is) my friend and fellow worker for (lit. into) you; or our brethren, they are apostles of the churches, (the) glory of Christ. 24 (The) manifestation then of your love and our boast which we make about you, manifest it to them before the churches.

IX. For indeed concerning the ministration which they do for the saints, this is superfluous[a] for me to write to you: 2 for I know your readiness, this of which I make (a) boast about you to them of (ⲛⲁ) (the) Macedonia, that they of [the] Achaia prepared themselves a year ago; but (ⲁ) your zeal gave zeal to very many of them[b]. 3 But we sent the brethren to you, that our boast which we make about you, may not be empty in this respect; that, according as I was saying, ye might be prepared: 4 lest by any means should they of (the) Macedonia come with me, and find you not prepared, we (pron.) might be ashamed, that we should not say, 'Ye,' in this measure. [5] I thought it necessary then to exhort the brethren, that they should come before to you, and prepare before your blessing, which ye promised beforehand[a], that it might be prepared, but thus as [a] beneficence[b] and not (as) extortion[c]. [6] But this it is, that he who is sparing (in) sowing shall reap also sparingly; and he who soweth beneficently shall reap also beneficently: [7] each one according as he chose for himself in his heart, not grudgingly[d] or from a necessity: for a rejoicing giver (it is) whom God loveth.

[8] But it is possible for God to make all grace multiply to you, that (the) sufficiency, being to you in everything always, ye may abound in every good thing: [9] according as it is written: 'He distributed, he gave to the poor; his righteousness abideth for ever.' [10] But he who supplieth the seed to him who soweth shall supply the bread also to him for [an] eating; and he shall cause your plants to grow; he shall cause them to grow, namely (ⲛ̄ϫⲉ) the fruits of your righteousness: [11] ye being rich in everything, in all singleness, this which worketh through us a thanksgiving to God. [12] Because this ministration of this service not only is (at work) filling up the wants of the saints [only], but (ⲇⲉ) also aboundeth through many thanksgivings to God; [13] through the proof of this ministration. Ye are glorifying[a] God for the subjection of your confession unto the Gospel of Christ, and the singleness of the fellowship with them and all; [14] and their prayer which they make for you, being in hearty love to you, because of the grace of God, which aboundeth in you. [15] But thanks be given to God for his free gift unspeakable.

X. But I Paul beseech you through the meekness and the fairness of Christ, as being humble indeed among you in your presence; but being away from you [b]I have firmness among you: [2] but I pray to have firmness, [c]not being with[d] you, in this confidence, this with which I think to be bold against some, these who think of us that we walked according to flesh. 3 For we walked according to flesh, (yet) we were not (serving as) soldiers according to flesh. 4 For the weapons of your soldiering are not carnal, but (ⲁ̄) they are powers of God, unto an overthrowing of the things which are strong, unto a hurling down of arguments (ⲥⲟϭⲛⲓ), 5 and all heights which raise themselves against the knowledge of God, and we are leading captive all thoughts into (the) obedience of Christ; 6 and being prepared to avenge all disobedience, if your obedience should be filled first. 7 (Is it) that ye look at the things which are in your presence?

He who trusteth that he is of Christ, let him argue (ⲥⲟϭⲛⲓ) this again in himself, that, according as he is of Christ, thus are we also. 8 For if I should boast myself more about the authority which the Lord gave to me unto [an] edification, and not unto your ruin, I shall (lit. will) not be ashamed. 9 That I may not be as one frightening you through the epistles. 10 Because the epistles indeed are weighty and they are strong; but the presence of the body is weak, and the words contemptible. 11 This again let such a one think, that, according as we are in (the) word through the epistles, not being with you, this is as we are in (the) deed, being with you. 12 For we are not bold to compare ourselves or to measure ourselves with (ⲉ) some who commend themselves: but (ⲁ) they (pron.) in themselves are measuring themselves, and are comparing themselves with (ⲉ) themselves, and are not understanding.

13 But we (pron.) were not boasting ourselves in things without measure, but (ⲁ) according to the measure of the canon which God ordained to us, to cause us to reach unto it in a measure, and one as far as you. 14 For not as not reaching to you we stretch (out) ourselves to you the more: for we reached to you also in the Gospel of Christ: 15 not boasting ourselves in unmeasuredness (plural), in toils of other men[a]; but having a hope, should your faith grow, to cause it to become great in you, according to our canon unto an abundance, 16 to preach glad tidings to you, [b] things which are greater than those, not in a canon of other men (and) to boast ourselves of the things which were prepared. 17 But he who boasteth himself, let him boast himself in the Lord.

18 For not he who commendeth himself is the chosen, but (ⲁ) he whom the Lord will commend.

XI. Would that ye were to bear with me a little in my senselessness: but (ⲁ) be longsuffering with me. 2 For I am jealous over you in a jealousy of God: for I united you to one husband a pure virgin to Christ. 3 But I fear lest by any means as the serpent deceived Eva in his craftiness, your thoughts may be corrupted from the singleness and the pureness which is in Christ. 4 For if indeed he who cometh will proclaim to you another Jesus (whom) we proclaimed [him] not, or ye will receive another spirit (whom) ye received [him] not, or another Gospel (which) ye accepted [it] not, well forsooth will ye bear with (him).

5 For I think that I am in want of nothing in comparison with (ⲉϩⲟⲧⲉ) the apostles who surpass. 6 If I am an un-learned one in (the) word, but (ⲁ) not in (the) knowledge; but (ⲁ) in everything we manifested ourselves to you among all. 7 Is it a sin which I did (in) humiliating myself, that ye might be exalted, because I proclaimed to you freely the Gospel of God? 8 I robbed churches; I took wages because of ministering to you[a], 9 and being with you, having been in want, I put not burden upon one of you; for my deficiency the brethren who came from (the) Macedonia filled it up[b]; and in everything I kept myself, being unburden-some to (lit. from) you, and I shall keep (so) still (ⲟⲛ). 10 The truth of Christ is in me, that this boast will not be shut off from me (ⲉⲣⲟⲓ) in the places of [the] Achaia. 11 Why?

Because I love you not. God knoweth. 12 But that which I do, I shall (lit. will) do it still (ⲟⲛ), that I may cut off (the) pretext of them who wish to find pretext; that they may be found in that in which they boast themselves according as ourselves. 13 For these are as false apostles, workers of subtlety, changing themselves into (the) form of apostles of Christ. 14 And it is not a wonder. Satan also himself changeth himself into (the) form of an angel of (the) light. 15 It is not then a great (thing) if his ministers also change themselves into (the) form of ministers of [the] righteousness, these whose end will be according to their works.

16 Again I say, lest by any means one should think of me, that I am foolish,—nay, even though as foolish receive me, that which he heareth from me. 7 And in (the) abundance of the revelations, therefore, that I should not exalt myself, a piercing thorn was given in my flesh, namely (ⲛ̄ϫⲉ) an angel of Satan that he might buffet me, that I should not exalt myself. 8 I prayed the Lord three times about this, that he might depart from me. 9 And he said to me: 'It is sufficient for thee with (ⲉ) this grace: for my power was completed in the weakness.' It is pleasing to me then rather to boast myself in the weaknesses, that the power of Christ may be upon me. 10 Therefore I am well pleased in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in tribulations for Christ: for if I should be weak, then I take courage. 11 I became foolish: ye (pron.) compelled me; for I (pron.) ought (imperf.) [a] to have been commended by you: for I was not deficient in anything in comparison with (ⲉϩⲟⲧⲉ) the apostles who surpass. If indeed I (am) nothing. 12 But (ⲇⲉ) the signs of the apostleship were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and powers.

13 For what is that in which ye were deficient as regards
(the) rest of the churches, except that I (pron.) was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrongdoing. 14 This is (the) third time [a] that I am ready to come to you; and I shall not be burdensome to you: for I was not seeking for yours, but (ⲁ) for you: for the children ought not to lay up (lit. throw in) for the fathers, but (ⲁ) the fathers for the children. 15 But I (pron.) am well pleased to spend and to overspend for your souls, if I love you more I am loved myself the less (lit. a little). 16 But be it (so), I (pron.) put not burden upon you, but (ⲁ) being crafty I took you with [a] subtlety. 17 Saw ye one of them whom I sent to you, through whom I did you wrong?
18 I besought Titos, and I sent the other brother with him.
Did Titos wrong you at all? Walked we not in the same spirit? Are they not the same steps? 19 Again, (ⲕⲉ ϫⲉⲙ) ye think that we answer you. Before God we speak in Christ.

But all things, my beloved, for your edifying. 20 But I fear lest by any means, should I come, I may find you as your own selves, whether (ϫⲉ) ye are in the faith; prove your own selves. Or know ye not that Christ Jesus is in you, except perhaps that ye (are) reprobates? 6 But I hope that ye will know that we (are) not reprobates.

to Damascos. [18] Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Kēpha, and I stayed with him fifteen days.
[19] But another of the apostles I saw not, except James (the) brother of the Lord. [20] But the things which I write to you, behold, before God, that I say not falsehood. [21] But after these things I came to the parts of [the] Syria and [the] Kylikia. [22] But the churches of [the] Judea, which were in Christ, were not knowing me in my face: [23] but only they were wont to hear, that he who was persecuting us once (ⲡⲓ), now preacheth good tidings of the faith which he was devastating once (ⲟⲩ); [24] and they were glorifying God in me.

Barnabas; but I took Titos also with me. 2 But I went up according to a revelation, and I laid before them the Gospel, which I proclaim among the Gentiles; but apart to them who[a] were thought (much of), lest by any means I ran vainly, or was running. 3 But (ⲁ) neither Titos even (ⲕⲉ)[b] who was with me, being a Greek, could be compelled to be circumcised.
4 But because of the false brethren who came in to spy out our freedom, this which we have in Christ, that they might make us servants: 5 these in whose subjection we stayed not for an hour; that the truth of the Gospel might be permanent with you. 6 But from them who think that they (lit. we) are (something); as to (ⲙ̄ⲙ̄) the manner of which they once were being, it makes not any difference to me: God accepteth not person of man. For they, who think that they (lit. we) are something, added not anything to me: 7 but (ⲁ) on[c] the contrary, having seen that I was entrusted with the Gospel of the uncircumcision, according as Peter was entrusted with that of the circumcision. 8 For he who worked in Peter unto an apostleship of (the) circumcision worked in me also unto the Gentiles. 9 And having known the grace which is given to me, James and Kēphas by nature Jews, and not of the Gentiles, sinners. 16 We are knowing that the man will not be justified from the works of the law, except from (the) faith of Jesus Christ; and we also believed Christ Jesus, that we might be justified from (the) faith of Christ, not from the works of the law: because from the works of the law will no[a] flesh be justified.

17 But if, seeking for being justified in Christ, we also were found to be (lit. being) sinners, then Christ is a minister of (the) sin. It shall not be. 18 For if the things which I pulled down, these again I build, I prove myself (a) transgressor. 19 For I (pron.) through [a] law died to the law, that I might live with God. I was crucified with Christ; 20 I live; no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: but that in which I live now in (the) flesh, I lived in the faith of (the) Son of God, he (lit. this) who loved me, and he gave himself for me. 21 I shall (lit. will) not reject the grace of God.

'All the Gentiles shall be blessed in thee.' 9 Wherefore they (who are) from (the) faith will be blessed with the faithful Abraam. 10 For all who are (ϣⲟⲡ) from the works of the law, are (ⲭⲏ) under (the) curse: for it is written: 'Cursed is every one who will not stay in (ⲉ) all the things which are written on (the) book of this law unto (the) doing them.' 11 Because in the works of the law no one will be justified with God. It is manifested, that the righteous is to live from (the) faith. 12 But the law is not from the faith; but (ⲁ) he who will do them, shall live in them. 13 Christ bought us from (the) curse of the law, having become a curse for us: for it is written: 'Cursed is every one who hangeth on (the) tree[a]:' 14 that (the) blessing of Abraam might be among the Gentiles in Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the spirit through (the) faith.

a covenant of a man, should it be confirmed, no one rejecteth it, nor add they fresh ordinance. 16 But promises were promised to Abraam and his seed. He was not saying: 'And his seeds,' as about many; but (ⲁ̇) as about one: 'And thy seed,' which is Christ. 17 But this I say, that a covenant having been confirmed before by God, (the) law which happened after four hundred (and) thirty years dissolveth it not, to cause it to do away with the promise. 18 For if the inheritance is from (the) law, then it is no more from a promise: but God granted (it)[a] to Abraam through a promise. 19 What then is (the) law? It was given (ϫⲁϥ) because of the transgressions, until the seed should come, to whom he promised; having been ordained through angels, in (the) hand of a mediator: 20 but the mediator is not of (ⲫⲁ) one, but God is one. 21 (The) law then was against the promises of God. It shall not be: for if law had been given, it being possible for it to give life, certainly [the] righteousness would have been[b] from the law. 22 But (ⲁ̇) (the) Scripture shut (up) everything in (the) sin, that the promise through (the) faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them who believe. ²³ Before the faith came we were being kept under the law, being shut (up) unto the faith which cometh to be revealed. ²⁴ Wherefore the law guided us to Christ, that we might be justified from (the) faith.

²⁵ But the faith having come, we are no more under a guide. ²⁶ For ye all are sons of God, through (the) faith, in Christ Jesus. ²⁷ For ye all, namely they who were baptised in Christ, clothe you with Christ. ²⁸ There is not Jew nor Greek, there is not servant nor free, there is not male nor female: for ye all are one in Christ. ²⁹ If ye (are) they of Christ, then ye (are) they of (the) seed of Abraam, according to the promise ye (are) heirs. IV. I say that as long as the heir is a little child there is not any difference between (ⲙ̅) him and a servant, though he be (lit. being) lord of all things. ² But (ⲇⲉ) he was under guardians and stewards unto the term of his father. ³ Thus we also, when we were children, were being (ϫⲏ) under the elements of the world, being servants to them: 4 but when (the) fulness of the time came, God sent his Son, having become under a woman, having become under the law, 5 that he might buy them who are under the law, that we might receive the sonship. 6 But because ye (are) sons, God sent the spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying out: 'Abba, (the) Father.' 7 Wherefore thou (art) no more a servant, but (ⲇⲉ) a son; but if a son, then an heir also through God.

8 But (ⲇⲉ) at that time indeed not knowing God, ye were servants to them by nature who are not gods: 9 but now ye knew God, but rather God knew you; how return ye again into the feeble and poor elements to which ye wish to be servants another time? 10 Having observed days and months and times and years; 11 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I toiled for you in vain. 12 Become as I (am), because I also (am) as ye (are).

My brethren, I beseech you, ye did me not any wrong:

TO EPHESIANS. V. 1.

I. Paul, (the) apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, to all the saints who are in Ephesos, and faithful who (are) in Christ Jesus. 2 (The) grace to you and (the) peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. 3 Blessed is God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who blessed us in all spiritual blessing in the (places) of the heavens in Christ.
4 According as he chose us in him before (the) foundation of the world, that we might be holy, being stainless before him in [a] love: 5 he having foreordained us unto [a] sonship through Jesus Christ into him, according to the good pleasure of his will, 6 unto a praise of (the) glory of his

(are) no more strangers and sojourners, but (ⲁ) fellow citizens of the saints, and they of the household of God, [20] built upon the foundation of the apostles and the prophets, Christ Jesus being head corner stone unto it; [21] he (lit. this) in whom the whole building constructed[a] will grow unto a holy temple in the Lord; [22] he (lit. this) in whom ye also are sharing in being built unto a dwelling-place of God in the spirit.

III. Therefore I Paul, [b]the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you, namely the Gentiles, [2] if ye heard the dispensation of the grace of God which is given to me unto you: [3] that according to a revelation the mystery was shown to me, to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and the length and the height and the depth, [19] to know the love, which exceedeth (the) knowledge of Christ[d], that ye may be completed in all the completion of God, [20] for whom it is possible to do more than all things abundantly (more)

[a] Lit. 'of from first of,' var. 'which from first of.' [b] Lit. 'they say (the) name.' [c] Cf. Luke ii. 4. [d] ⲛ̄ⲧⲉ is correct after ⲧ︦, and ⲙ̄ after ⲛ, and ⲉ is more usual (Matt. v. 20) after ⲉⲣϩⲟⲩⲟ; therefore the Greek seems wrongly rendered 'the love, which aboundeth, of (the) knowledge of Christ.'

21 His (ⲫⲱϥ) is the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto all the generations of (the) age of the ages. Amēn.

IV. I beseech you then, I the prisoner in the Lord, to walk according to (the) worthiness of the calling to which ye were called, 2 in all humbleness of heart and [a] meekness and [a] longsuffering, Bearing with one another in [a] love; 3 hastening to keep the oneness of the spirit and the bond which is complete, of [the] peace. 4 One body and one spirit, according as ye were called in one hope of your calling: 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism.
6 One is God the Father of all, who is upon all, and through all, and in all: 7 but to each one of us was given a grace according to (the) measure of the free gift of Christ.

into him, who himself is the head, Christ; 16 he (lit. this) to whom the whole body is united and it is (ⲁϥ) rationally consistent through all the joints of the supplies, according to the working in a measure of each one of the members; (and) maketh the growth of the body unto a building for him (ⲛⲁϥ) in [a] love. 17 But this I say, and I witness in the Lord, for you not to walk any more as the Gentiles walk in [a] vanity of their heart, 18 darkened in their thought, being strange to the life of God because of the ignorance which is in them, because of the hardening of their heart; 19 these who were without feeling (ⲙ̅ⲙⲕⲁϩ) gave themselves up to [a] defilement unto a work of all un-cleanness in [a] wrongdoing. 20 But ye (are) they who have not been thus taught Christ; 21 if ye heard him, and were taught in him, according as [a] truth which is (ϫⲏ) in Jesus: 22 that ye also may put away (lit. down) your former walk (of life), the old man, which will perish according to the lusts of the deceit; 23 but that ye may become new in the spirit of your heart, 24 and clothe you with the new man, which was created according to God in [a] righteousness and [a] holiness of (the) truth. 25 Therefore put away (lit. down) [the] falsehood, speak (the) truth each one with his neighbour: because we (are) members of one another.

26 Be angry, and sin not: 27 cause not (the) sun to set upon your wrath: neither give place to the devil. 28 He who stealeth let him not steal any more; but rather let him toil, working with (ⲛ̄) his hands the good, that he may find to give to him who is in want. 29 All evil words, cause them not to come from your mouth, but (ⲁ) the good unto [an] edification of the need, that it may give [a] grace to them who hear. 30 And grieve not the holy spirit of God in which[a] ye were sealed unto the day of the redemption.

31 All bitterness, and all wrath, and all anger, and all crying out, and all blasphemy, take away from you, and (ⲛⲉⲙ) all malice. 32 Be ye kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another according as God forgave you in Christ.

their (lit. her) name among you, according as it is worthy against the authorities, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual things of the evil in the (places) of the heavens. 13 Therefore take to you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand in the evil day, having done all things, (to) stand[a]. 14 Stand, then, girding your loins in [a] truth, and clothe you with the breast-plate of the righteousness; 15 put (lit. give) the shoe to your feet in (the) preparation of the Gospel of the peace. 16 And in all things take to you the shield of the faith, this in which ye will be able to quench all the fiery[b] arrows of the evil.

17 And take to you the helmet of the salvation, and the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God: 18 through all supplication and prayer, praying always in the spirit, and watching unto this in all perseverance and all prayer for all the saints, 19 and for me also, That a word may be given to me in (the) opening my mouth in [a] boldness, to manifest the mystery of the Gospel, 20 this for which I am an ambassador in a chain; that I may speak boldly[a] in it, according as it is right for me that I should speak.

21 But that ye also may know concerning me, what I do, Tikhikos, the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall show to you all things: 22 he (lit. this) whom I sent to you for this thing, That ye may know the things which happen to me, and that he may comfort your hearts. 23 [The] peace to the brethren, and [a] love with [a] faith, from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.
24 (The) grace with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in [an] uncorruptness.

To Ephesians, it was written in Rome:
(it) was sent by Tikhikos.

TO PHILIPPIANS. VI. 1.

I. Paul and Timotheos, the servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints who are in Christ Jesus who are (ϣⲟⲡ) in Philippois, with the bishops and the deacons: 2 (the) grace to you and (the) peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. 3 I give thanks to my God for all your remembrance 4 which I make always in all my prayers for you all in [a] joy making the prayer 5 for your fellowship which was with (ⲙ̅ⲙ) the Gospel from the first day up to now; 6 being persuaded about this, that he who began in you will complete a good work unto the day of Jesus Christ.
7 According as it is a righteous work for me to think this about you all, because that ye are in my heart; and in my bonds, and in my defence and (the) confirmation of the Gospel ye all are sharing the grace with me. 8 For God is my witness, how I love you all in the tender mercies of Jesus Christ. 9 And this is that concerning which I pray, that your love yet more and more may abound in (the) knowledge and all discernment; 10 to cause you to prove the things which are profitable; that ye might be sincere and offenceless unto (the) day of Christ; 11 and being full of fruit of [the] righteousness which is (lit. the) through Jesus Christ, unto [a] glory and [an] honour of God.

12 But I wish to cause you to know, my brethren, that the things which happened to me came more unto an advance of the Gospel; 13 so that my bonds became manifested in all the chosen: 24 but the abiding in (the) flesh is more necessary because of you. 25 And (of) this being persuaded, I know that I shall (lit. will) stay, and I shall (lit. will) abide with (lit. to) you all, unto your advance and (the) joy of the faith; 26 that your boast may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my coming to you again. 27 Only behave as citizens worthily of the Gospel of Christ: that, should I come and see you, or being not with you, I may hear concerning you, that ye stand in one spirit, one soul, sharing toil in the faith of the Gospel; 28 and not frightened in anything by them who are against you; these whose manifestation is [a] destruction to them, but to you is [a] be blameless and harmless children of God, Holy in (the) midst of a generation bent and perverse, among whom ye are manifested as luminaries in the world, [16] laying hold on the word of (the) life, unto a boast for me at (the) day of Christ; that I was not running emptily, nor toiled I unto that which is empty.

[17] But (ⲇⲉ) if I shall (lit. will) even be poured out as a libation upon the sacrifice and the ministering of your faith, I rejoice and I share in rejoicing with you all:
[18] but in this rejoice ye also and share in rejoicing with me.
[19] But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send to you Timotheos quickly, that I also may be at rest in my heart[a] should I know concerning your state.
[20] For there is not any (other) of mine agreeable to my soul who will take care for you (lit. take your care) sincerely.

[25] But I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditos, the brother and the fellow-worker and my fellow-soldier, but being apostle to you and minister of my need; [26] since he was loving to see you all, and he was grieving, because that ye heard that he was sick: [27] for indeed (ⲕⲉ) he was sick until he was near unto (the) death.

And God had mercy on him; but not only on him, but (ⲁ) on me also, that I might not take grief upon grief again. [28] More hastily, then, I sent him, that, should ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I also may be without grief. [29] Receive him, then, in the Lord in all joy; and let such be honoured by you: [30] because concerning the work of the Lord he was near up to (the) death, having risked his life, that he might fill up your deficiency of the service, which befell (ϭⲓ) me.

rubbish[a], that I might gain Christ, 9 and be found in him, not having my righteousness, that (lit. the) from the law, but (ⲁ) that from[b] (the) faith of Christ, But the righteousness [the] from God upon (the) faith: 10 to cause me to know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his pains, changing myself into form with his death; 11 that perhaps I may attain unto (the) resurrection of the dead. 12 Not that I have obtained (ϭⲓ), or I was already completed: but I run, that perhaps I may apprehend in that (lit. this) in which I was apprehended by Jesus Christ. 13 My brethren, I (pron.) think not of myself that I have apprehended: but one (thing),—I am forgetting indeed the things behind, but I am stretching myself unto the things before 14 with (ⲕⲁⲧⲁ) an expectation I am running for the palm of the high[c] calling of God which is in Christ Jesus. 15 Let every one who is completed think this of himself: and if ye think another thing in another way, this also will God reveal to you:

16 nevertheless that unto which we reached, with this let us be consistent. 17 Be ye sharers of likeness to me, my brethren, and look at them who walk thus, according as we are an example to you. 18 For there are many (who) walked, these concerning whom I said to you many times, and now again weeping I say—the enemies of the cross of Christ: 19 these whose end is (the) destruction, these whose god is their belly; and their glory was in a shame: these who think the things of (the) earth. 20 For our (pron.) citizenship was in the heavens; and from there we look forward to our saviour, our Lord Jesus Christ: 21 who will change (the) body of our humiliation in conformity with (the) body of his glory, according to the working to have power and to make all things subject to him.

IV. Wherefore, my brethren dear and beloved, my joy and my crown, thus stand in the Lord, my beloved.
2 Euodia I beseech and Syntychē to think the same thing in the Lord. 3 Yea, I beseech thee also, [the] [a] chosen be with you. 10 But I rejoiced greatly in the Lord that now ye put forth [a]at length a thought concerning me; in that which ye thought, but the time was not being favourable[b] to you. 11 Not that I said (it) with reference to (ⲕⲁⲧⲁ) a being in want: for I (pron.) knew, in the things in which I am, to be content. 12 I know how to (ⲛ̄) be humiliated, I know how to (ⲛ̄) abound in everything; I am taught also (ⲛⲉⲙ) in them all both (ⲛⲉⲙ) to be satisfied and to hunger, both (ⲛⲉⲙ) to abound and to be in want. 13 I have power in everything by (lit. in) him who encourageth me. 14 Nevertheless ye did (ⲁⲣⲉⲧ.) well, having shared in my tribulation. 15 But ye know also [the] Philippians, that in (the) beginning of the Gospel, I having come from (the) Makedonia, none among the churches shared with me in a receiving and a giving except you only; 16 Because in Thessalonikē also once and twice[c] ye sent to me for my need. 17 Not that I sought for the gift; but (ⲁ) I sought for the fruit which aboundeth unto your work. 18 But I received all things, and I abounded: I was filled, having received from Epaphroditos the things Gospel. 6 This which is (ϣⲟⲛ) in you; according as also it is in all the world, bearing fruit and growing, according as also in you, from the day which ye heard and ye knew the grace of God in [a] truth; 7 according as ye knew from Epaphra the beloved fellow servant of ours, who is a faithful minister of Christ for you. 8 He (lit. this) who showed to us your love in the spirit. 9 Therefore we also, from the day which we heard, cease not praying for you and request- ing, that ye might be filled with (the) knowledge (ⲥⲟⲩⲉⲛ) of his will in all wisdom, and all spiritual understanding, 10 walking worthily[a] of the Lord in all pleasing of him in all good works, sending forth fruit, and growing in the knowledge (ⲉⲙⲓ) of God; 11 being empowered with all power, according to (the) strength of his glory, in all patience and [a] longsuffering in [a] joy. 12 Giving thanks to the Father, he (lit. this) who made us worthy of coming into the portion of the lot of the saints in (the) light; 13 he (ⲫⲁⲓ) who saved us from (the) authority of (the) darkness, and he removed us into the kingdom of (the) Son of his love; 14 he (ⲫⲁⲓ) through whom we received the redemption, the forgiveness of our sins: 15 who is (the) image of God, the invisible, the firstborn of all (ⲛⲓⲃⲉⲛ) creation.

16 Because in him all things were created, those which are in the heavens and those which are upon (the) earth, those which are seen and those which are not seen, whether the thrones, or the dominions, or the governments, or the authorities; all things became through him, and they were created unto him; 17 and he (it is) who is before all things, and all things stand in him. 18 And he is (the) head of the body of the church: who himself is the beginning as (ⲛ̄) firstborn from them who are dead; that he might be first in all things.
19 Because in him the whole fulness was pleased to dwell [in him]; 20 and through him to reconcile all things unto him[a], having made them at (ⲛ̄) peace through the blood of his cross; through him (or 'it'), whether the things which faith which is in Christ. 6 As then ye received Christ Jesus, walk in him, 7 taking (ϭⲉ) root, and building yourselves in him, and being confirmed in the faith, according as ye were instructed, abounding in it in [a] thanksgiving.

8 See, then, lest by any means there is he who robbeth you through a philosophy and a vain deceit, according to the traditions of the men, according to the elements of the world, and not according to Christ: 9 because in him dwelleth all the fulness of the divinity bodily, 10 and ye are filled with him[a], Who himself is (the) head of all government and all authority: 11 he (ⲫⲁⲓ) in whom ye were circumcised in a circumcision not made with hand, in (the) stripping off of (the) body of the flesh, in (the) circumcision of Christ; 12 having been buried with him in the baptism, this in which ye rose with him also through the faith of the working of God, he (ⲫⲁⲓ) who raised him from them who are dead. 13 And ye also being dead in your transgressions and the uncircumcision with Christ from the elements of the world, why reckon ye yourselves as those[a] living in the world? 21 Take not, nor taste, nor approach 22 to all things which are (ⲭⲏ) for (the) destruction, so as not to use them: according to the orders and the teaching of [the] men; 23 which are things in which there is a show[b] indeed of [a] wisdom in (the) wish of a service, and a humbleness of heart, and an unsparingness of (ⲉ) the body, not in [an] honour, in [a] satisfying of (the) flesh.

III. If then ye rose with Christ, seek for the things above the place in which Christ was, sitting on the right hand of God. 2 Think of the things above, not those which are upon (the) earth. 3 For ye died, and your life (is) hidden with Christ in God. 4 If Christ should be manifested, your life, then ye also are being manifested with him in [a] glory.
5 Kill your members which are upon the earth; [the] fornication, [the] uncleanness, [the] passion, [the] evil desire, between one and another (lit. one); according as Christ forgave you, thus ye also: 14 but upon all these things [the] love which is the girdle of [the] completeness. 15 And the peace of Christ let it be established in your hearts, this unto which ye were called in one body; And be ye thankful. 16 The word of the Lord let it dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and instructing your-always for you in his prayers, that ye may stand complete and full in the will of God. 13 For I witness of him, that he hath a great grief for you, and them who are in Laodikia, and them who are in Jerapolis. 14 Saluteth you Loukas the beloved physician, and Dēmas. 15 Salute the brethren who are in Laodikia and Nimphan, and the church of their house. 16 And if this epistle should be read with you, let it be read in the church of Laodikia, and (the epistle) from Laodikia (see) that ye (pron.) may read it. 17 And say to Archēppos: 'Look forth to the ministry which thou receivedst in the Lord, that thou fill it.' 18 My salutation in my own hand, Paul. Remember my bonds. (The) grace with you.

To Kolassais, it was written in Athēnnas: it was sent by Tychikos and Onēsimos and Markos.

TO THESSALONIKĒ 1. VIII. 1.

I. Paul and Silouanos and Timotheos to the church of Thessalonikē in God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ:
(the) grace to you and (the) peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. 2 We give thanks to God always for you all, remembering you in our prayers unfailingly, 3 remembering (the) work of your faith and (the) toil of the love and the patience and the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before God and our Father; 4 knowing, our brethren whom God loved, your election, 5 because our Gospel came (ϣⲱⲡⲓ) not to you in (the) word only, but (ⲁ) in wrath which cometh. II. For ye (pron.) know, our brethren, our entering which we had (ϣⲱⲡⲓ) to you, that it was not empty: 2 but (ⲁ) we suffered before and we were insulted, according as ye know, namely (ϫⲉ) in Philip-pois: we were emboldened[a] in our God to speak to you the Gospel of God in a great conflict. 3 For our exhortation was not from [an] error, nor from [an] uncleanness, nor from [a] subtlety: 4 but (ⲁ) according as we were approved by God to be entrusted with the Gospel, thus we speak.

Not as some, pleasing [the] men, but (ⲁ) God who approveth our hearts. 5 For neither were we ever found (ϣⲱⲡⲓ) in [a] word of flattery, according as ye know, nor in an excuse for (ⲛ̄) a wrongdoing, God witnesseth; 6 nor were we seeking for glory from [the] men, nor of (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉⲛ) you, nor of others, 7 it being possible for us to be for (ϧⲁ) a burden as apostles of Christ. But (ⲁ) we became little children in your midst, as a nurse cherishing her children: 8 thus being greatly in love of you, we were well pleased to give to you not only the Gospel of God, but (ⲁ) also our souls, because that ye were to us beloved. 9 For remember, our brethren, our toil and our pain: working by night and day, that we might not add burden upon one of you, we proclaimed among you the Gospel of God. 10 Ye (are they) who witness, and God, that holily and righteously and unblameably we were to you, namely those who believe. 11 According as ye know that as a father beseecheth his children, 12 thus we are beseeching each one of you and exhorting you and witnessing, that ye walk worthy of God, he (ⲫⲁⲓ) who called you into his kingdom and his glory.

13 And therefore we also give thanks to God unceasingly, that, having received the word of (the) hearing of God through us, ye received it not as a word of man, but (ⲁ) as (ⲛⲓⲣⲏϯ) truly being (ⲡⲉ) a word of God, which is that which worketh in you, namely those who believe. 14 For ye, our brethren, became like to the churches of God which are in [the] Joudēa in Christ Jesus: because ye also received

(lit. two); and Satan prevented me. [19] For what (ⲛⲓⲙ) is our hope or our joy or (the) crown of our boast? Are not ye before our Lord Jesus in his coming? [20] For ye are our glory and our joy. III. Therefore not being able to stay, we were well pleased to be left alone in Athēnnas; [2] and we sent our brother Timotheos to you, and minister of God in the Gospel of Christ, to confirm you and pray set for this thing: 4 for even when (ⲓⲥϫⲉⲛ) we were with you, we were beforehand in saying to you that we shall (lit. will) be oppressed; according as it came to pass and ye know (ⲉⲙⲙⲓ). 5 Therefore I also am unable to be long-suffering, I sent to know your faith, lest by any means he who tempteth tempted you, and your toil became empty.

6 But now Timotheos having come to me from with you, and having said to us (the) good tidings of your faith and your love, and that our good remembrance (is) in you, loving to see us, according as is with us also unto you; 7 therefore we were consoled about you, our brethren, for all your necessity and all your tribulation through your faith: 8 because now we live, should ye stand in the Lord. 9 For what thanksgiving is it possible for us to give in return to the Lord for all the joy with which we rejoice for you be meek, and to work your own things, and to work with your hands according as we ordered you; [12] that ye may walk seemly before them who are without, and have not need of anything.

[13] But we wish you not to be (lit. being) ignorant, our brethren, concerning them who sleep; that ye may not grieve as (the) rest also who have not hope. [14] For if we believe that Jesus died and he rose, thus they who slept through Jesus, God will bring them with him. [15] For this we said to you in (the) word of the Lord, that we, namely they who are alive, who will be left (ⲥⲉⲡⲓ) unto (the) coming of the Lord shall not [a] precede them who slept. [16] Because the Lord himself with command, with a voice of archangel and a trumpet of God, shall come down from (the) heaven, and the dead who are in Christ shall rise first: [17] afterwards we, namely they who are alive, who will be left, shall be caught up with them together in clouds, that we may meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall be with the Lord always.

according as also ye do. 12 But we beseech you, our brethren, to know them who toil among you, and those who are (ϫⲏ) before you in the Lord, and those who instruct you; 13 and esteem them the more in [a] love because of their work.
Be at peace among yourselves. 14 We beseech you, our brethren, instruct the unruly, comfort the faint[b] hearted, support[c] them who are weak, be longsuffering to all. 15 Take heed, let not one do (lit. give an) evil to another (lit. one) in God, this for which ye suffer. [6] If it is a righteous judgement of God to recompense [an] affliction to them who afflict you, [7] and ye, namely they who are afflicted, to give [a] rest to you with us, in the revelation of our Lord Jesus from (the) heaven with the angels of his power [8] in a flame of fire, about to take vengeance on them who knew not God, and who obeyed not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus; [9] these who will receive a judgement of eternal destruction from before (the) face of the Lord and from before (the) glory of his power, [10] whenever he should come, being about to be glorified in the saints of his, To be wondered at in all who believed, because our witnessing to you was believed, in that day: [11] which is that concerning which we pray always for you, that our God may make us worthy of the calling, and complete all good pleasure of [the] goodness, and a work of (the) faith in [a] power. [12] That (the) name of the Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye [15] So then, our brethren, stand, and lay hold on the traditions which ye were taught, whether through [a] word or through an epistle of ours. [16] But our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, he (ⲫⲁⲓ) who loved us, and he gave to us an eternal[b] comfort, and a good hope in [a] grace, [17] he shall comfort your hearts, and he shall confirm you in every work and every good word.

III. Finally, our brethren, pray for us, that (the) word of the Lord may run and be glorified, according as also it happeneth among you; [2] that we may be saved from the evil and wicked men; for (the) faith is not possessed by (ⲫⲁ) all. [3] But the Lord is faithful, he (ⲫⲁⲓ) who will confirm you, and he shall keep you from the evil. [4] But we are persuaded in the Lord about you, that ye do the things which we order you, and ye shall do them. [5] But (the) Lord shall direct your hearts in the love of God and the patience of Christ. 6 But we order you, our brethren, in (the) name of our Lord Jesus Christ to keep away from every brother who walketh unruly, and not according to the things which we delivered unto them. 7 For ye (pron.) know how ye ought to be like to us: because we were not unruly among you; 8 neither ate we [a] bread without cost of (any) one, but (ⲁ.) in [a] toil and [a] pain working in the day and the night, that we might not add burden to one of you: 9 not that we have not authority, but (ⲁ.) that we might give ourselves to you as (an) example, that ye might be like to us. 10 For even when (ⲓⲥϫⲉⲛ) we were with you, this we were ordering you, that he who wisheth not to work, neither let him even eat. 11 For we hear concerning some among you, walking unruly, and not working at all, but (ⲁ.) being busybodies. 12 But such, we order them, and we beseech in the Lord Jesus, that in [a] meekness doing their work, they may eat their bread. 13 But ye, our brethren, be not weary of doing the good. 14 If there is one disobedient to our word through the epistles, mark [a] this (one)

TO HEBREWS. X. CH. 1.

I. In many (ⲑⲟ) manners and many (ⲙⲏϣ) forms from
(the) beginning God spake to our fathers from the prophets, 2 but at (the) end of these days he spake to us in a Son, he (ⲫⲁⲓ) whom he appointed (ϫⲁϥ) heir of all, and through him he made the ages; 3 who himself is the splendour of his glory, and (the) form of his substance, upholding (the) universe by (ϧⲉⲛ) (the) word of his power.
Through him he made a cleansing of the sins. He sat on the right hand of the greatness on high[a]; 4 having become better[b] than the angels by so much, as he inherited a name he who made all things is God. 5 And Moses indeed is faithful in all his house as a servant unto a witnessing of the things which are spoken; 6 but Christ as a Son over his house; whose house are we, if we should lay hold on the boldness[a] and the boast of the hope firm[b] unto the end.

7 According as the holy spirit saith: 'To-day, if ye should hear his voice, 8 let not your hearts harden, as in the anger, according to the day of the temptation in (the) desert, 9 that in which your fathers tempted me in a probation; they saw my works 10 forty years. Therefore I hated that generation, and I said that they go astray in their heart always: but they (pron.) knew not my ways; 11 as I sware come short. 2 For good tidings were preached to us also as to those, but (ⲁ) the word of the hearing profited those not, because they were not persuaded in the faith with those who heard. 3 We shall (lit. will) then go into the rest, namely they who believed, according as he said: 'As I sware in mine anger, "Shall they go into my rest?"' although the works were done from (the) foundation of the world. 4 For he said thus in a place concerning the seventh day: 'God rested in the seventh day from all his works'; 5 and in this (place) again: 'Will they go into my rest?' 6 Since then he leaveth some to come into it, and the first to whom good tidings were preached went not in because of their unbelief, 7 again he ordaineth a day, to-day, in David, after so much time, saying according as he said from (the) first: 'To-day, if ye should hear his voice, let not your hearts harden.' 8 For had Jēsou made them rest, he would not have spoken[a] concerning another day after these things. [9] So then a keeping of Sabbath is left to the people of God. [10] For he (ⲫⲁⲓ) who came into his rest, himself also rested from his works, as God rested from his own. [11] Let us hasten then to come into that rest, that one may not fall down in the same form of the disobedience. [12] For the word of God is faithful, and it worketh, and it is sharper than every sword of two edges (lit. mouth), and it goeth in up to the dividing of the soul and the spirit, and the joints and the marrow, and it is searching for the reasonings and the thoughts of heart. [13] And there is not any creature hidden before him, but all are naked, and they are with bare neck before his eyes, he (ⲫⲁⲓ) unto whom the word reacheth for us.

[14] Having then a great high priest who passed (through) the heavens, Jesus (the) Son of God, let us lay hold on the confession. [15] For (it is) not an high priest which we have, for whom it is not possible to suffer with our weaknesses; but (one) who was tempted in everything according to our form, without sin. [16] Let us come in boldly before the throne of the grace, that we may receive [a] mercy and find [a] grace for an occasion of help. V. For every high priest who is taken from [the] men, they set him up for [the] men with God, that he may offer gift and sacrifice for the sins; 2 (one) for whom it is possible to suffer in a measure with the ignorant and who are gone astray, because himself also is (ⲭⲏ) in [a] weakness; 3 and because of it it is meet for him, according as he offereth for the things of the people, thus also that he should offer for his own sins. 4 And (any) one taketh not the honour to himself, but (ⲁ) God called him according as Aaron.

5 Thus also Christ glorified not himself, to be made (an) high priest, but (ⲁ) he it is who spake to him: 'Thou art my Son, I (pron.) begat thee to-day.' 6 According as he saith in another place: 'Thou art (the) priest for ever, according to (the) order of Melchisedek.' 7 He (ⲫⲁⲓ) who offered in the days of his flesh prayers and supplications to him for whom it was possible to save him from (the) death; with a strong cry and (ⲛⲉⲙ) tears having offered them:

speech: [10] for God is not a wrongdoer, that he should forget your work and (the) toil of your love, this which ye manifested in his name, having ministered to the saints, and ye minister still (ⲟⲛ). [11] But we wish that each one of you may manifest the same diligence in (the) fulfilment of this hope unto (the) last: [12] that ye be not weak, but that ye be like to them who inherited the promises through (the) faith and [the] longsuffering. [13] For God having promised to Abraam, since there was not another exalted (one) to swear by him, he sware by (ⲙ̄ⲙ) himself, [14] saying: 'In a blessing I shall (lit. will) bless thee, and in a multiplying I shall (lit. will) cause thy seed to multiply.' [15] And thus having suffered long he[a] obtained the promise. [16] For indeed [the] men swear by (ⲛⲁϩⲣⲉⲛ) the greater than them: and (the) finishing of all controversy (for) a confirmation to them is the oath. [17] But in this, God wishing the more to show to the heirs of the promise the immoveability of his counsel, mediated in an oath: [18] that, through two

Abraam, and he blessed him who had the promises. [7] But without all controversy the little is blessed by the greater than him. [8] And here men who die receive tenths; but there it is witnessed of him that he liveth. [9] And as to say a word, because of Abraam, [a] Levi also indeed, who was (to) receive tenths, gave (a) tenth; [10] for he was yet in the priesthood of the Levite; for law was given to the people [a] in its time; then what was (the) need for there to be another priest according to (the) order of Melchisedek, and not to say, 'According to (the) order of Aaron?' 12 For the priesthood being about to be removed, necessarily there is a removing of the law also. 13 For he concerning whom these things are said belonged to[b] another tribe, that (lit. this) from which no one attended at the altar. 14 For it is manifest from (the) first, that our Lord sprang from Jouda; that tribe from which Moses said not anything concerning priest. 15 And it is yet even the more manifested, if according to (the) form of Melchisedek will arise another priest. 16 He (ⲫⲁⲓ) who was made not according to a law of a carnal commandment, but (ⲁ) according to a power of an indissoluble life. 17 For it is witnessed of him: 'Thou art (the) priest for ever, according to (the) order of Melchisedek.' 18 For indeed there will be a rejection of the first commandment because of its weakness and its unprofitableness, 19 for the law completed not anything.

A way of coming in is this, of a better (lit. chosen) hope, this through which we shall (lit. will) draw near unto God; 20 and according as it is not without oath. For those indeed were made priest without oath, 21 but this one indeed (ⲛ̄ⲑⲟϥ) with (ⲛ̄) an oath through him who saith to him: 'The Lord sware and shall not repent, "Thou art (the) priest for ever."' 22 According to so much was made Jesus (the) surety of a better (lit. chosen) covenant which was established with (ⲛ̄) law upon better (chosen) promises. 23 And they indeed were made priest, being many (of them), because (the) death was not letting them stay. 24 But this (one) because he will stay for ever received the priesthood without passing to another. 25 Therefore it is possible for him to save always them who come to God through him. Living always to intercede for them. 26 For an high priest of this kind was being comely for us, honourable, without evil, undefiled, separated from the sinners; and he was exalted above the heavens.

27 He (ⲫⲁⲓ) for whom there is not [given] necessity (to offer) daily as the high priests who offer sacrifice first for their own sins, after it they offer for those of the people: for this he did, having offered himself once. 28 For the law appointeth (ϫⲱ) men as high priest, they having weakness; but the word of the oath, this which was after the law, setteth up a Son completed for ever. VIII. But (the) summing up[a] of the things which we say (is this). For an high priest of this kind we have, he who sat (down) at the right hand of the throne of the greatness in the heavens, 2 as minister of the holy things, and of the true tabernacle which the Lord made firm, and not man. 3 For every high priest is appointed (ϫⲁ) to offer gift and sacrifice: therefore it is necessary for there to be something for this (one) to offer. 4 If indeed then he was being on (the) earth, then he would (lit. was) not be a priest, there being those who offer gift according to the law; 5 these who minister in ark of the covenant, covered with gold on every side. In which (are) the golden pot, the manna being in it, and the staff of Aaron which bloomed, and the tables of the covenant; 5 but above it cherubims of (the) glory shadowing over the mercy-seat, these which are not at present[a] to be spoken of severally; 6 but these being thus set in order[b]. The first tabernacle indeed the priests go into it always, completing the ministries; 7 but to the second once a year the high priest alone, not without blood, this which he offereth for himself, and for the ignorances of the people. 8 But this the holy spirit is manifesting, that the way of the (places) which are holy was not yet manifested, the first tabernacle still abiding; 9 that which is likened to this time which (now) is; that during (ϩⲓ) which are offered gift and sacrifice, it being not possible for them, according to conscience, to complete him who worshippeth, 10 (being) only with (ⲉϫⲉⲛ) eatings offered more (excellent) sacrifice to God than Kain, [this] through which it was witnessed unto him that he was righteous, God witnessing over his gifts: and through it[a], having died, he still (ⲟⲛ) speaketh.

[5] In [a] faith Enōch was removed, not to see (the) death; and he was not being found, because God removed him: for before the removal, it was witnessed unto him, that he pleased God: [6] but without faith it is not possible to please him: for it is right that he who cometh to God should believe that he is, and he will be rewarder of them who seek for him.
[7] In [a] faith Nōe, having been shown concerning the things which were not yet seen, feared; he fashioned an ark unto a saving of his house, through which (ark) he condemned the world, and he became heir of the righteousness of (the) faith.
[8] In [a] faith he who was called, namely (ϫⲉ) Abraam[b], obeyed to come forth to the place which he was to receive as inheritance; and he came forth, not knowing whither he walked.
[9] In [a] faith he was sojourner in (the) land

[a] Masculine, therefore not referring to faith. [b] Or he whom they call 'Abraam,' as the translation المسمى 'the named.'

he will receive. 7 Be patient for chastening: God spake to you as sons; for what son (is it) whom his father chasteneth not? 8 If ye are without the chastening in which all shared, then ye are false sons, and ye (are) not sons. 9 If indeed our fathers of (the) flesh we were having as chasteners, and we were reverencing them; then (is it) not more (right) that we should be subject to the Father of the spirits and live? 10 For those indeed for a few days were chastening us according to their will, but he indeed (ⲫⲁⲓ ⲇⲉ ⲛ̄ⲑⲟⲥϥ according to) that which is the more profitable for us, that we might receive from his holiness. 11 But all chastening at the time (lit. hour) indeed thou findest it (lit. them) not as (ⲉ) things of [a] joy, but (ⲁ) for (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉ) [a] grief: but at (the) last it giveth a peaceful fruit of [the] righteousness to them who were exercised through it.

12 Therefore set up the hands which are let (down), and the legs which are paralysed; 13 make straight courses for your feet, that the lameness turn not aside, but rather that it may recover. 14 Run after [the] peace with every one, and [the] sanctification, that without which no one will see the Lord. 15 Looking earnestly lest by any means there is one falling short of the grace; lest by any means there is a bitter root growing up, giving pain, and through it many be polluted; 16 lest by any means there is a fornicator or profane-hearted (one) as Ēsau, who sold his birthright for one meal (lit. food). 17 Ye know that after it, wishing to inherit the blessing, he was cast out; for he found not place of repenting, although he had sought for it in tears. 18 For ye came not to a fire of handling and (which) burneth, and (to) a gloom and a darkness (which) repelleth and a whirlwind, 19 and (the) blast of a trumpet and (the) voice of words, that which those who heard intreated (him) not to speak to them again: 20 for they were not being able to bear that which was being said. Even if a beast should touch the mountain they shall stone it, 21 and thus was being terrible that which was manifested. For Moses said: 'I am afraid and I tremble': 22 but (ⲁ) ye come to the mountain of Siōn, and the city of the living God, Jerusalem of (the) heaven,

[25] Take heed, refuse not him who speaketh. For if those could not escape upon the earth, having refused him who speaketh, much more we, namely those who will turn away from him who came out of the heavens: [26] whose voice moved the earth then; but now he promised, saying: 'Yet another time I (pron.) shall (lit. will) shake not only (the) earth but (ⲇⲉ) also the heaven.' [27] But this (lit. the), Yet another time, is showing to us a carrying away of the things which are moved as things made[a], that the things which are not moved may be permanent.

[28] Therefore being about to receive a kingdom immovable, let us have[b] grace, this through which we shall (lit. will) minister to God, pleasing him in [a] fear and [a] trembling:

29 for also our God is a devouring fire. XIII. Let [the] brotherly love be permanent. 2 Forget not [the] hospitality: for through this, unawares, some received angels. 3 Remember those who are bound as being bound with them; those who are pained as being yourselves also in body. 4 The marriage (is) honourable in all, the bed pure: for the fornicators and the adulterers God will judge. 5 Your manner of life is[a] not for [a] loving of silver. The things which are (to you) shall suffice for you; for he himself said: 'I shall not forsake thee, nor shall I leave thee.' 6 So that being assured we (pron.) say: 'The Lord is my helper; I shall not fear what it is which man will do to me.' 7 Remember your rulers who spake to you the word of God: these (of) whom ye see the outcome of their walk (of life), imitate their faith.
8 Jesus Christ yesterday and to-day is the same[b] and for ever. 9 Let not various and strange doctrines carry you

TO TIMOTHEOS 1. XI.

I. Paul, (the) apostle of Jesus Christ according to the commandment of God our saviour, and Jesus Christ our hope; 2 to Timotheos, my beloved child in (the) faith. (The) grace, (the) mercy, [the] peace, from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. 3 According as I besought thee to abide in Ephesos, being (myself) about to go to (the) Makedonia, that thou mightest order some not to teach another doctrine, 4 nor that they should attend to fables and genealogies[a], having no ends, these which give questionings rather than the dispensation of God which is in (the) pure heart, and a good conscience, and [a] faith unfeigned.

6 These with which some agreed[a] not, they turned aside to words of vanity; 7 and wishing to be teacher of the law, they understand not the things which they say, nor concerning the things upon which they establish themselves.
8 But we know that the law is good, if one should do to it[b] as law. 9 Knowing thou this, that the law was not being (ϫⲏ) for the righteous (man), but (ⲁ) it was (ϫⲏ) for the lawless and the unruly and the ungodly and the sinners, and them who are not sanctified, for the profane-hearted, for the father-slayers, for the mother-slayers, for the manslayers, 10 for the fornicators, for the sleepers with male, for the deceivers of man, for the sellers of free-other thing which is contrary to the sound doctrine; 11 according to the Gospel of (the) glory of the blessed God, this with which I (pron.) was entrusted.

12 I thank him who encouraged me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he reckoned me faithful, he put me unto a ministry. 13 I was being a blasphemer at first, and persecutor and insulter, but (ⲁ) I had mercy shown me, because I did it (lit. them) unknowingly in [an] unbelief; 14 but the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with [a] faith and [a] love which is in Christ Jesus. 15 Faithful is (the) word, and it is worthy that we should receive it in all receiving, that Christ Jesus came to the world to save the sinners; among whom I am the first: 16 but (ⲁ) I had mercy shown me, that in me first Jesus Christ might manifest all his long-suffering, for a pattern to them who believe him unto [an] eternal[a] life. 17 (The) King of the ages, the incorruptible, the invisible only God, the honour is his and the glory unto age of the ages. Amēn. 18 This order I lodge with thee, my child Timotheos, according to the prophecies which came before upon thee, that thou mightest arm thyself in them

III. Faithful is (the) word, he who wisheth for a bishopric, (it is) a good work which he desireth. ² It is worthy then that the bishop should be irreproachable, having become husband of one wife, watchful, prudent, orderly[a], hospitable, a good teacher, ³ not a winebibber [is], not a striker, but (ⲁ) fair [is], not contentious [is], not a lover of silver [is], ⁴ taking good care of his house, having children who are in [a] subjection with all gravity. ⁵ But if there is one (who) knoweth not (how) to take care of his own house, how will he take care of the church of God? ⁶ Not a novice[b] [is], that he may not be proud, and fall down into [a] judgement of the devil. ⁷ But it is worthy also that there should be good witness to him from those who are outside; that he may not fall into a reproach and a snare of the devil.
⁸ Deacons also thus, being grave, being not double-spoken,

(ϩⲉⲛ) from [the] meats, these which God created for the faithful, to take of them in [a] thanksgiving, and (for) them who knew the truth. 4 Because every creature of God is good, and there is not anything which is rejected, being taken in [a] thanksgiving: 5 for it is sanctified through [a] word of God and [an] intercession. 6 Laying these things before the brethren, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ, nourished in the words of (the) faith and the good teaching after which thou walkedst: 7 but depart from profane stories (ⲥⲙⲏ) and old woman fables: exercise them in [the] godliness; 8 for the exercise of the body is profitable for [a] little, but [the] godliness is profitable in all things, having a promise of (the) present to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many lusts of foolishness, (which) profit not, those which plunge the man into (the) destruction[a] and [the] perdition.

10 For (the) root of all evil is the love of silver, which some loved; they went astray from (the) faith, and they drew to themselves many griefs.
11 But thou, O (the) man of God, flee from these things, but run after [the] righteousness, [the] godliness, [the] faith, [the] love, [the] patience, [the] suffering in [a] meekness.
12 Strive the good strife of (the) faith, lay hold on the eternal life, to which thou wast called, and thou confessedst the good confession before many witnesses.
13 I order thee before God, he (ⲫⲁⲓ) who giveth life to all things, and Christ Jesus, he (ⲫⲁⲓ) who witnessed before (ϩⲓ) Pontios Pilatos the good confession, 14 to keep this commandment, being thyself spotless, being blameless until (the) manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15 He (ⲫⲁⲓ) whom will manifest in his times the blessed

TO TIMOTHEOS 2. XII.

I. Paul, (the) apostle of Christ Jesus through (the) wish of God according to the promise of (the) life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to Timotheos my beloved child, (the) grace, (the) mercy, (the) peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. 3 I give thanks to God whom I serve from my ancestors[a], in pure conscience, as remembering thee unfailingly in my prayers by night and day, 4 loving to see thee, remembering thy tears, that I may be filled with joy.
5 Remembering the faith which is in thee unfeigned; this which dwelt first in (the) mother of thy mother Lōēdē, and 3 Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

4 No one being soldier entangleth himself in the works of this life; that he may please him who armed him. 5 But if (any) one should go to (the) place of contending[a], he is not crowned unless he contendeth[b] lawfully. 6 The husbandman who toileth must take first from the fruits.
7 Understand the things which I say; for the Lord shall give to thee a knowledge in all things. 8 Remember Jesus Christ who rose from them who are dead, from (the) seed of David according to my Gospel: 9 that (ⲫⲁⲓ) in which I suffer even unto bonds as an evil doer; but (ⲁ) (the) word of God is not bound. 10 Therefore I am patient in all things because of the elect, that they[c] may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with the eternal glory. 11 Faithful is (the) word; for if we died with him, then we shall (lit. will) live with him also: 12 if we shall (lit. will) be patient, then we shall (lit. will) reign with him also: if we shall (lit. will) deny him, he also will deny us: 13 if we shall (lit. will) be unbelieving, that one tidings, fulfil thy ministry. 6 For I (pron.) now shall (lit. will) be [a]removed, and (the) time of my dissolution drew near. 7 The good strife I strove. The course I completed.

The faith I kept. 8 Henceforth is laid (up) for me the crown of [the] righteousness, that which the Lord will give to me in that day, the righteous judge; but not only to me alone, but (ⲁ) also all who loved his manifestation. 9 Haste thee to come to me quickly: 10 for Dēmas forsook me, having loved this present age, he went to Thessalonikia; Kriskēs to [the] Galatia; Titos to Dalmatia; 11 Loukas alone (it is) who is with me. Markos, take him away, bring him with thee, for he is serviceable to me unto [a] ministry. 12 But Tychikos I sent to (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉ) Ephesos. 13 The cloak which I left in Trōas with Karpō, bring it (when thou) art coming, and the books also, especially the parchments. 14 Alexandros,

TO TITOS. XIII.

I. Paul, (the) servant of God, (the) apostle of Jesus Christ according to (the) faith of the elect of God, and (the) knowledge of the truth, according to [the] godliness, 2 in a hope of an eternal life, this which God, who cannot lie[a], promised before the eternal times; 3 but he manifested in his times his word in a proclaiming, this with which I was intrusted, according to the commandment of God our saviour; 4 to Titos my beloved child according to the fellowship of (the) faith: (the) grace and (the) peace from God (the) Father and Christ Jesus our saviour. 5 Therefore I left thee in Krithē[b], that thou mightest set up the things which were wine, being givers of good teaching; 4 that they may teach the young women to be lovers (of their) husbands, lovers (of their) children, 5 prudent, chaste, the managers of their house, good, being in subjection to their husbands, that the word of God may not be blasphemed. 6 Thus also the young men encourage to be prudent: 7 making thyself (a) pattern of good works in all things (lit. work); in the doctrine, with (lit. in) [the] uncorruptness, (speaking) a grave word, 8 a sound word, uncondemnable; that he who is contrary to us may be ashamed, having not any evil to say against us.

9 The servants to be subject to their masters, pleasing them in all things, 10 and not to be thieves, but (ⲁ) manifesting all good fidelity (lit. faith), that they may adorn the teaching of God our saviour in all things.

11 For (the) grace of God our saviour was manifested to every man, 12 instructing us that, having denied [the] ungodliness and [the] worldly lusts, we might live in [a] prudence and [a] righteousness and [a] godliness in this present age.

them to be subject to the rulers and the authorities, well pleasing, and be prepared for all good works. 2 That they blaspheme not any one, and be not disputers, being fair, manifesting all meekness with all men. 3 For we also were being ignorant once, being dissentient, and going astray, enslaved to lusts and pleasures of many kinds, walking in [a] malice and [an] envy, worthy of being hated, hating one another. 4 But when was manifested the kindness and the love toward man of God our saviour, 5 not from our works which we did in [a] righteousness, but

(ⲁ) according to his mercy he saved us, through the washing of the regeneration and the renewing, 6 this which he poured upon us richly through Jesus Christ our saviour; 7 that we might be justified in the grace of that one, and become heirs according to a hope of an eternal life. 8 Faithful is (the) word, and concerning these [other] things I wish to cause thee to assure thyself, that they who believed God should take care to maintain[a] the good works. These (things) are good and they are profitable to [the] men: 9 but [the] questions of foolishness, and [the] genealogies[b], and [the] strifes, and [the] disputes about the law avoid; for these (things) are unprofitable and they are vain. 10 An heretical man, after once and twice admonishing him, refuse; 11 knowing that such a man is turned (away) and sinneth, having condemned himself. 12 If we should send Artema to thee, or Tichikos, haste thee to come to me to Nikopolis: for I ordained to spend the winter there. 13 Zēnas the lawyer and Apollō send in [a] haste, that they may not be deficient of anything. 14 Let those who are ours learn to take care for good works unto the necessary needs, that they may not be unfruitful. 15 All who are with me salute thee. Salute them who love us in (the) faith. (The) grace with you all.

To Titos, it was written in Nikopolis. He was bishop of the church of (the) Makedonia.

EPISTLE (OF) JAMES.

I. James, (the) servant of God and our Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes who are in the dispersion, hail. 2 Be in all joy, my brethren, if ye should fall into various temptations; 3 knowing that the proof of your faith worked [a] patience. 4 But [the] patience—let a complete work be in it (sc. patience), that ye may be complete and sound, and that ye may not be deficient of anything. 5 But if there is one among you deficient of wisdom, let him ask from God, who giveth to all simply, reproaching not; and it shall be given to him. 6 But let him ask in [a] faith, doubting not. For he who doubteth was as the waves of the sea, the wind taking them and bringing them. 7 For let not that man think to himself, that he will take anything from the Lord; 8 but the man who doubteth is unsteady on all his ways. 9 But let the brother who is in humble (position) boast himself in his exaltation: 10 but the rich in his humiliation: because as a flower of [a] grass he will pass (away). 11 For (the) sun arose with the scorching heat and dried the grass; and its flower fell off, but (the) beauty of its face perished: thus also the rich in all his ways will wither. 12 Blessed is the man who will endure in a temptation, because, should he be a chosen (one), he will receive the crown of (the) life, which he promised to them who will love him.

13 Let not any one say, being tempted, that it is God who tempteth me: for God tempteth not in evil things, but he (pron.) tempteth not any one: 14 but each one is being (ⲉⲩ) tempted by his own lust drawing him and enticing him. 15 Then the lust should it conceive bringeth forth (the) sin: but (the) sin should it be completed begetteth (the) death. 16 Go not astray, my brethren, my beloved. 17 All good gifts and all complete gifts are from above, coming below from the Father of the lights, with whom there is not change, nor a form of a shadow which passed. [18] He wished, he begat us in (the) word of the truth, to cause us to be a firstfruit of his creatures. [19] But we know, my brethren, my beloved. But let every man be in haste about to hear, slow about to speak, slow about to be angry.

[20] For (the) anger of (the) man worketh not the righteousness of God. [21] Therefore lay down all filthiness and (the) abundance of [the] malice, in [a] meekness receive the word, newly grown up, for which it is possible to save your souls.
[22] Be doers of the word, and not listeners only, otherwise ye are deceiving your own selves. [23] He who is a listener of the word, and not a worker, [this] was like to a man who beheld (the) face of his birth in a mirror: [24] for he beheld it, and he went away, and immediately he forgat the manner (of man) which he was being. [25] But he who gazed at (the) adultery, but killest, thou became transgressor of the law.

12 Speak thus and do thus, as about to be judged through
(the) law of the freedom. 13 For the judgement is without mercy to him who showed (lit. did) not the mercy: for (the) mercy boasteth itself over [the] judgement.
14 What is (the) profit, my brethren, if one say: 'I have faith,' but he hath not works? Is it possible that [the] faith should save him without the works? 15 But if there is a brother or a sister naked, and in want of (the) food of the day, 16 and one of you indeed (ⲇⲉ) say to them: 'Go in [a] peace, be warmed and satisfied'; and yet (ⲇⲉ) ye give not to them for (the) need of the body; what is the profit?
17 Thus [the] faith also, if there is not work in it, is dead by itself. 18 But (ⲁ) one will say: 'Thou (pron.) hast [a] faith, but I (pron.) have works: show to me thy faith show to us his works from his good walk (of life) in [a] meekness of [a] wisdom. 14 But if there is bitter jealousy among you and strife in your hearts, boast not yourselves and speak (not) falsehood against the truth. 15 This wisdom was not coming down from above, but (ⲁ) is that of (the) earth, psychic, demon-form. 16 For where there is jealousy or strife, (the) confusion is there and every evil work. 17 But the wisdom which is from above, first indeed it is pure, then it is peacemaking, it is fair, full of mercy, and good fruit, it is not self-judging, it is not hypocritical.

18 But (the) fruit of [the] peace and [the] righteousness is sown in [a] peace to them who make [the] peace.
IV. Whence is coming war, and whence is coming dispute among you? Is it not from these, from your pleasures which are armed in your members? 2 Ye lust, and ye have not: ye kill, and ye are jealous, it is not possible for you

OF PETER (THE) EPISTLE 1.

I. Peter, (the) apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are in (the) foreign (land) among the dispersion of Pontos, (the) Galatia, (the) Kappodokia, [the] Asia and [the] Bēthania, 2 according to a foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the spirit, unto a redemption and a sprinkling of (the) blood of Jesus Christ our Lord: (The) grace and the peace shall be multiplied to you. 3 Blessed is God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to (the) abundance of his mercy begat us into a hope of life through (the) rising of Jesus Christ from them who are dead, 4 into an inheritance incorruptible and unpolluted and un-fading: Kept for you in the heavens, 5 namely they who are watched over in [a] power of God through (the) faith unto a salvation (ⲟⲩϫⲁⲓ) prepared, about to be revealed in the last times; [6] that in which ye will be glad for a little (while) now: If it is right that ye should be grieved in temptations of many kinds; [7] that (the) choiceness of your faith may be more precious than the gold which will perish, but being proved through [a] fire; that ye may be found in [a] praise and [a] glory and [an] honour in the revelation of Jesus Christ. [8] Him whom ye know not, ye love; him (ⲫⲁⲓ) now ye see not, but ye believe him. Be glad in an unspeakable joy which was glorified: [9] receiving (the) end of your faith, (the) salvation (ⲛⲟϩⲉⲙ) of your souls.

[10] For concerning this salvation the prophets sought; and they searched, they who prophesied of (ϧⲁ) the grace which was in you; [11] searching after the time which the spirit of Christ spake in them, (they) having witnessed before of (ϧⲁ) the pains of Christ, and the glories which come after these (things): [12] they to whom it was revealed, that they is the word which was proclaimed among you. II. Having laid down all malice, and all subtlety, and all hypocrisy, and all envy, and all slander, 2 as young children lately (ϯⲛⲟⲩ) born, yearn after the milk reasonable and without subtlety, that ye may grow in it into [the] salvation.

3 If ye tasted that the Lord is kind: 4 to whom ye come, the living stone, rejected indeed by [the] men, but he is chosen with (ϩⲓⲧⲉⲛ) God, and he is precious: 5 and ye also are as living stones, building yourselves a spiritual house, for a holy priesthood, for (the) offering spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6 Because it is written in the Scripture: 'Lo, I shall (lit. will) lay in Siōn a chosen stone, as head of corner: and he who believeth him shall not be ashamed.' 7 The preciousness[a] then was to you, namely they who believe. But (to) the unbelievers indeed (pron.) the stone which they who build rejected, this became a head of corner, 8 and a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence—

he left to us an example, that we might walk after his footsteps: [22] he who committed not sin, nor was subtlety found in his mouth: [23] being reviled, he was not reviling; suffering, he was not being angry; but he was giving himself to the judgement of the true judge: [24] he who bare up our sins upon the tree[a] through his body, that we, having died from [the] sins, might live to [the] righteousness.

He through whose wound ye were healed. [25] For ye were being as sheep going astray, but (ⲁ) ye return now to your shepherd and (the) bishop of your souls. III. Thus also [it is] the women being subject to their husbands; if there are some who consent not to the word, through the walk (of life) of the women that they may be gained without word; [2] seeing your walk (of life) chaste in [a] fear. this thing, that ye might inherit the blessing.
10 For he who wisheth to love [a] life, and to see good days, let him refrain his tongue from the evil, and his lips, not to speak [a] subtlety.
11 Let him turn aside from the evil: let him do the good; let him seek for [a] peace, and pursue it.
12 Because (the) eyes of the Lord look upon (ⲉϫⲉⲛ) the righteous, and his ears incline to their prayer; but (the) face of the Lord (is) against (ⲉϫⲉⲛ) them who do the evil.

13 And who will be able to give pain to you, if ye should be zealous of the good?
14 But (ⲁ) if ye even suffer for [the] righteousness, blessed are ye. But their fear, fear it not, nor be troubled.
15 But the Lord Christ sanctify him in your hearts.

Being prepared always for [a] defence to all who will ask you a word concerning the hope which is in you, 16 but (ⲁ) in [a] meekness and [a] fear: having a good conscience; that they may be ashamed who speak against you as evil doers, and who calumniate your good walk in Christ.
17 For it is good that ye should do the good, If the will of God wisheth, and ye should suffer, than doing the evil. 18 Because Christ also died once because of (the) sin for us, [but] the righteous for the wicked, that he might bring us in to God. Having died indeed in (the) flesh, but he liveth in the spirit; 19 in this he went, he preached good tidings to the spirits also who were in the prison; 20 they who were disobedient once, when the longsuffering of God was indulgent[a] in the days of Nōe, who made an ark, through which (a) few were saved from the water, that is to say, eight souls. 21 Thus ye also now, he will save you in a type of[b] a baptism, not a laying down of a filthiness of (the) flesh, but (ⲁ) in a good conscience for (the) praying to God, through (the) resurrection of Jesus Christ; 22 who is (ϫⲏ) on the right hand of God, having gone to (the) heaven: angels and authorities and powers were subjected to him.

IV. Christ then having suffered in (the) flesh for us, [and] ye also arm yourselves in this form; because he who suffered in (the) flesh recovered himself from (the) sin; 2 so as not to remain any more in lusts of man, but (ⲁ) to spend (the)

the time which was passed was sufficient for you doing (the) drunkennesses of many kinds, and revellings and defilements and many profane idolatries: 4 that is to say, they who think it strange[a] that ye run not with them into the same effusion of [the] dissoluteness, blaspheming: 5 they who will give account to him who is prepared to judge them who are alive and them who are dead. 6 For therefore were good tidings preached also to the dead, that they indeed might be judged according to [the] men in (the) flesh, but might live according to God in the spirit. 7 But (the) end of all things drew near: be[b] understanding then, and watch in the prayers: 8 but first of all things let [the] love be con-upon you. 15 But let not one of you suffer either as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil doer, or as a looker after that which is not his: 16 but if as Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this name.

17 Because it is (the) time for the judgement to begin from (the) house of God: if it was to begin from us first, then what is (the) end of them who are disobedient to the Gospel of God? 18 If the righteous scarcely will be saved, then where appeared the sinner and godless? 19 Wherefore let them who suffer according to the wish of God commit their souls unto God the faithful creator in (the) doing the good.

V. The presbyters who are among you, I beseech you, I your fellow presbyter, and witness of the sufferings of Christ, and sharer of the glory which will be revealed. 2 Tend the world. 10 But God of all grace, who called you into his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, having suffered a little, he (pron.) shall perfect you, and he shall establish you, he shall encourage you, he shall lay foundation for you. 11 His is the strength and the glory for ever. Amēn. 12 I wrote to you through Silouanos, our faithful brother, as I think in few (words) encouraging, witnessing that this is the grace of God in [a] truth, this in which ye stand. 13 Saluteth you the fellow-chosen (fem.) who is in Babylōn, and Markos my son. 14 Salute one another in a kiss of [the] love. (The) peace to you all who are in Christ.

[12] Therefore I shall (lit. will) remind you always concerning these things, although ye know, and ye are confirmed in the truth which is. [13] For I think that it is a righteous work, this which I think, that as long as I am in this dwelling-place I shall stir in[a] you a remembrance; [14] knowing that this dwelling-place will be dissolved quickly, according as also our Lord Jesus Christ showed to us. [15] But I shall (lit. will) hasten myself always, that ye may remember these things after my departure. [16] It was not crafty fables which we walked after, (when) we showed to you (the) power and
(the) coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but (ⲁ) we were eyewitnesses of the greatness of that (one): [17] he received [an] honour and [a] glory from the Father; and a voice came to him of this kind by the exceeding[b] great glory: 'This is my Son, my beloved, this for whom I was well pleased.' [18] And this voice we heard, coming from (the) heaven, come walking according to their lusts, 4 and saying: 'Where was the promise of his coming? For since our fathers slept all these things remain thus since (the) beginning of the creation.' 5 For they are ignorant of the thing. This (ignorance) is that which they also wish, (ignorance) that the heavens exist from (the) beginning, and (the) earth from [a] water and through [a] water stood by (ϧⲉⲛ the) word of God; 6 these (sc. waters) because of which the world of that time was submerged in [a] water and it perished; 7 but the present heavens and the earth in the same word are treasured up[a] for (ϧⲉⲛ the) fire, being kept unto (the) day of the judgement, and (the) perdition of the ungodly men.

8 But of this be not forgetful, my beloved, that one day with the Lord (is) as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9 And the Lord will not delay about (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉ) the promise, as some think that he will delay; but (ⲁ) was longsuffering to you, not wishing that any should perish, but (ⲁ) wishing that all should come to [a] repentance.

10 But (the) day of the Lord shall come as a thief: this (day) through which the heavens will pass away violently[a]: the elements will be burned, they will be dissolved; and (the) earth and the works which are in it shall be burned. 11 All these things, then, being about to be dissolved, in what manner was it being meet that ye should walk in holy walks (of life) and godlinesses. 12 Gazing out in [an] haste forward to the day of the coming of the Lord, that (ⲫⲁⲓ) through which the heavens will be burned and come to an end[b], and the elements will be burned and be dissolved.
13 New heavens and a new earth according to his promises we look out for; these in which the righteousness dwelleth.

14 Therefore, my beloved, (since) we are gazing out forward to these, hasten yourselves to be found without spot with him, and without stain before him in [a] peace. 15 And the longsuffering of the Lord reckon it to you for [a] salvation, according as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom which was given to him, wrote to you: 16 as also in all his epistles, speaking in them concerning these (things); these in which some (things) are difficult to know (what they mean); these which the foolish and they who are not firm, distort as (the) rest of the Scriptures; who will draw themselves to (ⲕⲁⲧⲁ) their own perditions. 17 Ye, then, my brethren, foreknowing, keep yourselves, lest by any means ye go astray in (the) error of the foolish, and fall from your own firmness. 18 But grow in [the] grace and (the) knowledge of our Lord and our saviour Jesus Christ, whose is the glory from now and unto age of the ages. Amen.

promise which we heard from him; we proclaim it to you, that God is [a] light, and there is not any darkness in him.
6 If we should say that we have a fellowship with him, and are walking in the darkness, we are saying false, and we do not (the) truth: 7 if we should walk in the light, as he also walketh in the light, we have a fellowship with one another, and (the) blood of Jesus his Son will cleanse us from all sin.
8 If we should say that we have not sin, we deceive ourselves, and (the) truth is not in us.
9 If we should confess our sins, he is faithful and is righteous that he should forgive us our sins, and he will cleanse us from all wrongdoing.
10 If we should say that we sinned not, we make him false, and his word is not in us.
II. My children, these things I write to you, that ye may not sin. And if one should sin, we have the paraclete with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:
2 and he is (the) redemption of our sins; but not concerning ours only, but (ⲁ) also concerning those of the whole world.

Every one who doeth not (the) righteousness is not from God, and he who loveth not his brother. 11 Because this is the promise which ye heard from (the) beginning, that ye should love one another: 12 not according as Kain, who was (ⲛⲉ) from the evil (one), and he killed his brother.
Why killed he him? Because his works were being evil, but those of his brother were righteous. 13 But wonder not, my brethren, if the world hateth you. 14 We (pron.) know that we removed from (the) death into (the) life because we love the brethren. He who loveth not abode of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, according as he gave commandment to us. 24 And he who will keep his commandments abideth in him; and he also abideth in him. And in this we shall (lit. will) know that he abideth in us through the spirit which he gave to us.

IV. My beloved, believe not every spirit, but (ⲁ) prove the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets went to the world. 2 In this we shall (lit. will) know the spirit of God: Every spirit which confesseth that Jesus Christ came in (the) flesh is of God: 3 and every who is in you, than he who is in the world. [5] They (are) from the world: therefore they speak from the world, and the world heareth them. [6] We are of God: he who knoweth God heareth us; he who is not of God heareth not us. In this we shall (lit. will) know the spirit of the truth, and the spirit of the error. [7] My beloved, let us love one another: because the love is of God; every one who loveth was (ⲉⲧⲁⲩ) born from God, and he knoweth God.

[8] He who loveth not knew not God; because God is [a] love.
[9] In this the love of God was manifested in[a] us, because God sent his only Son to the world, that we might live through him.
[10] The love is in this. Not that we (pron.) loved God, but (ⲁ) that he (pron.) loved us, and he sent his Son for a redemption of our sins. [11] My beloved, if God loved us thus, we also ought to love one another. [12] God no one saw ever: if we should love one another, God abideth in us, and his love

'I love God,' and is hating his brother, he is false: for he who loveth not his brother whom he seeth, God whom he saw not, how will he be able to love him? 21 And this com- mandment we have from him, that he who loveth God should love his brother also. V. Every one who believeth that Jesus (is) Christ is born[a] from God: and every one who loveth him who begat[b] loveth also him who was begotten[b] from him. 2 In this we shall (lit. will) know that we love the children of God: If we should love God, and do his commandments. 3 For this is [the] love of God, that we should keep his commandments; and his commandments are not burdensome. 4 Because every one who was born from God conquereth the world: and this is the conquest which conquered the world, even[c] our faith.

5 But who is he who is conquering the world, except him who believeth that Jesus is (the) Son of God? 6 This is he who came through [a] water and [a] blood and [a] spirit, Jesus Christ; not in the water only, but (ⲁ) also in the water and in the blood. And the spirit is (that) which witnesseth, because the spirit is the truth. 7 Because three are they who witness, 8 the spirit and the water and the blood: and the three are in one. 9 If we receive the witness of [the] men, the witness of God is greater: because (ϫⲉ) this is the witness of God, that (ϫⲉ) he witnessed of his Son. 10 He who believeth (the) Son of God, the witness of God is in him: he who believeth not (the) Son of God made him false; because he believed not the witness, which God witnessed of his Son. 11 And this is the witness, that God gave to us an eternal life, and this life was in his Son.

12 He who hath (the) Son hath (the) life; he who hath not
(the) Son of God hath not (the) life. 13 These things I wrote to you, that ye might know that ye have an eternal life, ye (lit. they) who believe (the) name of the Son of God.

OF JOHN EPISTLE 2.

The presbyter to the chosen lady and her children, they whom I (pron.) love in [a] truth; and not I only, but (ⲁ) also all who knew the truth; 2 because of the truth which abideth in us, and it shall be with us for ever.
3 (The) grace, (the) mercy, (the) peace shall be with us from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, (the) Son of the Father, in [a] truth and [a] love. 4 I rejoiced greatly, having found (certain) of thy children walking in [a] truth, according as we received commandment from the Father. 5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as that (it is) a new commandment which I write to thee, but (ⲁ) this which we were having from (the) beginning, that we should love one another. 6 And this is [the] love, that we should walk

The presbyter to Gaios the beloved, he whom I (pron.) love in [a] truth. 2 My beloved, I pray concerning all things for thy ways to be straight, and that thou mayest be in health, according as (the) ways of thy soul are straightened.
3 I rejoiced greatly, the brethren having come and having witnessed unto thy truth, according as thou (pron.) walkest in [a] truth. 4 For I have not grace greater than this, that I may hear concerning my children, that they walk in [a] truth. 5 [The] beloved, (it is) a faithful work which thou doest, working among the brethren, and this among the strangers; 6 these who witnessed unto thy love before

(OF) JUDE (THE) EPISTLE.

Jude, (the) servant of Jesus Christ, but (the) brother of James, to them who were loved in God the Father, and they were kept for (ⲛ̄) Jesus Christ, they who are called.
2 May (the) mercy and (the) peace and the love be multiplied to you. 3 My beloved, all diligence (it is) which I give (lit. do them) writing to you concerning your salvation together. It was necessary for me to write to you to encourage (you), that ye should strive in the faith which was once delivered to you, namely the saints. 4 For men slipped themselves in among us, concerning whom it was before written unto this judgement, being ungodly, changing the grace of our Lord into [a] defilement, and denying (the) only Master, our Lord Jesus Christ. 5 I wish you to know (ⲉⲙⲓ), though ye know (ⲥⲱⲟⲩⲛ) all things, that once Jesus saved his people from (the) land of Khēmi[a]; but (the) second time, them who believed not he destroyed. 6 Angels also (who) kept not their beginning, but (ⲁ) they left their place of dwelling, he kept them in under (the) darkness in eternal[b] bonds unto the judgement of the great day. 7 As Sodoma and Gomorra, and the other cities which were around them, having fornicated as these, and they went after[c] other flesh (plur.), they are set for an example of the eternal fire, about to receive a judgement. 8 Thus also these others defile their flesh in (the) dreaming of dreams[d], but reject [the] dominion; the glories they blaspheme. 9 But Michaēl the archangel, speaking (lit. saying) against the devil—he was speaking concerning (the) body of Moses—dared not to bring a blasphemous judgement upon him, but (ⲁ) he said: 'The Lord shall rebuke thee.' 10 But these blaspheme [in] the things indeed which they know (ⲉⲙⲓ) not: but the things which they know

ACTS OF THE HOLY APOSTLES.

I. The first treatise (ⲥⲁϫⲓ) indeed I made concerning all things, O Theophylle, amongst those which Jesus began[a] to do [them] and to teach, 2 until the day (in which), having charged the apostles through the holy spirit, those whom he chose, he was taken away to (the) heaven. 3 These to whom he manifested himself alive after having suffered, in many signs, through forty days manifesting himself to them, and speaking to them concerning the kingdom of God: 4 and eating with them, he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but (ⲁ) to stay for the promise of the Father, which ye heard from me: 5 because Iōannēs indeed baptised the Scripture should be fulfilled, which the holy spirit said before from the mouth of David concerning Ioudas who guided them who overpowered Jesus. 17 Because he was being numbered amongst us, and the lot came to him [a] of the heritage of this ministry. 18 This (man) indeed then bought a field from (the) reward of (the) iniquity; and he fell upon his face, he burst in the (lit. his) midst, and all that (plur.) which was inside him was poured out. 19 And he was manifest to all who dwelt in Jerusalem; so that they call (the) name of that field in their language 'Acheldamag,' which (is) the field of the blood. 20 For it is written in (the) book of the Psalms: 'Let his habitation be desolate, and let there not be him who dwelleth in it. His bishopric let another take.' 21 It is necessary then, among the men who came in among us, in all the time which our Lord Jesus came in and came out over us, 22 having begun from the baptism of Iōannēs until the day (in) which he was taken away up from us, that one of these should witness with us of his resurrection. 23 And they set up two, Iōsēph who is called 'Barsabbas,' who was named 'Ioustos,' and Mathias. 24 And having prayed, they said: 'Lord, thou (art) he who knoweth (the) heart of all, manifest him whom thou chosest from these two one, 25 to take (the) place of this ministry and this apostleship which Ioudas transgressed, having gone to his place which is his.' 26 And they gave lot for them; the lot came upon Mathias; he was counted with the eleven apostles. II. And the day of the Pentēcostē having been fulfilled, they were all assembling in a place. 2 Suddenly there came (ϣⲱⲡⲓ) a sound from (the) heaven as a wind rushing[a], and it filled all (the) house in which they were sitting. 3 And there appeared to them as tongues of fire, ye hear. [34] For David went not up to (the) heaven: he himself saith: 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, [35] until I put thine enemies below thy feet."' [36] Assuredly then let the whole house of Israel know, that God made him Lord and he made him Christ. This [is] Jesus, this whom ye (pron.) crucified. [37] But having heard, their heart was pained, they said to Petros and (the) rest of the apostles: 'What is that which we shall (lit. will) do, [the] men, our brethren?' [38] But Petros said to them: 'Repent, and let each of you receive baptism[a] unto (the) name of Jesus Christ unto (the) forgiveness of your sins; and ye will receive the free gift of the holy spirit. [39] For yours is the promise, and your fathers, and all who are far off, whom the Lord our God will call.' [40] But in many other words he was witnessing to them, and he was entreating them, saying: 'Save yourselves from this perverse generation.' [41] They indeed then who received the word were III. But Petros and Iōannēs were going up to the temple at (the) hour of the prayer of the ninth hour[a]. [2] But there was a man, being lame from[b] (the) womb of his mother. This (man) they were wont to carry (lit. raise) daily and lay him at (the) door of the gate of the temple which is called '(the) beautiful,' for him to receive an alms from them who go into the temple. [3] This (man) having seen Petros and Iōannēs going into the temple was praying them, wishing to receive an alms from them. [4] But Petros looked at him, with Iōannēs, he said: 'Look at us.' us, as though in our power or our piety we did this to cause this (man) to walk? 13 God of Abraam and God of Isaak and God of Iakōb, God of our fathers glorified his servant (lit. child) Jesus; He (ⲫⲁⲓ) whom ye (pron.) gave (up); ye denied him before Pilatos: he indeed having decided[a] to release him; 14 but ye (pron.) denied the holy, the righteous.

Ye ask to be released to you a man (a) murderer; 15 but
(the) author of (the) life ye kill, this whom God raised from them who are dead; this to whom we (pron.) witness. 16 And in (the) faith of his name, this (man) whom ye see and ye know,—his name (is) that which cured him, and the faith, (which) is through him, gave to him the soundness before you all. 17 But now, my brethren, I know that ye did it in [an] ignorance, as also your rulers. 18 But God fulfilled thus the things which he said since (the) first from the mouth of all his prophets for his Christ to suffer.
19 Repent then and return for your sins to be wiped away, in what name do ye (pron.) this?' [8] Then Petros was filled with the holy spirit, he said to them: [The] rulers of the people, and [the] presbyters, [9] if we (pron.) to-day are ex- amined concerning a good deed which was done to a feeble man, as to (ϫⲉ) by (ϧⲉⲛ) whom this man was cured; [10] let the deed be manifest to you all, and all the people of Israel, that in (the) name of Jesus the Nazōreos, this whom ye (pron.) crucified, this whom God raised from them who are dead, in this (one) standeth this (man) before you cured.

[11] This is the stone which was despised by you the builders, this became a chief corner (stone). [12] And there is not another in whom is being (the) salvation, nor is there another name below (the) heaven which was given to [the] men in which they must be saved. [13] But having seen the boldness of Petros and Iōannēs, and having known that they were men who[a] knew not writing, and were unlearned, they were wondering; but they were knowing them, that they were being with Jesus. [14] But the man also they were came (ϣⲱⲡⲓ) upon all the church, and on all who heard these (things).

12 But through (the) hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were being done among the people; and they all were assembling together at the porch of Solomōn.

13 But among the rest no one dared join himself to them, but (ⲇⲉ) the people were exalting them; 14 but the more were adding themselves to the Lord, believers[a], many men and women. 15 So that they brought out them who were sick into (ϩⲓ) the streets, and laid them upon beds and resting-places, that as Petros is to pass by, at the least, his shadow may come upon one of them. 16 But the multitudes of the cities which were around Jerusalem were coming, bringing them who were sick, and them who were vexed with the unclean spirits: but all these are cured through them. 17 But the chief priest rose, and all they who were with him, which (is) (the) sect of the Sadducees; they were [29] Petros answered and the apostles, they said: 'We ought to hearken to God rather than [the] men. [30] God of our fathers raised Jesus. This (one) upon whom ye (pron.) put forth[a] your hands, having hanged him on a tree[b]: [31] this (one) God exalted as prince[c], as saviour with[d] his right hand, to give [a] repentance to Israel, and (the) forgiveness of sins. [32] And we (pron.) in him are witness of these very words: but God gave the holy spirit to them who hearken to him.'

33 But having heard these (things) they gnashed their teeth at them, and they were wishing to kill them. 34 One rose (up) in the council, he was a Pharisee whose name was Gamaliēl, he was a teacher of the law honoured by all the people. He commanded to put (lit. throw) the men forth for a little.
35 He said to them: '[The] men, [the] Israelites, give heed to yourselves concerning these men, as to (ϫⲉ) what it is which ye do. 36 For before these days rose one called (ϫⲉ) Theutēs, saying that I am (he). Four hundred of men in number followed him, and he having been killed, all who were obeying him were overthrown, having become nothing.
'37 After this rose Ioudas the Galilean in the days of the enrolment, and he drew many after (lit. behind) him, and he also perished; all who were obeying him were overthrown.

foot of a young man, his name being Saulos. 59 And they stoned Stephanos, beseeching, saying: 'Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.' 60 He threw himself upon his knees, he cried out in a great voice: 'Lord, thou shalt not reckon this sin to them.' But having said this, he slept. VIII. But Saulos was consenting to his being killed. But at that time happened a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem. But all were scattered to the countries of [the] Ioudea and (the) Samaria save the apostles only.
2 But devout men took away Stephanos, and they made a great wailing over him. 3 But Saulos was fighting[a] against the church, going into the houses, dragging off men and women, casting them to (the) prison. 4 They indeed then who were scattered were passing (along) preaching good tidings of the word. 5 But Philippos having come into a city of (the) Samaria proclaimed the word of God.
6 The multitudes together were giving heed to the things which Philippos was saying, in (the) hearing and seeing the signs which he was doing. 7 But many of them who (had) the unclean spirits with them, (the spirits) were coming from them, crying out in a great voice: but many also paralysed, and some being lame, he was curing [them].

8 But a great joy happened in that city. 9 But a man, his name being Simōn, was being before in that city, being a sorcerer, putting all the nation of (the) Samaria beside itself[a], saying: 'I (am) a great (one).' 10 But to this (man) all were giving heed, the small and the great, saying:
'This is the power of God, that which is called "the great."' 11 They all were giving heed to him, because he had spent a great time deceiving them in his magic (plur.). 12 When they believed Philippos preaching good tidings to them of the kingdom of God and (the) name of Jesus Christ, men and women were coming to be baptised[b]. 13 But Simōn also had not yet come upon any (ⲟⲩⲟⲛ) of them: but rather they were being baptised unto (the) name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then they laid hand upon them, and they were receiving the holy spirit. 18 But Simōn having seen that through the laying hand of the apostles they receive the holy spirit, brought to them money, 19 saying: 'Give this authority to me also, that he, upon whom I shall (lit. will) lay hand, may receive the holy spirit.' 20 But Petros said to him: 'Thy silver with thee shall be unto (the) destruction, because thou thoughtest to get for thee through money the free gift of God. 21 Part going about, preaching good tidings in all the cities, until he came to Kesaria.

IX. But Saulos, still full of anger and murder of the disciples of the Lord, came unto the chief priest; 2 he asked for letters from him to Damaskos unto the synagogues; that those, whom he will find, being of the way[b], the men and the women, he might bind and bring into Jerusalem.

3 But having journeyed[c], it came to pass (that), having approached Damaskos, suddenly shone upon him a light from (the) heaven, 4 and, having fallen upon the earth, he heard a voice saying to him: 'Saoul, Saoul, why persecutest thou me?' 5 But he said: 'Who (art) thou, Lord?' But he (pron.) said: 'I am Jesus whom thou (pron.) persecutest:

a chosen vessel for me, being about to bear my name before the Gentiles, and the kings, and (the) sons of Israel: 16 for I (pron.) shall (lit. will) show to him all the pains which he will receive for my name.' 17 But Ananias went, and he entered the house, he laid his hands on him, he said:
'Saoul, my brother, the Lord Jesus (is) he who sent me, he who manifested himself to thee on the road on which thou comest, that thou mightest see, and be filled with [a] holy spirit.' 18 And quickly fell from his eyes scales;

22 But Saulos rather was increasing in strength[b], and he was troubling the Jews who were in Damaskos, showing to them, that this is Christ. 23 But many days having been completed, the Jews took counsel that they might kill him. 24 But to Saulos was shown their counsel; but they were keeping the gates by the day and the night, that they might kill him. 25 But the disciples took him away by night, they let him down in a basket from upon the wall. 26 But having come into Jerusalem, he was trying to join himself to the disciples: and they all were fearing him, and they trust him not that he is a disciple. 27 But Barnabas caught hold of him, he brought him unto the apostles, he spake to them in what manner he saw the Lord on the road; and that he spake to him; and in what manner he spake boldly[a] in Damaskos in (the) name of Jesus. 28 And he was being in Jerusalem, going in and out with them, speaking boldly in (the) name of the Lord Jesus: 29 but he was speaking, he was questioning the Greeks; but they (pron.) were wishing to lay (lit.

having known (it), brought him to Kesaria, they sent him into Tharsos. 31 The church indeed then of all [the] Ioudea and [the] Galilea and (the) Samaria had [a] peace, being edified and continuing in the fear of the Lord, and they were going on (lit. coming) growing in the consolation

Ioppē: the disciples then, having heard that Petros is there, sent two men to him, saying, (and) praying him: 'Delay not to come to us.' 39 But Petros arose, he walked with them.

But he having come, they took him away into the upper place; all the widows stood by him weeping, showing to him the coats and the garments (which) the Gazelle (was) making, being with them. 40 Petros put (lit. threw) them all out; having thrown himself upon his knees, he prayed; having turned himself to the body, he said: 'Tabitha, rise.' But she (pron.) opened her eyes; but having seen Petros, she sat (up). 41 But he helped her[a], he made her stand. But having called the saints and the widows, he presented her to them alive. 42 But this work was manifested in all Ioppē: and many believed the Lord. 43 But he abode many days in Ioppē with one 'Simōn' the tanner.

having gone, he called two servants of his and a pious soldier from them who waited upon him; [8] having said all things before them he sent them to Ioppē. [9] But on the (lit. his) morrow (as they were) walking in the way, and having approached the city, Petros went up on the housetop to pray at the sixth hour. [10] But he had been hungry, he was wishing to eat: but as they prepare for him, a trance came upon him; [11] he saw (the) heaven opened. And a vessel let down as a great sheet[a] of four corners; [12] being in it all the quadrupeds and the creeping things of (the) earth and the birds of (the) heaven. [13] And a voice came (ϣⲱⲡⲓ) to him: 'Rise, Peter, slay and eat.' [14] But Petros said: 'Not so, Lord; because I never ate anything unclean witness, that this is he whom God ordained judge of (ϵ) them who are alive and them who are dead. [43] This of whom all the prophets witness, that (ϵθροϒ) through his name all who believe him should receive (the) forgiveness of their sins.' [44] As Petros was yet speaking these words, the holy spirit came upon all who heard the word. [45] And they of (the) circumcision, the faithful who came with Petros, were amazed, because the free gift of the holy spirit was poured out upon the Gentiles also. [46] For they were hearing them speaking in tongues, and exalting God. Then Petros answered: [47] 'Is it possible for any to forbid the water, that these should not be baptised, these who received the holy spirit as we also (did)?' [48] But he commanded them to baptise them in (the) name of Jesus Christ. Then they besought him to abide with them some days. XI. But the apostles and the brethren who were in [the] Ioudea heard that the Gentiles received the word of God. [2] When Petros went into Jerusalem, they of (the) circumcision to bring him up, in that night Petros was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: but there were keepers at the doors keeping the prison. 7 And behold, an angel of the Lord came, and a light shone in the house: but having shaken (the) side of Petros, he raised him (up), saying: 'Rise quickly.' And the chains fell from his hands.

8 But the angel said to him: 'Gird thyself, and put (lit. give) thy sandal to thy foot.' But he did thus. And he said:

'Fold thee with thy garment, and walk after me.' 9 And having come out, he was walking after him; and he was not knowing that (it was) true which was being done through the angel, but he was thinking that (it was) a vision which he saw. 10 But having passed from the first place of keeping and the second, they came to the iron gate which cometh out to the city; this opened to them of itself: but having come out, they passed (through) one of the streets; and immediately the angel went from him. 11 But Petros having come to himself[a], said: 'Now I know (ⲁⲓ) truly that the Lord sent his angel and he saved me from (the) hand of Ērōdēs, and all (the) expectation of the people of the Jews.' 12 But having seen, he went to (the) house of Maria (the) mother of Iōannēs who is called 'Markos,' the place in which many were assembling, praying. 13 But Petros having knocked at (the) door of the porch, a young maidservant came out to answer to him, her name being Rōdē.
14 And having known (the) voice of Petros, from [the] joy of (the) king, they were asking [a] peace, because that their country was being nourished from his kingdom. 21 But on a day ordained Ērōdēs clothed himself with a kingly raiment, and having sat on the judgement seat was speaking to them. 22 But the multitude was crying out, saying; 'This is a voice of god, and it is not that of man.' 23 But immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because that he glorified not God: and having been eaten of worms, he died. 24 But the word of God grew and was going on (lit. coming) multiplying.

25 But Barnabas and Saulos returned from Jerusalem, having completed the ministry, having brought Iōannēs also who was named 'Markos.' XIII. But there were prophets and teachers in the church of (the) Antiochia, Barnabas, and Simōn who is called 'Niker,' and Loukios the Kyrinnean, the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, [The] men, our brethren, he who hath a word of exhortation among you unto the people, say it. 16 But Paulos having risen, and having beckoned with his hand, said, [The] men, [the] Israelites, and they who fear God among you, hear. 17 God of the people of Israel chose our fathers and he exalted the people in the sojourn in (the) land of Khēmi, and with an exalted arm he brought them out of it. 18 And he nourished them forty years time in (the) desert. 19 And having hurled (out) seven nations in (the) land of Chanaan, he caused them to inherit their land 20 four hundred years: and after these things he gave judges until Samouēl the prophet. 21 And from there they asked for a king: and God gave to them Saoul (the) son of Kis, a man from (the) tribe of Beniamin, forty years.

22 And having removed him, he raised (up) David to them as king; this concerning whom he witnessed having said:

46 But Paulos and Barnabas were emboldened[a], they said:
'It was necessary to speak to you first the word of God.
Since ye cast it away from you, and ye reckon yourselves not to be worthy of the eternal life, lo, we shall (lit. will) turn to the Gentiles.
47 For this is as the Lord ordered us: "I put thee for a light of the Gentiles, to be for a salvation unto the end of the earth."' 48 But the Gentiles having heard, rejoiced, and they were glorifying the word of God. And all they who were ordained to the eternal life believed.
49 But they were going about with the word of the Lord in all the country.
50 But the Jews were instigating the devout women, and those of honourable estate, and the first (men) of the city, and they raised a persecution against Paulos and Barnabas, and they cast them away from their boundaries.
51 But they (pron.)
shook off (the) dust of their feet against (lit. upon) them, they came into Ikonion.
52 But the disciples were being full of joy and the holy spirit.

walked not ever. 9 And this (man) heard Paulos speaking.
But he (pron.) having gazed at him, and having known that there was faith in him to be saved, 10 he said in a great voice: 'Arise, stand upon thy feet.' And he was springing up, and he was walking. 11 The multitudes indeed then having seen that which Paulos did, lifted up their voice in (ⲙ̄) Lykaonian, saying: 'The gods became as the men, they came down unto us.' 12 They were calling indeed Barnabas '[the] Zeus,' but Paulos '[the] Ermēs,' since he (pron.) was chief of the word. 13 But the priest of [the] Zeus, who was being before the city, brought calves and crowns up to the porches, he was wishing to slay, with the multitude. 14 But the apostles Barnabas and Paulos having heard, rent their garments, they ran unto the multitude, crying out, 15 saying: '[The] men, why do ye these (things)? We also are men, men of passion like you, preaching good tidings to you, to depart from the vanities and having happened to Paulos and Barnabas and others of them, they ordained Paulos and Barnabas to go unto the apostles and the presbyters who were in Jerusalem to see concerning this question. [3] They (pron.) indeed then having been escorted by the church, passed through [the] Phoinikē and (the) Samaria, speaking concerning (the) return of the Gentiles: and they were making a great joy with all the brethren.

[4] But having come into Jerusalem, they of the church and the apostles and the presbyters received them; but they showed to them all things which God did with them. [5] But some from (the) sect of the Pharisees who believed arose, saying: 'It is right that they should circumcise them, and to order to keep (the) law of Mōysēs.' [6] But the apostles and the presbyters assembled to see concerning this word. [7] But a great questioning having happened, Petros stood, he said to them, [The] men, our brethren, ye (pron.) know that since the early days God chose among you from my mouth to cause the Gentiles to hear (the) word of the Gospel, and believe. [8] And God, he who knoweth the hearts, witnessed to them, and he gave to them the holy spirit, as he gave to us also; [9] and he put not any difference between us and them, having cleansed their hearts in the faith. [10] Now then why tempt ye God, to place a yoke on (the) shoulders of the disciples, this which not our fathers nor we (pron.) could bear? [11] But (ⲇⲉ) through the grace of our Lord Jesus we believe that we shall be saved[a], according as the others. [12] But all the multitude was silent, and they were hearing Barnabas and Paulos speaking of all the signs and the wonders which God did among the Gentiles through them.

[13] But after they were silent, Iakōbos answered, saying, [The] men, our brethren, hear me:. [14] Symeōn spake how[b] at (ⲓⲥϫⲉⲛ) first God visited, to take a people from the Gentiles in his name. [15] And with this agree the words of the prophets; according as it is written: 16 'After these things I shall return, and I shall build the tabernacle of David, which was fallen; and the things which were overturned of it I shall build: and I shall (lit. will) set it up: 17 that

(the) rest of [the] men may seek for the Lord, and all the Gentiles upon whom my name was called, saith the Lord, he who caused these things 18 to be manifest since (the) age.'

19 Therefore I (pron.) give judgement, not to molest them who will turn from the Gentiles; 20 but (ⲁ) to send to them, to cause them to depart from things slain for idols, and [the] fornication, and things strangled, and the dead blood (plur.). 21 For Mōysēs since the early generations hath them who proclaim him in every (ⲕⲁⲧⲁ) city in the *syna-one another; but Barnabas took Markos, he sailed to Kypros; 40 but Paulos chose Silas, he came forth, having been delivered to the grace of God by the brethren. 41 But he was passing through (the) Syria and (the) Kylikia confirming the churches.

XVI. But he came into (the) Terbē also and Lystra: and lo, a disciple was being there, his name being Timotheos, (the) son of a believing Jewess; but his father was a Greek.
2 Concerning this (man) were witnessing the brethren who were in Lystra and Ikonion. 3 Him (ⲫⲁⲓ) Paul wished to come forth with him; and having taken him away, he circumcised him, because of the Jews who were in that place: for they all were knowing that his father was a Greek. 4 But going round among the cities they were delivering to them to keep the decrees which were established by the apostles and the presbyters who were in Jerusalem.
5 The churches indeed then were going on (lit. coming) being confirmed in the faith, and they were going on (lit. coming) multiplying in their number daily. 6 But they passed

But Paulos, having been grieved, and having turned to the spirit, said: 'I order thee in (the) name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.' And he came out in that hour. [19] But her masters, having seen that the hope of their profit came out of her, laid hold on Paulos and Silas; they dragged them away to the marketplace unto the rulers. [20] And having brought them to the captains, they said: 'These men trouble our city being Jews: [21] and they proclaim to us other customs, these which it is not lawful for us to receive nor to do, being Romans.' [22] And the multitude rose upon them; and the captains rent their garments, they commanded that they should beat them with (the) staff. [23] Having given to them many stripes, they cast them to the prison, having ordered the jailor[a] to keep them securely. [24] This (man) having received an order of this kind, cast them into the inner prison, and he secured their feet to the wood. [25] But at midnight Paulos and Silas, praying, were blessing God: they who were bound were hearing them: 26 suddenly happened a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the place of binding were moved: but immediately all the doors were opened; and all the bands of theirs were loosed. 27 But the jailor having woke, and having seen the doors of the prison open, drew his sword, being about to kill himself, thinking that they who were bound fled. 28 But Paulos cried out in a great voice, saying: 'Do not any evil to thyself: for we are all here.' 29 But he took a light; he ran in, and having been in a trembling, cast himself down at the feet of Paulos and Silas; 30 and having brought them out, he said to them: 'My masters, what ought I to do that I may be saved?' 31 But they (pron.) said: 'Believe the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house.' 32 And they spake to him the word of the Lord, him and all his house. 33 And he took them away in that hour of the night, he washed their wounds; and he was baptised, he and XVII. Having passed through [the] Amphipolis and [the] Apollōnia, they came to Thessalonikē, the place in which there was a synagogue of the Jews: 2 but according to the custom of Paulos, he went in unto them, and he was speaking to them from the Scriptures for (ϣⲁ) three sabbaths, 3 manifesting and putting (it) before them, that Christ must suffer and rise from them who are dead, and that Jesus Christ is this, this whom I (pron.) proclaim to you. 4 And some indeed (ⲇⲉ) from them believed, and there were numbered with (ⲉ) Paulos and Silas a great multitude of them who worship of the Greeks, women also (ⲇⲉ) of the first (rank) not few. 5 But the Jews were jealous, and they took men, evil, of the baser sort, and having assembled a multitude they troubled the city, and they came at (the) house of Iassōn seeking for them that they might bring them out to the multitude. 6 But having not found them, they dragged Iassōn out and other brethren unto the rulers of the city, having shorn his head in Kenchrees: for he was being in a vow. 19 But he came to Ephesos, and he left those there: but he (pron.) having gone into the synagogue was speaking to the Jews. 20 But they praying him that he should spend a great time with them, he wished not; 21 but (ⲁ) he took leave of them, having said: 'I shall (lit. will) return to you in the will of God.' But he sailed from Ephesos. 22 But having come into Kesaria, and having saluted the church, He came into (the) Antiochia. 23 And having spent [a] time there, he came forth, passing from place (to place) of the country of [the] Galatia and [the] Phrikia, confirming all the disciples.

24 But there was a Jew, his name being Apellēs, being a man of Rakoti[a] in his race, being a notable man, who came to stay at Ephesos; being powerful in the Scriptures.

25 This (man) had been instructed in (ⲉ) the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he was speaking and he was teaching in [an] accuracy concerning Jesus, only the baptism of Iōannēs being (that) which he knoweth. 26 But this (man) began to speak boldly[a] in the synagogue. Priskylla and Akylla having heard him, received him, and they showed to him in [an] accuracy the way of God. 27 But he wishing to come forth to [the] Achaia, the brethren incited him, they wrote to the disciples that they should receive him. But this (man) having come, was very profitable to them who believed through the grace. 28 He was confuting the Jews in [an] assurance, manifestly showing to them from the Scriptures that Jesus is Christ.

XIX. But it came to pass, Apellēs being in Korinthos, [but] that Paulos having passed by the places which were above, came[b] to Ephesos, and having found disciples, ing evil of (ⲛ̄ⲥⲁ) the way before the multitude, he fled from them, having separated the disciples, Speaking daily in the school of Tyrannos. 10 But this he was doing two years; so that all who dwelt in [the] Asia heard the word of the Lord, the Jews and the Greeks.

11 But God was doing mighty works[a] not few through
(the) hands of Paulos: 12 so that they took handkerchiefs and aprons from his body and laid them upon those who were sick, and the sicknesses were wont to go from them, and the evil spirits were coming out. 13 But some from the Jews who went about as (ⲛ̄) exorcists took in hand to say (the) name of the Lord Jesus over them who (had) the evil spirits upon them, saying: 'I adjure you by (ⲛ̄) Jesus, whom Paulos proclaimeth.' 14 But there were seven sons of one 'Skeva,' being a Jew, chief priest, doing this.

15 The evil spirit answered, he said to them: 'Jesus I know (ⲥⲱⲟⲩⲛ), and Paulos also I know (ⲉⲙⲓ), but who are ye?' 16 And the man with whom the evil spirit (was) threw himself upon them, he mastered them together, he prevailed over them, so that they fled from that house naked with their heads wounded[a]. 17 But this became manifested to all the Jews and the Greeks, who dwelt in Ephesos; and a fear came upon them all, and (the) name of the Lord Jesus Christ was going on (lit. coming) being exalted. 18 But many (sing.) from them who believed were coming, confessing, and saying their works. 19 But many (plur.) among them who were doing curious arts, having brought their books, burnt them before all: and they took count of their prices, having found them being there fifty[b] thousand of silver. 20 But thus mightily grew (the) word of the Lord and it prevailed.
21 But these (things) having been completed, Paulos pur-posed[c] in his spirit that, should he pass throughout (the) Makedonia and [the] Achaia, he might go to Jerusalem, having said: 'After my going there, I must see also Rōmē.'

[a] reproof; but (ⲁ) the temple also of the great goddess [the] Artemis will be no more reckoned anything, and her greatness will be overthrown, this which all [the] Asia and all the world worshippeth.' 28 But having heard these (things), and having been filled with anger, they were crying out, saying: '[The] Artemis of them of Ephesos is great.' 29 And the city was filled with trouble: but all ran hurriedly together to the theatre; they carried off Gaios and Aristarchos, being Makedonians, they came on travel[a] with Paulos.
30 But Paulos wishing to go into the multitude, the disciples were not letting him. 31 But some also[b] from the rulers of [the] Asia, being friends to him, sent to him, beseeching him not to give himself to the theatre. 32 Others indeed then were crying out saying another thing: for the assembly was troubled; and the most of them knew not why they were assembled. 33 But from the multitude the Jews brought out Alexandros. Alexandros beckoned to them with his hand, wishing to make defence to the multitude. 34 But having known that he is a Jew, there arose (ϣⲱⲡⲓ) one

XX. But after the trouble was ended, Paulos sent for the disciples and comforted them, he saluted them, he came forth to go to (the) Makedonia. 2 Having passed through that place and having comforted them in many a word, he came to [the] Ellas. 3 But having spent three months there, an evil plan was made concerning him by the Jews. Being about to come to (the) Syria, a plan was made to return through (the) Makedonia. 4 But Sōsipatros of Pyrrus the man of Beroia was with him; but (of) them of Thessalonikē, Aristarchus and Sekounthos; and Gaios the man of Terbē, and Timotheos; but they of [the] Asia, Tychikos and Trophēmus. 5 But these having been before us, stayed for us in

Trōas. 6 But we (pron.) after the days of the unleavened (plur.) sailed from Philippois, and we came unto them to Trōas in[a] five (days), and we abode there with them seven days. 7 But on (the) first (lit. one) of the sabbaths, we having assembled to break [a] bread, Paulos was speaking to them, being about to come forth on the (lit. his) morrow; but he was spreading out the word unto midnight. 8 But there were many lamps in the upper place, the place in which they were being assembled. 9 But a young man was sitting, his name being Eutychos, upon the window, forgetting (himself) in a deep (lit. great) sleep; but as Paulos was speaking, the sleep overcame[b] him more, he fell down from (ϧⲉⲛ) the third storey, and he was taken up dead. 10 But Paulos came down, he threw himself upon him, and having embraced him, he said: 'Trouble not; for his life (is) in him.' 11 But having gone up, and having broken the bread, and having tasted, he prolonged[c] the word until (the) light came you in all this time; 19 being servant to the Lord in all humbleness of heart, and tears, and the trials which came upon me, in the evil plans of the Jews: 20 how I hid not anything of (ϧⲉⲛ) the things which were profitable, without showing them to you, and teaching you, 21 witnessing publicly and in every house to the Jews and the Greeks [the] repentance toward (ⲛ̄ⲧⲉ) God, and the faith in (ⲉ) our Lord Jesus Christ. 22 And now, lo, I (pron.) being bound in the spirit shall (lit. will) go to Jerusalem, I know not that which will befall[a] me in it. 23 Except that the holy spirit witnesseth to me in every city, saying: "Bonds and afflictions stay for thee." 24 But (ⲇⲉ) my life I put it not, that it is precious to me, in any account[b], until I complete my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to witness to the Gospel of the grace of God. 25 And now, lo, I (pron.)

I was passing, proclaiming the kingdom of God. 26 Therefore, I witness to you in this very[a] day that I (pron.) am pure from the blood of you[b] all. 27 For I hid not myself so as not to show to you (the) whole wish of God. 28 Take heed to yourselves and all the flock, in which the holy spirit put you as overseers, to feed the church of the Lord, which he got through his own blood. 29 But I (pron.) know that after my going (away) grievous wolves will come in to you, they will not spare the flock; 30 and men will rise from among you, saying perverse words, for them to draw the disciples after them. 31 Therefore then watch yourselves, remembering that I spent three years, I ceased not by the day and the night admonishing each one of you in tears. 32 And now I commit you to the Lord and (the) word of his grace, for which it is possible to establish and to give inheritance among all them who were sanctified. 33 [A] silver or [a] gold or a garment I coveted not them of any one. 34 Ye (pron.) know that these my hands ministered to my need, and (to) we went on board; we put off. 3 But having seen Kypros, we left it on the left hand, we sailed to (the) Syria, and we came to Tyros: For the ship was being about to unlade[a] its freight there. 4 But having found the disciples, we abode there with them seven days, these who were saying to Paulos through the spirit not to go into Jerusalem. 5 But it came to pass (that) having completed the days, we came forth, we walked (away), all of them escorting us, with women also and their children, unto outside of the city: and we threw ourselves upon our knees upon the shore, we prayed, 6 and we took leave from one another, we went on board the ship, but they returned to their own. 7 But we (pron.) sailed from Tyros, we came into Ptolemais, and having saluted the brethren, we abode with them a day. 8 But on the (lit. his) morrow having come forth, we came to Kesaria, and having gone into (the) house of Philippos the preacher of good tidings, being one from the seven, we abode with him.

9 But this (man) had four daughters, virgins, prophesying.

having come unto us, he took away the girdle of Paulos, he bound his hands and his feet, he said: 'These (things) Paulos: 'What do ye, weeping and paining my heart? For not only to be bound, but (ⲁ) I (pron.) am prepared to die in Jerusalem for (the) name of the Lord Jesus.' [14] But he having not been persuaded, we held our peace, saying: 'Let the will of the Lord be done.'

[15] But after these days having prepared ourselves, we were going to Jerusalem. [16] But some from the disciples came with us from Kesaria, having brought him with whom we 29 For they had before seen Trophēmos with him in the city, took away into the temple. 30 But the whole city was moved, and there happened a running together of all the people; and having overpowered Paulos, they drew him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut. 31 But as they are seeking to kill him, The news went up to the chiliarchos of the band, that the whole of Jerusalem was troubled. 32 But immediately he took soldiers and centurions, he ran upon them. But they (pron.) having seen the soldiers and the chiliarchos, ceased beating Paulos. 33 Then the chiliarchos having approached, laid hold on him, and he commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he was asking who he is, and what he did. 34 But others were crying out saying another thing. But having not been able to know the certainty because of the tumult, he commanded to take him away into the castle. 35 But when he there concerning all things which were ordained for thee to do." 11 But it came to pass, that (ⲇⲉ) as I saw not for (the) glory of that light, they who were with me laid hold of my hand; I came to Damaskos. 12 But one, called (ϫⲉ) Ananias, a man devout according to the law, all the Jews who dwelt there witnessing to him, 13 [but] having come unto me, and having stood, he said to me: "Saoul, my brother, see." But I also in that hour gazed at him.

14 But he (pron.) said: "God of our fathers chose thee before to know his will, and to see the righteous (one), and to hear a voice from his mouth. 15 Because thou wilt be for him witness with all men concerning the things which thou sawest and which thou heardest. 16 And now what wilt thou do? Rise, be baptised and wash thee from thy sins, concerning a hope and a resurrection of the dead I (pron.) am judged. 7 But he having said this, there happened a tumult between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. 8 For the Sadducees indeed say that there is not resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit, but the Pharisees confess them both[a]. 9 But a great noise happened, and some from the Pharisees rose, they disputed, saying:

'We find nothing of evil in this man. If a spirit spake to him or an angel.'

10 But a great tumult having happened, the chiliarchos feared lest by any means Paulos should be carried (off) by them, he commanded the soldiery that they should go up and snatch him from their midst, and bring him into the castle.

11 But in the night which cometh the Lord stood by him, he said: 'Take courage; as thou witnessed concerning me

Rōmē.' 12 But the day having come (ϣⲱⲡⲓ), the Jews assembled, they adjured themselves, saying (that they would) not eat nor drink until they killed Paulos. 13 But they were being more than forty men, they who made this oath.
14 These came unto the chief priests and the presbyters, they said: 'In an anathema we adjured ourselves not to taste anything until we kill Paulos: 15 now then make known[a] to the chiliarchos, with the council, that he may bring him unto you as that ye may know accurately concerning him: but we (pron.) before that he approacheth you, are prepared to kill him.' 16 But (the) son of (the) sister of Paulos having heard of the plot, he came, he went in to the castle, he showed to Paulos. 17 But Paulos called one of the centurions, he said: 'Take this young man in unto the chiliarchos; for he hath a thing to say to him.' 18 He (pron.) indeed then took him; he brought him unto the chiliarchos, and he said:

governor.' 25 But he wrote a letter having a form thus, 26 Klaudios Lysia to the most excellent governor Phylix, hail.
27 This man the Jews seized, and as they are thinking to kill him, I went with the soldiery; I saved him, having known that he is a Roman. 28 But wishing to know the cause concerning which they found fault with him, I brought him to (ⲉϫⲉⲛ) their council: 29 whom[a] I found found fault with concerning questions of their law, but I found not sin in him worthy of (the) death or bonds for an offence[b]. 30 But having been shown concerning an evil plan which would be made against this man by them, immediately I sent him to thee, having ordered his accusers to speak with thee.
31 The soldiers indeed then, according to that which was ordained them, took away Paulos by night, having brought him to Antipatris. 32 But on the (lit. his) morrow they let the horsemen go with him; they returned to the castle.

9 I indeed then was thinking for myself to do many things which oppose (the) name of Jesus the Nazōreos. 10 This which I did in Jerusalem; many among the saints I (pron.) cast into the prisons, having received the authority from the chief priests; (as) they were killing them I (ϣⲁⲓ) gave vote against them 11 in every synagogue; giving pain to them many times, I was forcing them to blaspheme; but in [an] excess being in a madness towards them, I (ϣⲁⲓ) persecuted them even unto the cities also which are outside. 12 And in these (things) journeying[a] to Damaskos with an authority and (ⲛⲉⲙ) commandment of the chief priests, 13 [but] being on the road at midday I saw, (the) king, a light from (the) heaven brighter than (the) sun, it came upon me and them who were with me. 14 But we all having fallen upon the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the language of Hebrew: 'Saoul, Saoul, why persecutest thou me? It is a hard thing for thee to kick against goads.' 15 But I (pron.)

32 But Agrippas said to Phēstos: 'It was possible to release this man, if he had not appealed to (the) king.'

XXVII. But it came to pass (that), it having been decided for us to sail to [the] Hytalia, he delivered Paulos and other prisoners to a centurion, his name being Ioulios, from the band of Sabastē. 2 But we went on board a ship *Andrathey could not oppose the wind, we gave up[a], we were driven. [16] But having fled to an island which is called 'Klauda,' scarcely could we secure the boat: [17] this having been taken away, they were making help, girding the ship; but fearing lest by any means they should fall into the Sirtēs, we lowered the gear, and thus we floated along[b]. [18] But as a tossing[c] was rocking[d] us exceedingly, [but] on the (lit. his) morrow they were tossing out (the freight): [19] and on the third day they put (lit. cast) their hand on (ⲛ̄ⲥⲁ) the gear (plur.) of the ship, they threw them out. [20] But as appear not (the) sun and the stars for many days, no small tempest being that which was happening, at length all our hope for us to be saved had gone. [21] But a long (time of) not eating happens. Then stood Paulos in their midst, he said:

we should fall on reefs[a], they cast four anchors at the stern of the ship, they were praying for it to be the day. 30 But the sailors, seeking that they might flee from the ship, let down the boat to the sea in pretence as that they are going to cast anchors from the fore(ship). 31 Paulos said to the centurion and the soldiers, Unless these stay on the ship it is not possible for you to be saved. 32 Then the soldiers broke away the ropes of the boat, they let her fall. 33 Until the day came (ϣⲱⲡⲓ), Paulos was persuading them all that they should take some (ⲟⲩ) food, saying: 'Lo, fourteen days ye completed, looking out, ye ate not anything. 34 Therefore I pray you to take your food: for this is (the) first (thing) unto your health; for a hair of (the) head of one of you will not perish.' 35 But having said these (things), he took a loaf, he gave thanks to God before all, and having broken it, he began to eat. 36 But the heart of all of them having lifted the anchors, they were letting them (go) in the sea, but at the same time they loosed the heads of the rudders; and having hoisted the foresail to the wind which blew, they put in to the shore. 41 But having fallen on (ⲉ) a place, being of two seas, they ran the ship aground thither; and the fore(part) of it indeed was fixed, it stayed, not moving, but the hinder (part) of it was destroyed by (the) violence of the waves. 42 But the soldiers made a plan, that they should kill the prisoners, lest by any means one should swim judgement letteth him not live.' ⁵ He (pron.) indeed then shook the wild beast to the fire, no evil happened to him.

⁶ But they (pron.) were thinking that he will swell[a] or will fall immediately and die: but having waited, gazing at him, and having seen that no evil thing seized him, they turned themselves immediately, saying that he was a god.
⁷ But in that place there were many fields of the first (man) of the island, his name being Pouplios: this (man) having taken us up, received us in a love of hospitality three days. ⁸ But it came to pass (that) the father of Pouplios having been sick in fevers and dysenteries was prostrate under them. But this (man)—Paulos went in unto him, he prayed, he laid his hands upon him, he healed him.
⁹ But this having been done, (the) rest who were in the island, with whom there was sickness, were coming unto him and he was healing them. ¹⁰ But these honoured us in great honour, and when we were about to be brought from there, they prepared for us that of which we had need.

a day, they came unto him to the lodging, being many:
and he declared to them, witnessing to them concerning the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, from (the) law of Mōysēs and the prophets, from early unto evening. 24 And some indeed were being persuaded by the things which he was saying; but others were being unbelieving. 25 But disagreeing amongst themselves, Paulos dismissed them, saying one word to them: 'Well spake the holy spirit through Ēsaēas the prophet to your fathers, 26 saying: "Go[a] unto this people, say to them: 'In a hearing ye shall hear, and ye shall not understand; in a seeing ye shall see, and ye shall not see.' 27 For (the) heart of this

THE REVELATION OF THE HOLY IŌANNĒS.

I. The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him, to show to his servants the things which must happen quickly: and he signified them. Having sent them through his angel to his servant Iōannēs.
2 He who witnessed to the word of God, and the witness of Jesus Christ, to[a] the things which he saw.
3 Blessed are they who read, and they who hear the words of this prophecy, and who keep the things which are written on it: for the time approached. 4 Iōannēs to the seven churches which are in [the] Asia: (the) grace to you and [the] peace from him who is, and who was being, and who (ⲡⲉⲑ) cometh; And from the seven spirits which are before the throne; 5 And from Jesus Christ the witness, the faithful, the firstborn of the dead, and (the) ruler of all the kings of (the) earth. He who loved us, and he washed us from our sins in his blood. 6 And he made us a kingdom of priesthood [a] to God his Father; whose is the glory and the might for ever. Amēn. 7 Lo, he it is who cometh with the clouds; and they all shall see him —every eye, and they who pierced him; and they all shall see him—the tribes of (the) earth. Amēn. 8 I am the alpha and the ō(mega), the beginning and the end: Saith the Lord God, he who is, he who was being, and he who cometh, the Almighty. 9 I am Iōannēs your brother, and your partner in the tribulations, because the kingdom and thy endurance were in Jesus. I was being in the island, and he conquered. [3] But he having opened the second seal, I heard the second living-being saying: 'Come.' [4] And I saw. A horse of colour of fire all (over) came forth.

And to him who sat upon it was given to take away the peace from all (the) earth; that they might slaughter one another: and a great sword was given to him. [5] And he having opened the third seal, I saw the third living-being saying: 'Come.' And I saw. Behold, a black horse; and he who sat upon it having a balance in his hand.

[6] And I heard a harsh voice in (the) midst of the four living-beings as (the) voice of an eagle, saying: 'A measure of wheat for a stater, and three measures of barley for a stater; but the oil and the wine hurt them not.' [7] And he having opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth *living-seven angels who were before God, standing; and seven trumpets were given to them. 3 And another angel came; he stood by the altar, having a censer of gold: and much incense was given to him, that he might give it (plur.) along with (ⲛ̄ⲥⲁ) the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar, that which was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense of the prayers of all the saints went up from (the) hand of the angel, he who was before God. 5 And the angel took the censer of gold, he filled it with the fire of the altar, and he cast it down upon the earth; and there happened thunders and voices and lightnings and an earthquake. 6 And the seven angels, they who had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves that they might sound.

7 And the first angel sounded, and there happened a hail forth. 3 And another sign manifested itself in (the) heaven; and lo, a dragon of colour of fire, it is very great, having (lit. being to him) seven heads and ten horns, there being seven crowns upon his heads: 4 and his tail dragged away (the) third part of the stars of (the) heaven and it cast them down upon (the) earth. And the dragon stood before the woman, that, if she should bring forth the son, the dragon might swallow him. 5 And she brought forth the son[a]: this is he who will rule[b] the nations with (ϧⲉⲛ) a staff of iron. And the child was carried away up to God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled to (the) desert, to the place which God prepared for her, that they might nourish her there a thousand and two hundred (and) ninety days. 7 And a great war took place in (the) heaven: Michaēl and his angels to war against the dragon. And the dragon warred against them and his angels; 8 and he prevailed not against them in fighting[c] them: and they put not place for him any more up in (the) heaven. 9 And the dragon was cast

(out), the great serpent, (the) ancient, he who is called the devil Satan, he who led astray the whole world; he was cast below the earth: his angels also were cast below with him.

[10] And I heard a great voice up in (the) heaven, saying: 'Now happened the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ.

Because the accuser of our brethren was cast to the earth, he who accused before God in the day and the night.

[11] Because they (pron.) overcame him because of (the) blood of the lamb, and because of (the) blood of their witness, for they loved not their life even unto (the) death.

[12] Therefore delight yourselves, [the] heavens, and they who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea: because the devil came below to you, there being a great wrath in him; knowing that only (ⲕⲉ) a little while (it is) which he hath.'

[13] But the dragon, having seen that he was cast to (the) earth, pursued the woman who brought forth the son[a].

there being a name written on his heads. [2] And the wild beast which I saw was being like to a leopard, and his feet being as those of a bear, his mouth being like to a mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave his power to him, and his throne, and a great authority. [3] And there is being a wound[a] on his heads as of a slaughtering of (the) death, and the wound of his death was healed. And all (the) earth wondered behind the wild beast; [4] and they worshipped the wild beast, saying: 'Who is like to this wild beast? And who (is he) for whom it is possible to war with him?'

[5] And a mouth[b] was given to him to say great blasphemies, and authority was given to him to war forty-two months.

[6] And he opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them who dwell in (the) heaven. [7] And it was given to him to make a war with the saints, and to overcome them. And authority was given to him over all the tribes, and every tongue, and every nation: [8] and they all shall worship him, they who dwell because of the signs which were given to him, having done them before the wild beast. Saying to them who dwell upon the earth, that they should make image to the wild beast, in whom is (the) wound of (the) sword, and he lived.

15 It was given to him to give spirit to the image of the wild reaping (hook) upon the earth.

17 And (there was) another angel who came from (the) heaven having a sharp sword. 18 And another angel came from the altar having an authority over (lit. of a) fire. And he called in a great sound to him who had the sharp sword, saying: 'Send thy sharp sword and gather the cluster of vine of (the) earth.' 19 And the angel struck[a] his sword into the earth, and he gathered the vine of (the) earth, and he cast it into the great winepress of (the) wrath of God.

20 And he trode the winepress outside of the city; and a blood came out of the winepress unto the bridles of the horses, a thousand and six hundred stadia. XV. And I saw another great sign up in (the) heaven, being wonderful; seven angels having the seven last plagues; because in them was completed the wrath of God.

he called in a great sound to him who had the sharp sword, saying: 'Send thy sharp sword and gather the cluster of vine of (the) earth.' 19 And the angel struck[a] his sword into the earth, and he gathered the vine of (the) earth, and he cast it into the great winepress of (the) wrath of God.
20 And he trode the winepress outside of the city; and a blood came out of the winepress unto the bridles of the horses, a thousand and six hundred stadia. XV. And I saw another great sign up in (the) heaven, being wonderful; seven angels having the seven last plagues; because in them was completed the wrath of God.

sea; and it became blood as that of a dead man; and every soul which liveth died in the sea. 4 And the third angel poured his vial on the rivers and the fountains of water; and they became blood. 5 I heard the angel of the waters, saying: 'Thou (art) righteous, he who is, and he who was being, because thou judgedst these. 6 Because they shed the blood of the martyrs and the prophets, thou gavest blood to them to drink; because they are worthy.' 7 And I heard apostles of the lamb. 15 And he who spake to me hath [a] a reed of gold, that he might measure the city and her gates and her walls. 16 And the city was a square, and as is her length thus also is her breadth. And he measured the city, he found her being twelve thousand stadia of length; and her breadth and her height are being equal.

17 And her wall was measured, it was found making a hundred forty-four thousand measures [b] of a man, that is to say, of (ⲫⲁ) an angel. 18 And (the) circuit of the wall—The foundation [c] was being as an iaspis. And the city was being worked (ⲛ̄ⲛⲉⲃ) with pure gold as [a] pure glass.
19 And the foundations of the wall of the city (are) built from every precious stone.

Translation of beginning of restored Version in MS. J_1, vol. iii, pp. xxxiv, xxxv.

[2] He who gave covenant before upon the tongue of prophets in (lit. from) the holy book, [3] he manifested his Son, whom he begat (ⲘⲘⲀⲤ) from the body in his nurselings of David. [4] And he (pron.) was made known a son of God in the power and the holy spirit, in the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from those who are dead, [5] who gave to us the grace and the apostleship among (lit. from) all the nations, but only (Ⲁ) they who heard and they received the believing (ⲚⲀϨϮ) on his name. [6] And ye also among them (who) were called in Jesus Christ unto all men (ⲢⲰⲘⲘⲎ mistaken for ⲢⲰⲘⲘⲒ men), [7] among the beloved of God who called them holy. (The) peace and the grace to you from (ϨⲒⲦⲈⲚ) God the Father and from (ϦⲈⲚ) Jesus Christ our Lord. [8] Have not I (pron.) given thanks to my God already (ⲀϤϨⲞⲨⲒⲦ) in Jesus Christ for you because your faith (lit. thou believedst you) was manifested in the whole world (oikomenē), and it witnessed to me of God, he whom I serve?
